Dear Mr. Hue,
My name is Edward Yee, and I am Joseph Sinda's partner in DragonThunder Entertainment. I am pleased to make your acquaintance; I've been told a lot about you and what you have to offer. I can make myself available on the evenings of the 22nd or 23rd, or even the afternoon of the 24th. Please let us know which evening is better for you so that we can commit to an appointment. Thank you for your time.
Best Regards,
Edward Yee

1. Your emails keep on coming into my spam section of Norton…that's not a good sign J - even my outlook is allergic to film financing deals!!! Maybe it knows something I don't!

2. I will be on a tight schedule so it will have to be close to my Hotel or possibly at my hotel. I will be staying at the Regent Beverly Hills (April 22nd to April 29th. At the moment I am avail. On the eve. of the 22nd and possibly 23rd or afternoon of the 24th). I will let you know which night is better for me also let me know your schedules and we will try and make it work – please confirm ASAP, as my schedule will fill up fast);

3. Not sure what you need from me, as mentioned this is something I can do but your projects will have to make sense from your side and the $$$ side. This is a very "flaky" business and as you know I have been in it years ago. If the projects make sense and the back end is covered, I can look at doing an on-line IPO. This is something we understand. Please realize that even though that company [you showed me] has it all on the net doesn't mean they are successful at actually raising $$$. The key will always be the $$$ and we have knowledge on both sides of the equation [i.e. capital raises and film financing];

1. Your emails keep on coming into my spam section of Norton…that's not a good sign :-) - even my outlook is allergic to film financing deals!!! Maybe it knows something I don't!

2. I will be on a tight schedule so it will have to be close to my Hotel or possibly at my hotel. I will be staying at the Regent Beverly Hills (April 22nd to April 29th. At the moment I am avail. On the eve. of the 22nd and possibly 23rd or afternoon of the 24th). I will let you know which night is better for me also let me know your schedules and we will try and make it work – please confirm ASAP, as my schedule will fill up fast);

3. Not sure what you need from me, as mentioned this is something I can do but your projects will have to make sense from your side and the $$$ side. This is a very "flaky" business and as you know I have been in it years ago. If the projects make sense and the back end is covered, I can look at doing an on-line IPO. This is something we understand. Please realize that even though that company [you showed me] has it all on the net doesn't mean they are successful at actually raising $$$. The key will always be the $$$ and we have knowledge on both sides of the equation [i.e. capital raises and film financing];

Importance: High

Dear Richard: Hello, My Partner in DTE gets out at Warner Bros sometimes around 7:30PM so we could meet You around 8:00PM at Moe's in Toluca Lake on Riverside drive Catta Corner to Bob's Restuarant. It's near Warner Bros. Studio.Not sure which days have to check Edward Yee's schedule, My Partner ,OK. Thanks.

PS: Is there any backround You can give US now. Anything in Text, so we can read and understand/ What are the Rules of Engagement. Thank You.

Sincerely Yours,

Dr Joseph P. Sinda

Program Could Provide exactly approxiamtly what Let's ay We Have a Slate Of Films to Make Over a 5 Year Period. A film of $10 Mil Usd We Provide 50% of the Production Budget $5Mil Usd and $5Mil Prints & Advertisement.We will mostly

Have a Major Distributor That will Provide the other 50% of Production Budget and P & A. This is just so we get an idea. This is based on a Pro forma st1\:*{behavior:url(#default#ieooui) } 1. Your emails keep on coming into my spam section of Norton&that#s not a good sign J - even my outlook is allergic to film financing deals!!! Maybe it knows something I don#t! 2. I will be on a tight schedule so it will have to be close to my Hotel or possibly at my hotel. I will be staying at the Regent Beverly Hills (April 22 nd to April 29 th . At the moment I am avail. On the eve. of the 22 nd and possibly 23 rd or afternoon of the 24 th). I will let you know which night is better for me also let me know your schedules and we will try and make it work # please confirm ASAP, as my schedule will fill up fast); 3. Not sure what you need from me, as mentioned this is something I can do but your projects will have to make sense from your side and the $$$ side. This is a very #flaky# business and as you know I have been in it years ago. If the projects make sense and the back end is covered, I can look at doing an on-line IPO. This is something we understand. Please realize that even though that company [you showed me] has it all on the net doesn#t mean they are successful at actually raising $$$. The key will always be the $$$ and we have knowledge on both sides of the equation [i.e. capital raises and film financing]; Richard Hue Harbour Capital Management Group (1999) Inc. Hello Edward,

The evening of April 22nd will be best for me. Let’s say 8PM for drinks at my hotel? I will be arriving into LA at approx. 4:30PM and my car should have me at the Regent Beverly Wilshire by 5:30PM. Please confirm if that is OK with you guys. Thanks and look forward to seeing you then.

Dear Mr. Hue,

My name is Edward Yee, and I am Joseph Sinda's partner in DragonThunder Entertainment. I am pleased to make your acquaintance; I've been told a lot about you and what you have to offer. I can make myself available on the evenings of the 22nd or 23rd, or even the afternoon of the 24th. Please let us know which evening is better for you so that we can commit to an appointment. Thank you for your time.

Best Regards,

Edward Yee

Let#s say 8PM for drinks at my hotel? I will be arriving into LA at approx. 4:30PM and my car should have me at the Regent Beverly Wilshire by 5:30PM. Please confirm if that is OK with you guys. Thanks and look forward to seeing you then.

Subject: [Norton AntiSpam] RE: RE: RE: Richard can you replicate this IPO's for Feature Films. Dear Mr. Hue, My name is Edward Yee, and I am Joseph Sinda's partner in DragonThunder Entertainment. I am pleased to make your acquaintance; I've been told a lot about you and what you have to offer. I can make myself available on the evenings of the 22nd or 23rd, or even the afternoon of the 24th. Please let us know which evening is better for you so that we can commit to an appointment. Thank you for your time. Best Regards, Edward Yee -----Original Message-----

1. Your emails keep on coming into my spam section of Norton&that#s not a good sign J - even my outlook is allergic to film financing deals!!! Maybe it knows something I don#t! 2. I will be on a tight schedule so it will have to be close to my Hotel or possibly at my hotel. I will be staying at the Regent Beverly Hills (April 22 nd to April 29 th . At the moment I am avail. On the eve. of the 22 nd and possibly 23 rd or afternoon of the 24 th). I will let you know which night is better for me also let me know your schedules and we will try and make it work # please confirm ASAP, as my schedule will fill up fast); 3. Not sure what you need from me, as mentioned this is something I can do but your projects will have to make sense from your side and the $$$ side. This is a very #flaky# business and as you know I have been in it years ago. If the projects make sense and the back end is covered, I can look at doing an on-line IPO. This is something we understand. Please realize that even though that company [you showed me] has it all on the net doesn#t mean they are successful at actually raising $$$. The key will always be the $$$ and we have knowledge on both sides of the equation [i.e. capital raises and film financing]; Richard Hue Harbour Capital Management Group (1999) Inc. Dear Michael: Hello, OK, Ithink the Company we want is dissolved. The Two Main Banks May each Have a Film Division. Check on that Find out There Requirements, Who is The Key Officer that You submit to. From This Bank, The Berliner Bank, The Bank Of Scotland that we delt with Last Year. Any Banks in Ireland that have a Film Division. Check on those two Other FILM Companies. No it's not The one in The USA that's been around for 24 Years. Although very interesting. Great work Michael. Let's see what the Next few days Bring. Any news From any Gurnsey Banks that have a Film Division. OK

Thanks, Love ,Joey

Dear Michael: I sent you an email from Yahoo explaining what to do. Actually Were just Looking to Cover 50% Of The Budget and 50% of The Prints and Advertisement so maybe out of Pocket $10Mil Usd. That's Not alot For a Feature Film With Major Distribution Perhaps 2500 Screens in North America.The Prints run about $3,500 per 35 Milimeter Print each.
OK, Love Doc
PS: Looking for an UnderWriter or Reinsurer, Savey.

Yes, this is fine. Look forward to meeting with you. Shall we meet in a specific place at the hotel? Also, if there are traffic problems, is there a contact phone number where you can be reached?

Hello Edward,

The evening of April 22nd will be best for me. Let's say 8PM for drinks at my hotel? I will be arriving into LA at approx. 4:30PM and my car should have me at the Regent Beverly Wilshire by 5:30PM. Please confirm if that is OK with you guys. Thanks and look forward to seeing you then.

Dear Mr. Hue,

My name is Edward Yee, and I am Joseph Sinda's partner in DragonThunder Entertainment. I am pleased to make your acquaintance; I've been told a lot about you and what you have to offer. I can make myself available on the evenings of the 22nd or 23rd, or even the afternoon of the 24th. Please let us know which evening is better for you so that we can commit to an appointment. Thank you for your time.

Best Regards,

Edward Yee

1. Your emails keep on coming into my spam section of Norton…that's not a good sign J - even my outlook is allergic to film financing deals!!! Maybe it knows something I don't!

2. I will be on a tight schedule so it will have to be close to my Hotel or possibly at my hotel. I will be staying at the Regent Beverly Hills (April 22nd to April 29th. At the moment I am avail. On the eve. of the 22nd and possibly 23rd or afternoon of the 24th). I will let you know which night is better for me also let me know your schedules and we will try and make it work – please confirm ASAP, as my schedule will fill up fast);

3. Not sure what you need from me, as mentioned this is something I can do but your projects will have to make sense from your side and the $$$ side. This is a very "flaky" business and as you know I have been in it years ago. If the projects make sense and the back end is covered, I can look at doing an on-line IPO. This is something we understand. Please realize that even though that company [you showed me] has it all on the net doesn't mean they are successful at actually raising $$$. The key will always be the $$$ and we have knowledge on both sides of the equation [i.e. capital raises and film financing];

Subject: RE: RE: RE: RE: RE: Richard can you replicate this IPO's for Feature Films.

1. I have a meeting at The Milken Institute at 5:30PM in Santa Monica and will check into my Hotel after that which should be at approx. 7PM or so;

2. Let’s make it at 8:30PM to be safe and you can call my LA cell number which is 310.457.9944 if you will be delayed;

3. Is there a number I can contact you in case of delays also?

4. We can meet at the main lobby of the Regent Beverly Hills which is located at the corner of Rodeo Dr and Wilshire. When u arrive you can call up to my room or I may be at the main lobby bar already if I do not answer (if this is so, then you can ask the hostess where I am sitting);

5. Look forward to our meeting!

Yes, this is fine. Look forward to meeting with you. Shall we meet in a specific place at the hotel? Also, if there are traffic problems, is there a contact phone number where you can be reached?

BR,

Ed

Hello Edward,

The evening of April 22nd will be best for me. Let’s say 8PM for drinks at my hotel? I will be arriving into LA at approx. 4:30PM and my car should have me at the Regent Beverly Wilshire by 5:30PM. Please confirm if that is OK with you guys. Thanks and look forward to seeing you then.

Dear Mr. Hue,

My name is Edward Yee, and I am Joseph Sinda's partner in DragonThunder Entertainment. I am pleased to make your acquaintance; I've been told a lot about you and what you have to offer. I can make myself available on the evenings of the 22nd or 23rd, or even the afternoon of the 24th. Please let us know which evening is better for you so that we can commit to an appointment. Thank you for your time.

Best Regards,

Edward Yee

1. Your emails keep on coming into my spam section of Norton…that’s not a good sign :-) - even my outlook is allergic to film financing deals!!! Maybe it knows something I don’t!

2. I will be on a tight schedule so it will have to be close to my Hotel or possibly at my hotel. I will be staying at the Regent Beverly Hills (April 22nd to April 29th. At the moment I am avail. On the eve. of the 22nd and possibly 23rd or afternoon of the 24th). I will let you know which night is better for me also let me know your schedules and we will try and make it work – please confirm ASAP, as my schedule will fill up fast);

3. Not sure what you need from me, as mentioned this is something I can do but your projects will have to make sense from your side and the $$$ side. This is a very "flaky" business and as you know I have been in it years ago. If the projects make sense and the back end is covered, I can look at doing an on-line IPO. This is something we understand. Please realize that even though that company [you showed me] has it all on the net doesn't mean they are successful at actually raising $$$. The key will always be the $$$ and we have knowledge on both sides of the equation [i.e. capital raises and film financing];

Dear Richard: Hello, My Partner in DTE gets out at Warner Bros sometimes around 7:30PM so we could meet You around 8:00PM at Moe's in Toluca Lake on Riverside drive Catta Corner to Bob's Restuarant. It's near Warner Bros. Studio.Not sure which days have to check Edward Yee's schedule, My Partner ,OK. Thanks.

PS: Is there any backround You can give US now. Anything in Text, so we can read and understand/ What are the Rules of Engagement. Thank You.

Sincerely Yours,

Dr Joseph P. Sinda

We can meet at the main lobby of the Regent Beverly Hills which is located at the corner of Rodeo Dr and Wilshire. When u arrive you can call up to my room or I may be at the main lobby bar already if I do not answer (if this is so, then you can ask the hostess where I am sitting); Look forward to our meeting!

Subject: RE: RE: RE: RE: Richard can you replicate this IPO's for Feature Films. Hello Edward, The evening of April 22 nd will be best for me. Let#s say 8PM for drinks at my hotel? I will be arriving into LA at approx. 4:30PM and my car should have me at the Regent Beverly Wilshire by 5:30PM. Please confirm if that is OK with you guys. Thanks and look forward to seeing you then.

Subject: RE: RE: RE: Richard can you replicate this IPO's for Feature Films. 1. Your emails keep on coming into my spam section of Norton&that#s not a good sign J - even my outlook is allergic to film financing deals!!! Maybe it knows something I don#t! 2. I will be on a tight schedule so it will have to be close to my Hotel or possibly at my hotel. I will be staying at the Regent Beverly Hills (April 22 nd to April 29 th . At the moment I am avail. On the eve. of the 22 nd and possibly 23 rd or afternoon of the 24 th). I will let you know which night is better for me also let me know your schedules and we will try and make it work # please confirm ASAP, as my schedule will fill up fast); 3. Not sure what you need from me, as mentioned this is something I can do but your projects will have to make sense from your side and the $$$ side. This is a very #flaky# business and as you know I have been in it years ago. If the projects make sense and the back end is covered, I can look at doing an on-line IPO. This is something we understand. Please realize that even though that company [you showed me] has it all on the net doesn#t mean they are successful at actually raising $$$. The key will always be the $$$ and we have knowledge on both sides of the equation [i.e. capital raises and film financing]; Richard Hue Harbour Capital Management Group (1999) Inc. Dear Judith; sure Steve is an attorney and a terrific Guy. His Father Passed away Not to long ago. I know His Sister Too, She is Also an attorney married to a Turkish Writer/Director.They Graduated LA Film School Together.God it's a small world after all. Big Schuffle in The Film Industry. Disney has a dry Spell. 3 Bombs in a Row at the Box Office. ABC TV in 4th Place and WB TV is gaining. The Mouse House needs a Real Spring Cleaning Time for Mr Eisner to Exit stage left. It will take 2 to 5 Years to build up good will at Disney

Dear Michael: Hello, Spoke to someone from The Bristol Film Commission. Ok, He said contact The Bank Of Ireland, They have a Film Division. Also The Bank Of Scotland and Those to other Banks the Bank Of Luxenbourg A and The Berliner Bank. Also The Bank Of Lichtenstein, The Bank Of Quatar should have a branch in Guersey. If not We should run one. No taxes at All in quatar or Baihrain, Amazing. Also This is the skinny on The Co Production Deals with The UK. New Figures and Regulations will be read for This Cannes Film Festival Less than 30 days starts May 10th 2004; The 50/50 co production with UK. Rebate 18% paid only to the Producers Not the Investors and 20% paid to the same on there 401BC Plan, Something like that. Puerto Rico Has a 5o/50 co Production with a 41% Rebate to the Producers, Wow, Chile, Argentina have similar Deals You get Paid by the Government.Hey, is Robert Heverly still alive. I worked with Him, great Mentor and Teacher. Love, Joey

Dear Michael: Hello, I had a Meeting and was adised by General Council. No 20% is wrong. It's only solicitation of Information and requirements that's all we need. We could put You on as Legal on Payroll or Computer Data scout.When The Project gets funded. You could make a Deal with The Bank Or Finacial Institution For a Finders Fee which they Pay to You.After we close a said deal for Finacing or underwriting US Shooting abroad. John Malkovich has done it now three times in Europe. He and His Production Partner use Trains and Bullit High Speed Trains Going from Country to Country Full filing The Shooting requirements and Picking UP the Money in each territory.He uses most everything from Europe.Brings one or two American Stars Plus himself. Dear Mary and Gregg

Doc Sinda of Hollywood has told me that you might be interested in editing our book

If this is indeed the case do please just let me know and if you like I can email it over the pond to you

It is a joint copyright work held 50 / 50 by Doctor Sinda and myself

However because of my limited abilites I can only send it over to you in the form of 530 emails which I will need to break down into smaller bundles for computing purposes

If this is indeed acceptable to you do please just give me the word and I will start sending them over

Kind Regards

Dear Dr Joseph ,

I am Barrister Bio Tutu,a solicitor at law, personal attorney to Mr. Pafford Sinda, a national Of your country, who used to work with Shell development Company in Lome Togo. Here in after shall be referred to as my client. On the 21st of April2002, my client, his wife and their only daughter were involved in a car accident along Nouvissi express Road, All occupants of the vehicle unfortunately lost there lives. Since then I have made several enquiries to his embassy here to locate any of my clients extended relatives, this has also proved unsuccessful.

After these several unsuccessful attempts, I decided to track his last name over the Internet, to locate any member of his family hence I contacted you. I have contacted you to assist in repatriating the fund valued at US$2.9 million left behind by my client before it gets confiscated or declared unserviceable by the Security Finance Firm where this huge amount were deposited. The said Security Finance Company has issued me a notice to provide the next of kin or have his account confiscated within the next twenty one official working days. Since I have been unsuccessful in locating the relatives for over 2years now, I seek the consent to present you as the next of kin to the deceased since you have the same last names, so that the proceeds of this account can be paid to you. Therefore, on receipt of your positive response, we shall then discuss the sharing ratio and modalities for transfer.

I have all necessary information and legal documents needed to back you up for claim. All I require from you is your honest cooperation to enable us see this transaction through. I guarantee that this will be executed under legitimate arrangement that will protect you from any breach of the law. Please get in touch with me through this new email address --biotutu@outgun.com-- for more details.

Best regards.

Like you say this book thing is probably more trouble than its worth and its only going to distract you from more pressing financial matters

It would be a self delusion to think it would sell as film rights material

And after all how many people are going to want to read it anyway ?

Maybe a few film buffs and psychiatrists and that is about it

We have not got a market niche

I think it is wiser just to shelve the whole thing

Do you agree ?

Hello Judith: that Barristers name is Michael A. Poole. He lives in Guernsey but London is only a Phone, email or Fax away. He is affliated With the California Bar and New York Bar Also. His Fees are very reasonable as compaired to Los Angeles or New York. Most middle weight attorney's are asking $480 an Hour for corporate work. PS: I did have a Spiritual Encounter with The Lord. It was very Moving. I wept tears of blood. As I felt him enter my Body and Heal Me all over. It happened very fast, but I was able to slow it down so I could comprehend the majesty of the Moment. Michael is a Brilliant Englishmen, A colleague and a true loyal Friend. When My Younger Brother Died, He helped heal some very dark Brooding days. He inspired me to write and produce again.Thanks for asking. Love , Peace

(A Synopsis) A Man who was from England , HE was a Learned man. Was living on an Island off of Switzerland. He had built bridges as a Civil Engineer, even served in The Bomb Squad for M5 where Ian Fleming created the Model for James Bond. I had worked on a few projects that were trying to find a home at Paramount Studios. I got a call from this Man who Identified Himself as Michael A. Poole. He told me He was referred by Paramount Studio. Oh, I see and Who gave you that referral. He gave me the Name. I listened to His story. Certainly I called The Executive and thanked Him for the refferal.Look, Michael, this is a very tuff town and really it's all about what have You done for me lately. I've created most of my luck the Hardway, but I'm looking for work to. If anybody makes you a promise in this town there full of Stuffed Turkey. take my email addy and my mailing address. I don't want you spending a fortune on Transalantic calls.If you'll need a friend, I'll be here. I emailed My Bio and resume to this Michael. I started to understand that His life was endanger and His self pride and dignity had been tortured out of him. My emails became a Lifeline and I built my responses as we started to help each other. A unique friendship started to form. The title of this book refers to what i was paying for email service at that time. It also came as an airfaire to Bermuda and a few places that wanted toursts in off seasons.I thought they were desperate Maybe that's what we were. I Prayed and wrote my heart out. Someone upstairs was listening, things started to change. I realized we had paid for Our Tickets and we weregoing to ride that PeaceTrain. All the while We used humor as a bonding healing force. Then My only Younger Brother Died. A dark shadow came over the Land. It was a total ecl ipse of The Heart. I turned to Michael and helped him heal. Now it was his turn to help me. PS: I personally want to Thank Gregg & Mary Mae Atwell for helping to edit and put loving bandaids and healing forces to put this book together. Because there are people who can't read that need this book badly. We hope you understand. Keep The Faith and get on Board. Sincerely Yours,Dr Joseph P. SindaMichael A. Poole

Dear Michael: Yes that is correct "The Life and Times of Stanley Pond" It is something we did early on 1999. Wow, it was a satire of Our relationship. It was like a Mockumentary. I went to Europe but I missed seeing You in Switerzerland. I did speak with you, there were a few Faxes because of Brian and mostly emails. Yes , i remember.
OK. There are two Free Email accounts with No Spam Pop UP's. myway.com and The New G-Mail From google.com with 100 Gigs Storage for Free. Use my name Doc Sinda. I sent All the emails you sent to Gregg & Mary Mae Atwell. Clean Your Files,
The NeonLights account is being cleaned. Iam OK. Cleaned it before and after.Twice.
PS: hope You Liked the Synopsis. Take Care,

Dear Mary and Gregg

Doc Sinda of Hollywood has told me that you might be interested in editing our book

If this is indeed the case do please just let me know and if you like I can email it over the pond to you

It is a joint copyright work held 50 / 50 by Doctor Sinda and myself

However because of my limited abilites I can only send it over to you in the form of 530 emails which I will need to break down into smaller bundles for computing purposes

If this is indeed acceptable to you do please just give me the word and I will start sending them over

Kind Regards

Here in after shall be referred to as my client. On the 21st of April2002, my client, his wife and their only daughter were involved in a car accident along Nouvissi express Road, All occupants of the vehicle unfortunately lost there lives. Since then I have made several enquiries to his embassy here to locate any of my clients extended relatives, this has also proved unsuccessful.

After these several unsuccessful attempts, I decided to track his last name over the Internet, to locate any member of his family hence I contacted you. I have contacted you to assist in repatriating the fund valued at US$2.9 million left behind by my client before it gets confiscated or declared unserviceable by the Security Finance Firm where this huge amount were deposited. The said Security Finance Company has issued me a notice to provide the next of kin or have his account confiscated within the next twenty one official working days. Since I have been unsuccessful in locating the relatives for over 2years now, I seek the consent to present you as the next of kin to the deceased since you have the same last names, so that the proceeds of this account can be paid to you. Therefore, on receipt of your positive response, we shall then discuss the sharing ratio and modalities for transfer.

I have all necessary information and legal documents needed to back you up for claim. All I require from you is your honest cooperation to enable us see this transaction through. Dear Doc

For the record you should know that I only asked Natasha to marry me because it was November 5th and she had a good figure

November 5th is a big event in the UK when people celebrate something called Guy Fawkes Night

He tried to blow up the Houses of Parliament centuries ago but the plot was informed on and he got caught with huge amounts of gunpowder stored in the basements of the Houses of Parliament

Anyway they gave him the Death Penalty and celebrated having caught him every year with fireworks on November 5th Guy Fawkes Night

When I had my first breakdown in the early 1980's one of my fellow patients recommended that if I ever got married it should be on November 5th because each wedding anniversary would then be celebrated with the traditional fireworks of November 5th Guy Fawkes Night every year thereafter

So every wedding anniversary would be accompanied by fireworks

So that was the main reason I asked Natasha to marry me on November 5th 1992

It sounds a bit stupid looking back on it but still

It had nothing to do whatsoever with her Dad being the inventor of Stealth Technology or anything

It was just that it was November 5th and she had a good figure

Quite naturally I asked for a full one year engagement running right on to November 5th the next year

Kind Regards
Yours Sincerely

Someone also came over from England to start a self help mental health service user group

They are shutting down one of the long stay wards now because people seem to be getting on much better with the new generation of medications that have come along

And Rebecca is now working on the Farm as well as Ray

I think it is up in St Lawrence somewhere

Not the St Lawrence seaway but the St Lawrence Parish being one of the 12 parishes here

Dear Dr Joseph,

Thank you for your prompt response to my email message. I understand your concern and I consider it expedient to give you the details of this transaction.

This transaction is legitimate and in essence it will undergo normal procedures as stipulated in the financial and allied matters act and all legal documents will be issued in your name. I contacted you because you have the same last name with Mr. Pafford Sinda (blessed memory)and so you can lay claims to this huge amount he left behind as his next of kin.
You will be entitled to 35% of the total fund at the conclusion of the transaction, 30% goes to charity because late Mr. Pafford Sinda was involved in some charity organisations and he intended to build a charity foundation before his death, so i intend to open a charity foundation in his name in order to immortalise his name, while 35% of the money will be mine because i will provide all the information that will make the Bank release the money to you. Three days after you confirm the money in your account, i will come over to your country for disbursement/sharing of the fund according to the agreed percentage.

Late Mr. Pafford Sinda was born in 1944. he worked with Shell Petroleum Company as an engineer and later retired to private practice as a consultant and formed an oil servicing company .he operated an account with REGENT BANK of Africa until his death. he had a wife named Mrs Linda and a daughter named Susan who died alongside with him in the auto accident on the 21 April, 2002.
You must understand that in the finance industry, chances or opportunities like this are common but not heard. People put their monies in Banks and some of these accounts are either coded or confidentially operated ,therefore, when such people die what do you think that happens to these monies when nobody comes for their claims? Well, this is one of the numerous avenues good "free" monies are made within and amongst the officials. I did not mastermind my client's death and I did not operate or manage his account but i was his personal attorney so was privy to his transaction with the Bank. I have in my possession certificate of deposit and death certificate which are the requirements for the claim .As soon as you indicate your interest to claim this fund, I will send to you the application of claim you will send to the Bank for the claim for an urgent approval. Please note that this transaction requires utmost trust, sincerity and confidentiality for its conclusion.

I await your prompt reply.
Best regards.

There is a special telephone number that you are meant to call in the CIA when this sort of thing happens
The thinking behind it is that if this is indeed a genuine legacy that you have nothing to lose

If it is genuine you d to get twice as much if you use the CIA

because it will cut out the bribe
And you are not going to get out of taxes no matter what you do offshore

Death and Taxes are all you can be certain of in life

I know that you have given him my email address allready but please do not tell him my address or the country I live in

United States Secret Service: Advance Fee Fraud Advisory

PUBLIC AWARENESS ADVISORY REGARDING "4-1-9" OR "ADVANCE FEE FRAUD" SCHEMES

4-1-9 Schemes frequently use the following tactics:

a.. An individual or company receives a letter or fax from an alleged "official" representing a foreign government or agency;

b.. An offer is made to transfer millions of dollars in "over invoiced contract" funds into your personal bank account;

c.. You are encouraged to travel overseas to complete the transaction;

d.. You are requested to provide blank company letterhead forms, banking account information, telephone/fax numbers;

e.. You receive numerous documents with official looking stamps, seals and logo testifying to the authenticity of the proposal;

f.. Eventually you must provide up-front or advance fees for various taxes, attorney fees, transaction fees or bribes;

g.. Other forms of 4-1-9 schemes include: c.o.d. of goods or services, real estate ventures, purchases of crude oil at reduced prices, beneficiary of a will, recipient of an award and paper currency conversion.

If you have already lost funds in pursuit of the above described scheme, please contact your local Secret Service field office.

Nigerian Advance Fee Fraud Overview

The perpetrators of Advance Fee Fraud (AFF), known internationally as "4-1-9" fraud after the section of the Nigerian penal code which addresses fraud schemes, are often very creative and innovative.

Unfortunately, there is a perception that no one is prone to enter into such an obviously suspicious relationship. However, a large number of victims are enticed into believing they have been singled out from the masses to share in multi-million dollar windfall profits for doing absolutely nothing. It is also a misconception that the victim's bank account is requested so the culprit can plunder it -- this is not the primary reason for the account request -- merely a signal they have hooked another victim.

a.. In almost every case there is a sense of urgency;
b.. The victim is enticed to travel to Nigeria or a border country;
c.. There are many forged official looking documents;
d.. Most of the correspondence is handled by fax or through the mail;
e.. Blank letterheads and invoices are requested from the victim along with the banking particulars;
f.. Any number of Nigerian fees are requested for processing the transaction with each fee purported to be the last required;
g.. The confidential nature of the transaction is emphasized;
h.. There are usually claims of strong ties to Nigerian officials;
i.. A Nigerian residing in the U.S., London or other foreign venue may claim to be a clearing house bank for the Central Bank of Nigeria;
j.. Offices in legitimate government buildings appear to have been used by impostors posing as the real occupants or officials.

The most common forms of these fraudulent business proposals fall into seven main categories:

a.. Disbursement of money from wills
b.. Contract fraud (C.O.D. of goods or services)
c.. Purchase of real estate
d.. Conversion of hard currency
e.. Transfer of funds from over invoiced contracts
f.. Sale of crude oil at below market prices

The most prevalent and successful cases of Advance Fee Fraud is the fund transfer scam. In this scheme, a company or individual will typically receive an unsolicited letter by mail from a Nigerian claiming to be a senior civil servant. In the letter, the Nigerian will inform the recipient that he is seeking a reputable foreign company or individual into whose account he can deposit funds ranging from $10-$60 million that the Nigerian government overpaid on some procurement contract.

The criminals obtain the names of potential victims from a variety of sources including trade journals, professional directories, newspapers, and commercial libraries. They do not target a single company, but rather send out mailings en masse. The sender declares that he is a senior civil servant in one of the Nigerian Ministries, usually the Nigerian National Petroleum Corporation (NNPC). The letters refer to investigations of previous contracts awarded by prior regimes alleging that many contracts were over invoiced. Rather than return the money to the government, they desire to transfer the money to a foreign account. The sums to be transferred average between $10,000,000 to $60,000,000 and the recipient is usually offered a commission up to 30 percent for assisting in the transfer.

Initially, the intended victim is instructed to provide company letterheads and pro forma invoicing that will be used to show completion of the contract. One of the reasons is to use the victim's letterhead to forge letters of recommendation to other victim companies and to seek out a travel visa from the American Embassy in Lagos. The victim is told that the completed contracts will be submitted for approval to the Central Bank of Nigeria. Upon approval, the funds will be remitted to an account supplied by the intended victim.

The goal of the criminal is to delude the target into thinking that he is being drawn into a very lucrative, albeit questionable, arrangement. The intended victim must be reassured and confident of the potential success of the deal. He will become the primary supporter of the scheme and willingly contribute a large amount of money when the deal is threatened. The term "when" is used because the con-within-the-con is the scheme will be threatened in order to persuade the victim to provide a large sum of money to save the venture.

The letter, while appearing transparent and even ridiculous to most, unfortunately is growing in its effectiveness. It sets the stage and is the opening round of a two-layered scheme or scheme within a scheme. The fraudster will eventually reach someone who, while skeptical, desperately wants the deal to be genuine.

Victims are almost always requested to travel to Nigeria or a border country to complete a transaction. Individuals are often told that a visa will not be necessary to enter the country. The Nigerian con artists may then bribe airport officials to pass the victims through Immigration and Customs. Because it is a serious offense in Nigeria to enter without a valid visa, the victim's illegal entry may be used by the fraudsters as leverage to coerce the victims into releasing funds. Violence and threats of physical harm may be employed to further pressure victims. In June of 1995, an American was murdered in Lagos, Nigeria, while pursuing a 4-1-9 scam, and numerous other foreign nationals have been reported as missing.

Victims are often convinced of the authenticity of Advance Fee Fraud schemes by the forged or false documents bearing apparently official Nigerian government letterhead, seals, as well as false letters of credit, payment schedules and bank drafts. The fraudster may establish the credibility of his contacts, and thereby his influence, by arranging a meeting between the victim and "government officials" in real or fake government offices.

In the next stage some alleged problem concerning the "inside man" will suddenly arise. An official will demand an up-front bribe or an unforeseen tax or fee to the Nigerian government will have to be paid before the money can be transferred. These can include licensing fees, registration fees, and various forms of taxes and attorney fees. Normally each fee paid is described as the very last fee required. Invariably, oversights and errors in the deal are discovered by the Nigerians, necessitating additional payments and allowing the scheme to be stretched out over many months.

Several reasons have been submitted why Nigerian Advance Fee Fraud has undergone a dramatic increase in recent years. The explanations are as diverse as the types of schemes. The Nigerian Government blames the growing problem on mass unemployment, extended family systems, a get rich quick syndrome, and, especially, the greed of foreigners.

Indications are that Advance Fee Fraud grosses hundreds of millions of dollars annually and the losses are continuing to escalate. In all likelihood, there are victims who do not report their losses to authorities due to either fear or embarrassment.

If you feel you have been a victim of any of these schemes contact your local field office for assistance.

The thinking behind it is that if this is indeed a genuine legacy that you have nothing to lose

If it is genuine you stand to get twice as much if you use the CIA because it will cut out the bribe
And you are not going to get out of taxes no matter what you do offshore

Death and s are all you can be certain of in life

I know that you have given him my email address allready but please do not tell him my address or the country I live in

If you do not like the idea of calling the CIA just call your local Police Station

Remember if is genuine you have nothing to lose

Kind Regards

United States Secret Service: Advance Fee Fraud Advisory

PUBLIC AWARENESS ADVISORY REGARDING "4-1-9" OR "ADVANCE FEE FRAUD" SCHEMES

4-1-9 Schemes frequently use the following tactics:

a.. An individual or company receives a letter or fax from an alleged "official" representing a foreign government or agency;

b.. An offer is made to transfer millions of dollars in "over invoiced contract" funds into your personal bank account;

c.. You are encouraged to travel overseas to complete the transaction;

d.. You are requested to provide blank company letterhead forms, banking account information, telephone/fax numbers;

e.. You receive numerous documents with official looking stamps, seals and logo testifying to the authenticity of the proposal;

f.. Eventually you must provide up-front or advance fees for various taxes, attorney fees, transaction fees or bribes;

g.. Other forms of 4-1-9 schemes include: c.o.d. of goods or services, real estate ventures, purchases of crude oil at reduced prices, beneficiary of a will, recipient of an award and paper currency conversion.

If you have already lost funds in pursuit of the above described scheme, please contact your local Secret Service field office.

Nigerian Advance Fee Fraud Overview

The perpetrators of Advance Fee Fraud (AFF), known internationally as "4-1-9" fraud after the section of the Nigerian penal code which addresses fraud schemes, are often very creative and innovative.

Unfortunately, there is a perception that no one is prone to enter into such an obviously suspicious relationship. However, a large number of victims are enticed into believing they have been singled out from the masses to share in multi-million dollar windfall profits for doing absolutely nothing. It is also a misconception that the victim's bank account is requested so the culprit can plunder it -- this is not the primary reason for the account request -- merely a signal they have hooked another victim.

a.. In almost every case there is a sense of urgency;

b.. The victim is enticed to travel to Nigeria or a border country;

c.. There are many forged official looking documents;

d.. Most of the correspondence is handled by fax or through the mail;

e.. Blank letterheads and invoices are requested from the victim along with the banking particulars;

f.. Any number of Nigerian fees are requested for processing the transaction with each fee purported to be the last required;

g.. The confidential nature of the transaction is emphasized;

h.. There are usually claims of strong ties to Nigerian officials;

i.. A Nigerian residing in the U.S., London or other foreign venue may claim to be a clearing house bank for the Central Bank of Nigeria;

j.. Offices in legitimate government buildings appear to have been used by impostors posing as the real occupants or officials.

The most common forms of these fraudulent business proposals fall into seven main categories:

a.. Disbursement of money from wills

b.. Contract fraud (C.O.D. of goods or services)

c.. Purchase of real estate

d.. Conversion of hard currency

e.. Transfer of funds from over invoiced contracts

f.. Sale of crude oil at below market prices

The most prevalent and successful cases of Advance Fee Fraud is the fund transfer scam. In this scheme, a company or individual will typically receive an unsolicited letter by mail from a Nigerian claiming to be a senior civil servant. In the letter, the Nigerian will inform the recipient that he is seeking a reputable foreign company or individual into whose account he can deposit funds ranging from $10-$60 million that the Nigerian government overpaid on some procurement contract.

The criminals obtain the names of potential victims from a variety of sources including trade journals, professional directories, newspapers, and commercial libraries. They do not target a single company, but rather send out mailings en masse. The sender declares that he is a senior civil servant in one of the Nigerian Ministries, usually the Nigerian National Petroleum Corporation (NNPC). The letters refer to investigations of previous contracts awarded by prior regimes alleging that many contracts were over invoiced. Rather than return the money to the government, they desire to transfer the money to a foreign account. The sums to be transferred average between $10,000,000 to $60,000,000 and the recipient is usually offered a commission up to 30 percent for assisting in the transfer.

Initially, the intended victim is instructed to provide company letterheads and pro forma invoicing that will be used to show completion of the contract. One of the reasons is to use the victim's letterhead to forge letters of recommendation to other victim companies and to seek out a travel visa from the American Embassy in Lagos. The victim is told that the completed contracts will be submitted for approval to the Central Bank of Nigeria. Upon approval, the funds will be remitted to an account supplied by the intended victim.

The goal of the criminal is to delude the target into thinking that he is being drawn into a very lucrative, albeit questionable, arrangement. The intended victim must be reassured and confident of the potential success of the deal. He will become the primary supporter of the scheme and willingly contribute a large amount of money when the deal is threatened. The term "when" is used because the con-within-the-con is the scheme will be threatened in order to persuade the victim to provide a large sum of money to save the venture.

The letter, while appearing transparent and even ridiculous to most, unfortunately is growing in its effectiveness. It sets the stage and is the opening round of a two-layered scheme or scheme within a scheme. The fraudster will eventually reach someone who, while skeptical, desperately wants the deal to be genuine.

Victims are almost always requested to travel to Nigeria or a border country to complete a transaction. Individuals are often told that a visa will not be necessary to enter the country. The Nigerian con artists may then bribe airport officials to pass the victims through Immigration and Customs. Because it is a serious offense in Nigeria to enter without a valid visa, the victim's illegal entry may be used by the fraudsters as leverage to coerce the victims into releasing funds. Violence and threats of physical harm may be employed to further pressure victims. In June of 1995, an American was murdered in Lagos, Nigeria, while pursuing a 4-1-9 scam, and numerous other foreign nationals have been reported as missing.

Victims are often convinced of the authenticity of Advance Fee Fraud schemes by the forged or false documents bearing apparently official Nigerian government letterhead, seals, as well as false letters of credit, payment schedules and bank drafts. The fraudster may establish the credibility of his contacts, and thereby his influence, by arranging a meeting between the victim and "government officials" in real or fake government offices.

In the next stage some alleged problem concerning the "inside man" will suddenly arise. An official will demand an up-front bribe or an unforeseen tax or fee to the Nigerian government will have to be paid before the money can be transferred. These can include licensing fees, registration fees, and various forms of taxes and attorney fees. Normally each fee paid is described as the very last fee required. Invariably, oversights and errors in the deal are discovered by the Nigerians, necessitating additional payments and allowing the scheme to be stretched out over many months.

Several reasons have been submitted why Nigerian Advance Fee Fraud has undergone a dramatic increase in recent years. The explanations are as diverse as the types of schemes. The Nigerian Government blames the growing problem on mass unemployment, extended family systems, a get rich quick syndrome, and, especially, the greed of foreigners.

Indications are that Advance Fee Fraud grosses hundreds of millions of dollars annually and the losses are continuing to escalate. In all likelihood, there are victims who do not report their losses to authorities due to either fear or embarrassment.

If you feel you have been a victim of any of these schemes contact your local field office for assistance.

Dear Doc

A big question to ask yourself now is did you actually know of this relative before all this happened ?

Did any of you family know of him ?

If they or you did know of him where was his last contact address ?

Did you know he worked for Shell Oil ?

If you did know he worked for Shell Oil how would you feel about telephoning Shell Oil ?

Can you find a branch of Shell Oil in Los Angeles ?

It might really be that simple

You just pick up the phone and call Shell Oil

I will see if I can get you their contact page in the US

Nobody wants you to miss out if this in genuine you know

Kind Regards
Yours Sincerely

Subject: Fwd: Your_Grant_Alert_update_message_from_Grantsnet.co.uk!

Dear Colleagues : Hello, this is a Good time to submit. The British Film Commision and The EU Film Commision are doing great Business in Cannes this Year. With the New Breakfast program there putting in 18 Hour Days thru May 23, 2004 at The Cannes Film Festival. Gregg has access to a small important Library that I put Him intouch with Bela Lugosi, Jr. who told him how to do it and gave him his Blessings. Gregg is the Nephew of The Great Actor/Writer Lionel Atwell who worked with Bela Lugosi Senior, Boris Karloff and many others including Hammer Films from the UK. There's the connection Gregg. I worked to get Hammer Films the Distribution Deal with Warner Bros when I was at Warner Bros. I told Arthur Kananack who was in London . He met with the Principals and we signed them up. We even Reped them at Cannes back then. Iam just remembering all of this now. It is a part of Horror/Spooky Cinema History. Thank, Love to All, Doc Sinda

Dear BBC: Hello, this is a Grant company that has found some Matches for Grants in The ARTS & Business. If You can't pull down the Attachment which has a form John will send You another. As we do also research & Development this could insure that Your Lasted Novel gets Distributed in UK, Wales & Ireland among other Territories. Thanks, We're making some changes as we speak on the New Industry NewsLetter For The ARTS & Business.
PS: "TROY" did over $111 Mil Usd in 3 Days at the Box Office combined with North America & 47 international Territories. It was really well recieved at Cannes. I think it has legs and will follow behind PASSION to do very well by the time it gets to "DVD" . Mel Gibson's Film "PASSION" will come out only on DVD just the Film this August and then at christmas time a Special Box Set Version will come out Behind the scenes, Interviews, The Making of and Perhaps an English Version with Mutiple language possibilities. I heard this version will be considered for setting buying DVD's worlwide.
Thank, Take Care with Amities
Sincerely Yours,

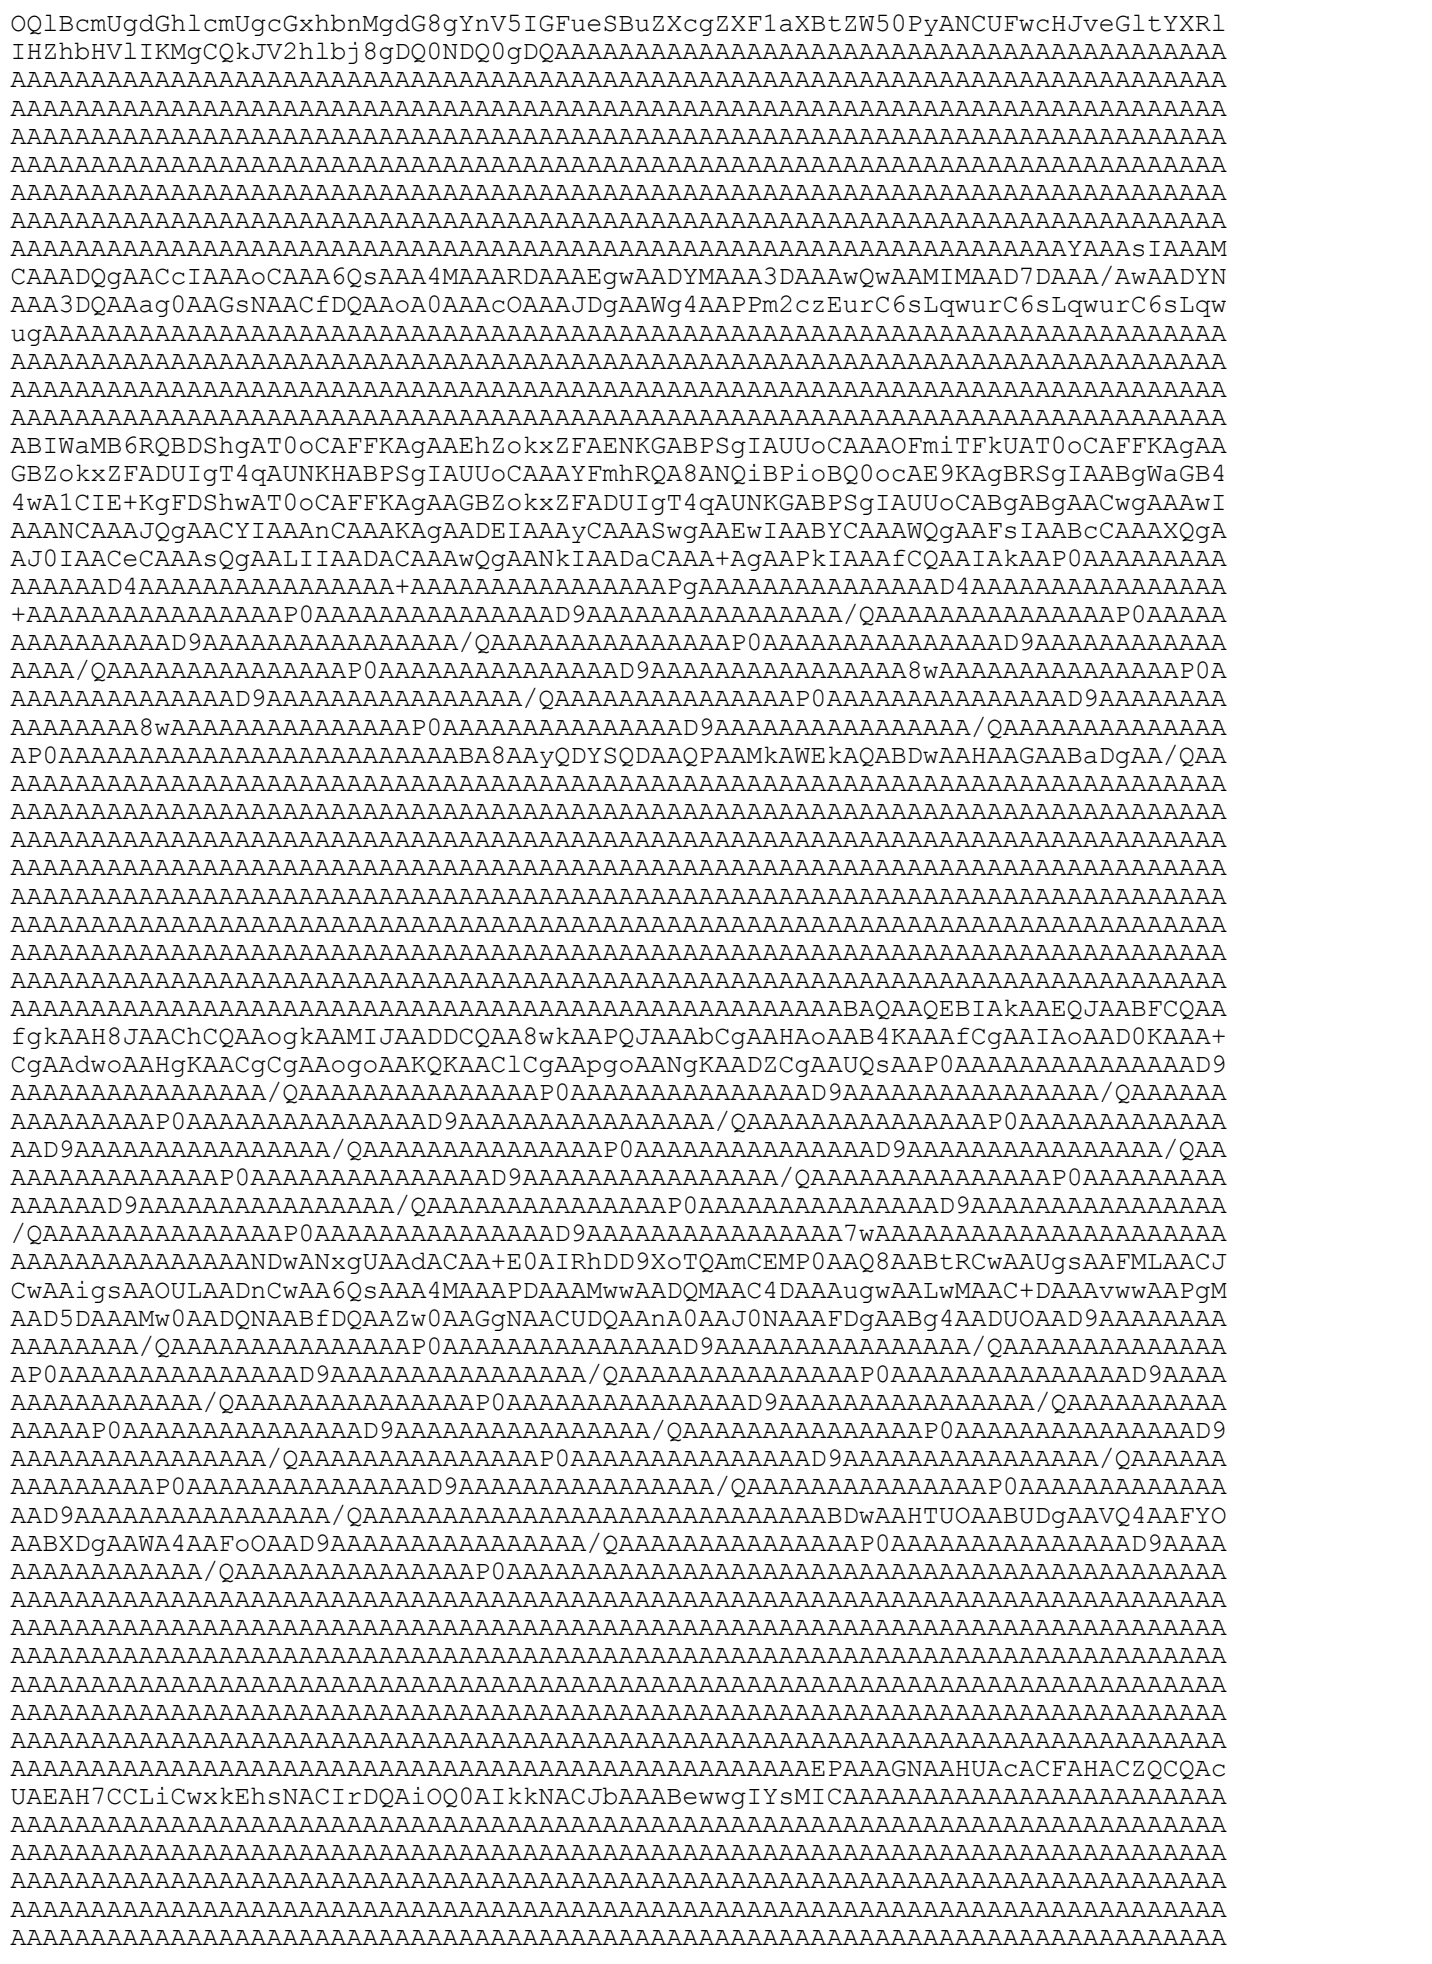
Dear Dr Sinda,

Thank you for your enquiries about funding.

It would be helpful if you provided more information about your project. Please complete the attached form as best you can (there may be some questions that do not apply). We will then be more able to determine a suitable fundraising consultant who you can work with to secure funding.

I look forward to your reply.



Yours sincerely,

John McLoughlin

Subject: Fwd: Your GrantsNet Enquiry

Dear BBC: Hello, this is a Grant company that has found some Matches for Grants in The ARTS & Business. If You can't pull down the Attachment which has a form John will send You another. As we do also research & Development this could insure that Your Lasted Novel gets Distributed in UK, Wales & Ireland among other Territories. Thanks, We're making some changes as we speak on the New Industry NewsLetter For The ARTS & Business.
PS: "TROY" did over $111 Mil Usd in 3 Days at the Box Office combined with North America & 47 international Territories. It was really well recieved at Cannes. I think it has legs and will follow behind PASSION to do very well by the time it gets to "DVD" . Mel Gibson's Film "PASSION" will come out only on DVD just the Film this August and then at christmas time a Special Box Set Version will come out Behind the scenes, Interviews, The Making of and Perhaps an English Version with Mutiple language possibilities. I heard this version will be considered for setting buying DVD's worlwide.
Thank, Take Care with Amities
Sincerely Yours,
Dr Joseph P. Sinda

Dear Doc

I got your card

Thank you

The way I look at it at the moment you are left with two big main assets

The first is your HEALTH

That is the one big asset you have

The second is an official estimate from the FBI that you have a 50% chance of getting this US$2.9million from your cousins

And as anyone will tell you a 50 / 50 chance of US$2.9million worth US$1.45million cash

So you could sell your cousins legacy AS IS to a lawyer or a bookmaker or a bank or a finance house for US$1.45million cash

Then you would want to set up the Charity with half of that

That would leave you with US$725,000 cash and allso a US$725,000 Charity

But that is all before professional fees and taxes

However with the FBI 50 / 50 opinion it has now become something you can sell

Asround

You are left with these two main assets

Apart from me of course

Kind Regards
Yours Sincerely

Dear Dr Joseph,

Thank you for your prompt response to my email message. I understand your concern and I consider it expedient to give you the details of this transaction.

This transaction is legitimate and in essence it will undergo normal procedures as stipulated in the financial and allied matters act and all legal documents will be issued in your name. I contacted you because you have the same last name with Mr. Pafford Sinda (blessed memory)and so you can lay claims to this huge amount he left behind as his next of kin.
You will be entitled to 35% of the total fund at the conclusion of the transaction, 30% goes to charity because late Mr. Pafford Sinda was involved in some charity organisations and he intended to build a charity foundation before his death, so i intend to open a charity foundation in his name in order to immortalise his name, while 35% of the money will be mine because i will provide all the information that will make the Bank release the money to you. Three days after you confirm the money in your account, i will come over to your country for disbursement/sharing of the fund according to the agreed percentage.

Late Mr. Pafford Sinda was born in 1944. he worked with Shell Petroleum Company as an engineer and later retired to private practice as a consultant and formed an oil servicing company .he operated an account with REGENT BANK of Africa until his death. he had a wife named Mrs Linda and a daughter named Susan who died alongside with him in the auto accident on the 21 April, 2002.
You must understand that in the finance industry, chances or opportunities like this are common but not heard. People put their monies in Banks and some of these accounts are either coded or confidentially operated ,therefore, when such people die what do you think that happens to these monies when nobody comes for their claims? Well, this is one of the numerous avenues good "free" monies are made within and amongst the officials. I did not mastermind my client's death and I did not operate or manage his account but i was his personal attorney so was privy to his transaction with the Bank. I have in my possession certificate of deposit and death certificate which are the requirements for the claim .As soon as you indicate your interest to claim this fund, I will send to you the application of claim you will send to the Bank for the claim for an urgent approval. Please note that this transaction requires utmost trust, sincerity and confidentiality for its conclusion.

I await your prompt reply.
Best regards.

Dear Dr Joseph ,

I am Barrister Bio Tutu,a solicitor at law, personal attorney to Mr. Pafford Sinda, a national Of your country, who used to work with Shell development Company in Lome Togo. Here in after shall be referred to as my client. On the 21st of April2002, my client, his wife and their only daughter were involved in a car accident along Nouvissi express Road, All occupants of the vehicle unfortunately lost there lives. Since then I have made several enquiries to his embassy here to locate any of my clients extended relatives, this has also proved unsuccessful.

After these several unsuccessful attempts, I decided to track his last name over the Internet, to locate any member of his family hence I contacted you. I have contacted you to assist in repatriating the fund valued at US$2.9 million left behind by my client before it gets confiscated or declared unserviceable by the Security Finance Firm where this huge amount were deposited. The said Security Finance Company has issued me a notice to provide the next of kin or have his account confiscated within the next twenty one official working days. Since I have been unsuccessful in locating the relatives for over 2years now, I seek the consent to present you as the next of kin to the deceased since you have the same last names, so that the proceeds of this account can be paid to you. Therefore, on receipt of your positive response, we shall then discuss the sharing ratio and modalities for transfer.
I have all necessary information and legal documents needed to back you up for claim. All I require from you is your honest cooperation to enable us see this transaction through. I guarantee that this will be executed under legitimate arrangement that will protect you from any breach of the law. Please get in touch with me through this new email address --biotutu@outgun.com-- for more details.

Best regards.

S<STRONG>inda</STRONG>, a national Of your country, who used to work with Shell development Company in Lome Togo. Here in after shall be referred to as my client. On the 21st of April2002, my client, his wife and their only daughter were involved in a car accident along Nouvissi express Road, All occupants of the vehicle unfortunately lost there lives. Since then I have made several enquiries to his embassy here to locate any of my clients extended relatives, this has also proved unsuccessful.

After these several unsuccessful attempts, I decided to track his last name over the Internet, to locate any member of his family hence I contacted you. I have contacted you to assist in repatriating the fund valued at US$2.9 million left behind by my client before it gets confiscated or declared unserviceable by the Security F inance
Firm where this huge amount were deposited. The said Security Finance Company has issued me a notice to provide the next of kin or have his account confiscated within the next twenty one official working days. Since I have been unsuccessful in locating the relatives for over 2years now, I seek the consent to present you as the next of kin to the deceased since you have the same last names, so that the proceeds of this account can be paid to you. Therefore, on receipt of your positive response, we shall then discuss the sharing ratio and modalities for transfer. </DIV>

However with the FBI 50 / 50 opinion it has now become something you can sell

Ask around

You are left with these two main assets

Apart from me of course

Kind Regards
Yours Sincerely
Mike Poole

Dear Doc I got your card Thank you The first is your HEALTH That is the one big asset yosp; have The second is an official estimate from the FBI that you have a 50% chance of getting this US$2.9million from your cousins And as anyone tell you a 50 / 50 chance of US$2.9million is worth US$1.45million cash So you could sell your cousins legacy AS IS to a lawyer or a bookmaker or a bank or a finance house US$1.45million cash Then you would want to set up the Charity with half of that That would leave you with US$725,000 cash and allso a Charity But that is all before professional fees and taxes However with the FBI 50 / 50 opinion it has now become something you can sell Ask around You are left with these two main assets Apart from me of course Kind Regards Yours Sincerely Mike Poole

BOX OFFICE MOJO
MID-WEEKEND REPORT

May 21-23, 2004: Projections and Analysis

Rank. Movie Title (Distributor) / Theater Count
Weekend Projection | % Change | Total Gross | Week #

1. Shrek 2 (DreamWorks) / 4,163
$95 million | - | $115 million | 1
This fractured fairy tale is breaking records as its mending a heretofore soft summer.

The widest release ever is about to yield the biggest bow for an animated movie ever (topping 'Finding Nemo's $70.3 million), likely the second best weekend ever (behind only 'Spider-Man's $114.8 million) and the first uber-opening of the summer. And the $95 million weekend projection might be conservative given the variables with grosses this massive -- not to mention that 'Shrek 2' was enjoying a 70% Saturday increase over its already phenomenal $28 million Friday in many theaters as of the evening. Saturday has an outside chance of topping 'Spider-Man's $43.6 million as the biggest single day gross ever. We'll post the results on the site on Sunday morning.

'Shrek 2' is now well-positioned to become the #1 movie of the summer (May usually spawns this), just as its predecessor reigned over summer 2001 with its $267.7 million haul. Going into the season, common wisdom had 'Harry Potter and the Prisoner of Azkaban' and 'Spider-Man 2' as the movies to beat for the crown, but 'Shrek 2' is on a $300 million trajectory -- a gross that seems rosy even for Harry and Spidey.

When 'Shrek 2' garnered $11.8 million on Wednesday, DreamWorks was heralding the dubious milestone of "biggest mid-week opening for an animated movie," topping 'Pokemon: The First Movie's $10.1 million. Turns out, only two days later, they would find such groping for records would be unnecessary.

Though 'Shrek 2' was huge on Wednesday and Thursday, grossing $20.9 million, it's behaving as if people didn't realize it opened on Wednesday. Generally speaking, a mid-week bow will soften the weekend and the Wednesday-Thursday gross will make up at least 25% of the 5-day bow – and usually far more for saturation releases. For 'Shrek 2,' Wednesday and Thursday will amount to less than 20% of the 5-day haul.

"I think ('Shrek 2's Wednesday bow) probably helps the weekend, unlike other Wednesday openers which can dilute it," DreamWorks head of distribution Jim Tharp told Box Office Mojo on Thursday. At the time, Tharp thought 'Shrek 2' was headed for a $60-65 million weekend as did many in the industry.

DreamWorks' exit polling on Wednesday indicated that 60% of moviegoers were families -- the first 'Shrek,' like most animated movies, was 80% family out-of-the-gate and then fell to 60% in its second weekend -- suggesting a broadening of the audience since the original. Among families, two thirds were mothers and one third was dads, while 60% were girls and 40% were boys. Among non-families, it was a 50/50 split between males and females and those over and under the age of 25. Moviegoers loved the picture overall as 81% rated it "excellent" and 11% "very good."

(Updated demographics for the weekend will be posted Sunday on the site in the 'Shrek 2' analysis story.)

'Shrek 2' has revived the dormant DreamWorks, and it bodes well for their aggressive-for-them summer slate: Steven Spielberg's 'The Terminal' starring Tom Hanks on June 18, the Will Ferrell comedy 'Anchorman: The Legend of Ron Burgundy' on July 9 and the Tom Cruise thriller 'Collateral' directed by Michael Mann on August 6 -- all three of which are candidates for $100 million plus.

2. Troy (Warner Bros.) / 3,411
$23 million | -50% | $85 million | 2
A drop that's neither promising nor alarming, and below 'Gladiator's $24.6 million second weekend (down 29%). At this point, the $150 million production looks like it will end up with $140 million tops.

3. Van Helsing (Universal) / 3,418
$10 million | -52% | $100 million | 3
Maybe $15-20 million of life left in it.

4. Mean Girls (Paramount) / 3,054
$6.6 million | -35% | $64.5 million | 4

5. Man on Fire (Fox) / 2,104
$3.3 million | -35% | $69 million | 5

6. Breakin' All the Rules (Sony/Screen Gems) / 1,318
$2.7 million | -47% | $9 million | 2

7. 13 Going on 30 (Sony/Revolution) / 2,028
$2.5 million | -40% | $52 million | 5

8. New York Minute (Warner Bros.) / 2,360
$1.2 million | -67% | $12.6 million | 3

9. Laws of Attraction (New Line) / 1,010
$1.0 million | -50% | $16.9 million | 4

10. Kill Bill Vol. 2 (Miramax) / 854
$1.0 million | -40% | $62.6 million | 6

Two friends, a blonde and a redhead, are walking down the street and pass a flower shop where the redhead happens to see her boyfriend buying flowers. She sighs and says, "Oh, crap, my boyfriend is buying me flowers again....for no reason."

The blonde looks quizzically at her and says, "What's the big deal, don't you like getting flowers?"

The red head says, "Oh sure.....but he always has expectations after giving me flowers, and I just don't feel like spending the next three days on my back with my legs in the air."

The blonde says "Don't you have a vase?"

Dear Tom: Hello, I sent Jason Perlman an Introduction email for You at Phase 11 Financial Corporation. I got to speak with My Writting & Producing Partner at Warner Bros. Mr Ed Yee. He suggested if You could find out what are The Requirements for The Money for a Feature Film to be made in Panama . Using mostly crews from there and local Actors. Stars We bring in From else where and Director too. We would show off The Lavish scenery and landscape and even Put You and some your Friends in the Film.
It would be a contemporary Film that turns into an Action,Thriller. So, We could also use Prints & Advertisement Money. We would try to get this in the new Indie Label at Warner Bros. Which goes up to $20Mil Usd. We think there will be two Male Stars and One Female Star and One Up Coming Female Star. OK Here's a scenario. $15Mil Usd for the Movie and $15Mil Usd for P & A. They Trailers would be Lush and very inviting. We could have Premieres in Panama to raise money and help pay back the people who helped fund the Film. It could be very successful for Tourism and Business. As I would have a List Of Sponsers and URL's on The Poster and Billboards.
Also if You could go over the Program for The Time Shares and Brokers . I think My Colleagues would like to know what is available for $5,995. Usd. This is only a one time fee for An Amazing E Ticket. Oh, there names are Edward Yee, Michael Poole and Terry Hall. Michael & Terry might meet You in The UK this Year depending on there schedule.

Jason,

Dr.. Sinda asked me to send you some preliminary information before our discussion. I founded an Emerging Growth Real Estate Company in Panama City, Republic of Panama 24 months ago. We have several development projects ranging from marinas to eco-tourism projects like our soon to be famous Luxury Tree Home Community in the Rainforest of Bocas Del Toro. See Link to Escape Artist article.
http://www.escapeartist.com/Tropical_Island_Treehouse/Tropical_Island_Treehouse.html

Our vision is to build a portable Global Investment Promotion Agency that promotes and sells Emerging Growth Real Estate (EGRE) and drive foreign direct investment to Emerging Growth Regions and Least Developed countries. We are poising EGRE as the better alternative to equity investments. We are creating an internet-media-telecom centric model that will combine an infomercial on Living, Retiring, Working and Investing Internationally. The inquiries from the infomercial will be directed to a website that we are acquiring called www.escapeartist.com (EA) EA ranks in the top 1% in the world of websites in terms of traffic with over 1.5M – 2M unique visitors per month. Last month EA had 35M clicks!!! (See EA Attachment)

We are launching a Global Broker Network next week that offers an agency building program for people who want to conduct seminars on EGRE. See EscapeArtist link: http://www.escapeartist.com/PanaCarib/PanaCarib.html (Be sure to view the PowerPoint Presentation on this link in the upper right hand corner.

I am attaching an executive summary for your review. This is the BIG vision. We have the entire infrastructure in place and we are looking for funding to expand our model and to acquire additional tracks of beachfront property. See Link: http://www.sancristobalsa.net/summaries/bl/

In a sense we are creating a GoldenEye model that allow us to point this Foreign Direct Investment marketing operation at any development that we have acquired and we can sell it out in 30-90 days.

The infomercial will drive 3-4 million people per month to the EA website and from their we will have a strike force style phone room to close 3-5 properties per day all sight unseen. We are selling real estate not securities.

BoundarylessLiving.com will be a $100M per year sales company within its first 12-18 months. We have created the model over the last 24 months operating debt free and in the black from day one. We have the entire infrastructure in place with office in Panama City and Bocas Del Toro. We have a 20 seat call center and all staff in place for the expansion.

Here is an example. We launched the Blue Forest Tree Home Project on Monday and to date we have received 700+ inquiries and we have sold 8 ($800K) of the 20 lots and we have closed verbally three today. Our price point is $99K with 50% financing. Our basis for each lot with land cost survey and legal is $7500 per lot.

As for a as the use of proceeds we will use 25% for G&A and 75% for land acquisition. We need the funding in two or three stages.

I mentioned to Dr. Sinda that I am willing to do an equity deal on the first $3M and debt with a profit sharing component on the $6M. The funding would be totally secured by the acquired land which will have an appraisal value of three times what we purchased it for and a ten times multiple on resale value.

I look forward to speaking with you in person. I will be in the office on Sunday if you are available. I believe I am scheduled to speak with Dr. Sinda at 1:30 pm PST

Thank you for your time and consideration.

We launched the Blue Forest Tree Home Project on Monday and to date we have received 700+ inquiries and we have sold 8 ($800K) of the 20 lots and we have closed verbally three today. Our price point is $99K with 50% financing. Our basis for each lot with land cost survey and legal is $7500 per lot.

As for a as the use of proceeds we will use 25% for G&A and 75% for land acquisition. We need the funding in two or three stages.

I mentioned to Dr. Sinda that I am willing to do an equity deal on the first $3M and debt with a profit sharing component on the $6M. The funding would be totally secured by the acquired land which will have an appraisal value of three times what we purchased it for and a ten times multiple on resale value.

I look forward to speaking with you in person. I will be in the office on Sunday if you are available. I believe I am scheduled to speak with Dr. Sinda at 1:30 pm PST

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Subject: FW: Remembering Ray Charles, Prime Time Preview and more From Doc Sinda

His style and Wit were apart of his charm. I introduced Him to The Beatles Who Requested to Meet Him when they first came Here and Played The HollywoodBowl. Buddy Rich had intoduced Me to Ray back when I was getting Drum Lessons from Him at the age of 5yrs. I had already had Music Lessons from Duke Ellington, Bill Evans, Exavier Cuggot and Desi Arnez. Over the Years I built up a solid friendship. I Booked Him with Frank Sinatra a few times. I think some of his renditions of certain songs are a smooth as anything ever recorded. He was a National Treasure and a Fantastic Ambassodor for Music and a Proud American. His version of "America The Beautiful' is The State of The Art with All that Soul. He inspired everyone and was Loved by All.He was a Gentle Giant in The Music Industry. His standards are Hallmarks and are known Worldwide. Oh, Baby there Going to Miss You Ray. They'll be so many Tributs that you earned. Take Care my friend.

Dear Joey

Long time no read
How are you ?
Going bankrupt and getting evicted ?

It is complete hell watching your best friend go down the drain

You feel kind of responsible and protective but you know there is nothing you can do

It is a bit like just leaving your friends behind you in hospital after you get better

Then guilt sets in
Then everything else.....

Anyway news my end is that I decided that I had tried farm work before and wanted something different so I got myself nominated to a mental health service user committee so I now represent about 100 other mental patients on this committee

Then they nominated me for another commitee aswell representing all 500 of us on what they call a steering group committee but that is up for a commitee vote next Monday I think

They do not give me any more benefit for it but I am hoping it might lead on to greater things

Allso on the medical side they are waiting for approval of a new medication for me

But it all has to be approved by the EU first in Brussles

Have you still got the Four Sisters ?

Silly question I suppose
You are probably guarding them with your.....

Have you thought about trading everything in for a Camper Van Dormobile so that at least you will have a roof over your head ?

I spent a night in one years ago in London under the arches at Kings Cross

But I guess you are going to the Rehab center like you said

Is that a kind of job with accomodation ?

Thanks for the news about the CD airtime in the USA

Kind Regards
Yours Sincerely
Mike

Dear Dr Emmanuel Tula

A kind friend of mine Dr Joseph P Sinda said that you might be able to help me please

I have located a supply of Grocery Coupons within the USA which can only be cashed in US dollar food coupons within the USA

Unfortunately I live in Europe so I cannot cash them myself

A few months ago I sent Dr Sinda one of the US$500 grocery coupons

I thought that they might be usefull to a Charity in the USA

Kind Regards

Dear Michael: Here it is a Brilliant Review I wrote personally at Your request. Perhaps You should sell All Three CD's in One Box Set. Very Popular now For Value and Content, You can sell on Amazon.com or E Bay.com These are The Giants.So Dr Emmanuel Tula Got back to You and gave you a secure Address. That's good. If You get intouch via The Internet With Dr Libby. He believes That His Sub Lingual B12 Complex ,Folic Acid & B6 Complex All in one can get You stable. He and I worked with Dr Linus Pauling The Father of Vitamin C.Dr Libby has a website and sells direct drop shipment. It's something like : http://www.drlibby.com

Dear Michael : Hello, Yes that is the correct Address of there office . Please wait until You hear from Emmanuel Tula and or Frances who just came up to the house. Yes, I will help You with Publicity on the Three CD's. I must not be counting right.I only had 2 CD's which i lent to the lyricist singer she sent them back. there must be an earlier one or one that came later. There all written in a classical free form ala jazz . It's a cross between Erik Sate and Branford Marcellus.Usually when you run across Basement Tapes. Your lucky if it's someone famous and they never got produced. Buried on an Island off the coast of France. I found a box set of three CD 's by an Artist who studied all his life, He became a prolific Designing Engineer and built several important Bridges including designing "The Peace Bridge" for which he was awarded first prize in a prestigious engineering international contest. The name of this Brilliant Composer i s Michael A. Poole. As fate would have it . This chap called Paramount Studios and they referred me over to this man. I emailed corresponded with him. He's had an amazing past. Actually he was right on track. Then a personnel matter happened where he was betrayed and left to suffer the torment and sufferings of the damned. Claiming that he was burned out and not fit for normal living in civilization. He was thrown in a Mental Institution. Like The Count of Monte Christo. Left to rote and hopefully to die of some disease or other. These basement CD's are Soul Searching. Like taking a trip through Heaven, Purgatory and Hell. Michael is your guide he's been there. You close your eyes let the music carry you away. Perhaps it's a musical Exorcism that frees Your Spirit from The Tortures of the Damned. Whatever it is it's inspiring After listening, i had gone through so many emotions. I felt Free, clean as if the music had cleansed me washed over me and i floated down a river of s onic gestation. Their i came to an island somewhere in my dreams. Lovely farms and cows grazed in these beautiful meadows. Out in a field there was a baby grand piano and a man seated playing this music. The cows were tripping on it and it was like and almost perfect day. Blue assure sky,s with just a few white billowy clouds that must have been sent by Joni Mitchell. I could see her face smiling in the clouds. I sat on the hill, like a fool just listening to this sonata. I was in a trance. I would come to find out it was pieces of dreams-capes that Michael A. Poole had composed in His Basement CD's. He's like a Piped Piper he now Shepard's over 500 Mental patients on his Island . Every dollar You send helps those deserving souls. You can enjoy this music and share it with others. There over 501 souls that will smile and thank you everyday. Yes, I thankful that I found that treasure chest of Music from Michael A Poole. Iam so sure that you want a copy that. I put the info he re to ship directly to you where ever i n the World You maybe.
Sincerely Yours,
Dr Joseph P. Sinda

Dear Doc

They are not cheap and are certainly not free
But to help you out I would be glad to drop ship a $10,000--00 face value bundle of them to the CCN address below in exchange for your being willing to help out with some good publicity for my three Musical CDs that I composed and sent you

If it is acceptable to you I would rather send them to a proper street address rather than a PO box and Zip Code

Please can you therefore confirm that " So " in the destination address you have given below actually stands for " South " and if it does I will order the shipment of grocery coupons to

The Christ Church Network

Dear Dr Emmanuel Tula

About the grocery coupons
I was thinking that the Network might be able to help
I am an integrated member of a team of 500 long term mental health patients over here in Jersey Channel Islands and we could all use all the help we can get

If I can supply the Network with all the grocery coupons you might need would the Network be able to return the favour please ?

I think that I can get the Grocery Coupons drop shipped into Los Angeles at a rate of about 1% of face value< /FONT>

After that they cost abo ut $2 to cash for coupons

I could send you about $10,000--00 in coupons at first to see if you like them

But I need a dependable safe address within the USA for delivery

Kind Regards
Yours Sincerely

Jason,

Dr. Sinda asked me to send you some preliminary information before our discussion. I founded an Emerging Growth Real Estate Company in Panama City, Republic of Panama 24 months ago. We have several development projects ranging from marinas to eco-tourism projects like our soon to be famous Luxury Tree Home Community in the Rainforest of Bocas Del Toro. See Link to Escape Artist article.
http://www.escapeartist.com/Tropical_Island_Treehouse/Tropical_Island_Treehouse.html

Our vision is to build a portable Global Investment Promotion Agency that promotes and sells Emerging Growth Real Estate (EGRE) and drive foreign direct investment to Emerging Growth Regions and Least Developed countries. We are poising EGRE as the better alternative to equity investments. We are creating an internet-media-telecom centric model that will combine an infomercial on Living, Retiring, Working and Investing Internationally. The inquiries from the infomercial will be directed to a website that we are acquiring called www.escapeartist.com <http://www.escapeartist.com/> (EA) EA ranks in the top 1% in the world of websites in terms of traffic with over 1.5M – 2M unique visitors per month. Last month EA had 35M clicks!!! (See EA Attachment)

We are launching a Global Broker Network next week that offers an agency building program for people who want to conduct seminars on EGRE. See EscapeArtist link: http://www.escapeartist.com/PanaCarib/PanaCarib.html (Be sure to view the PowerPoint Presentation on this link in the upper right hand corner.

I am attaching an executive summary for your review. This is the BIG vision. We have the entire infrastructure in place and we are looking for funding to expand our model and to acquire additional tracks of beachfront property. See Link: http://www.sancristobalsa.net/summaries/bl/

In a sense we are creating a GoldenEye model that allow us to point this Foreign Direct Investment marketing operation at any development that we have acquired and we can sell it out in 30-90 days.

The infomercial will drive 3-4 million people per month to the EA website and from their we will have a strike force style phone room to close 3-5 properties per day all sight unseen. We are selling real estate not securities.

BoundarylessLiving.com will be a $100M per year sales company within its first 12-18 months. We have created the model over the last 24 months operating debt free and in the black from day one. We have the entire infrastructure in place with office in Panama City and Bocas Del Toro. We have a 20 seat call center and all staff in place for the expansion.

Here is an example. We launched the Blue Forest Tree Home Project on Monday and to date we have received 700+ inquiries and we have sold 8 ($800K) of the 20 lots and we have closed verbally three today. Our price point is $99K with 50% financing. Our basis for each lot with land cost survey and legal is $7500 per lot.

As for a as the use of proceeds we will use 25% for G&A and 75% for land acquisition. We need the funding in two or three stages.

I mentioned to Dr. Sinda that I am willing to do an equity deal on the first $3M and debt with a profit sharing component on the $6M. The funding would be totally secured by the acquired land which will have an appraisal value of three times what we purchased it for and a ten times multiple on resale value.

I look forward to speaking with you in person. I will be in the office on Sunday if you are available. I believe I am scheduled to speak with Dr. Sinda at 1:30 pm PST

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Subject: Yor Company Selling CD 'S

Hello Michael;
Doc Sinda has spoken very fondly of you and mentioned to us that you are intertested in selling your CD Box Set on our web site. I would like to take this opportunity to provide you with several of our Web Links that will demonstrate how diverse our company is and how it wouuld your interest.

"Last Gasp Film Group" is our screenwring company who writes and creates innovate screenplays from our own mind's eye. http://www.lastgaspfilm@earthlink.net

"Neon Lights Entertainment" was created on Christmas Day 2003, after a steady growth and an urgent need for a production facility. http://neonlightsentetainment.com

Doc Sinda from Drangon Thuder and Neon Lights Entertainment decided to establish a network for the entertainment industry's movers, shakers, artist and professional. Our web site is designed as an entetainemnt news magazines " I Write Stuff " that provides well written articles and provides industry insider information.

All of our clients will have an exclusive opportunity to advertise their Full Page - Half Page and Banner Advertisements for a fee that is considered to be the absolute lowest available on the on the internet today. These Sites have two web links: "The Lease Access Page": http://neonlightsentertainment.com/index8.html and any purchase may be made through our Authorize Dealer at "Mary Mae Corner Classifeds;" http://neonlightsentertainment/index6.html

As you can tell, you advertisement dollar will be well spent and your product could receive multiply placement web site exposure.

Again thak you for your interest and we look forward to representing your product on our web sites.

Best Regards;

Gregg & Mary Atwill

Dear Doc

I did not know I would have to pay to advertise my products on the same website that I would have to advertise for you

Honestly Doc this was all a bit sharp

You should have at least let me know the details

I would now like to formally give you notice that the deal is cancelled and null and void

I know that you are short of money but still

It amounts to deception

Kind Regards

Subject: Fw: Read and Return (the picture is gorgeous)

Scroll down.....

If God brings me to it, he will bring me through it

----- Here is the new postage stamp that will be issued in September. Isn't it awesome?

READ AND RETURN (sorry - will not break this)

May today there be peace within you. May you trust God that you are exactly where you are meant to be.
"I believe that friends are quiet angels who lift us to our feet when our wings have trouble remembering how to fly."

Just send this to (4) people and see what happens on the fourth day. Do not break this, please.

Subject: Fw: Read and Return (the picture is gorgeous)

Scroll down.....

If God brings me to it, he will bring me through it

----- Here is the new postage stamp that will be issued in September. Isn't it awesome?

READ AND RETURN (sorry - will not break this)

May today there be peace within you. May you trust God that you are exactly where you are meant to be.

Just send this to (4) people and see what happens on the fourth day. Do not break this, please.

Dear Doc

Thank you for the ecards

No offence taken about the 4am mistake

I took the opportunity of taking a week off

It was really good fun

It ended up with a really great bus ride off to a part of the island I had not been to for 25 years and a couple of meals out with beers coffee and whisky

In fact I think it was a long overdue break

It was something I should do more often

It gets things back in perspective

Much Love
Kind Regards
Yours Sincerely

Subject: Fwd: Escape Artist featured on AOL..#2 site in the world. For Tom The World is His Oyster , Love to All, Doc Sinda

Dear Tom: I just read this Great Article about San Cristobalsa and Your Vision for real estate and ECO Growth in Panama. I think people should know how dedicated You are to careful planning and sensitive to ECO Planning aswell.I think it is almost a month now. You kept saying by July 15th 2004 this first phase will be completed.I guess with the help of AOL.com , CNN and The Infomercial. The Next Phases will flow Quicker and Your Dream really starts to take shape. Tom, Your nick name right now is Tarzan. Why, because tom has sold more Tree Houses than anyone ever before. That's in Panama which He calls The Blue Forest. Tom is a Modest guy if He checks and Registers With Guiness Book of World Records. He'll have it for Tree Homes. Just thought You should know that. We celebrated The 4th Of July here in The States but I can't wait to celebrate July 15th When Tarzan Of The Blue Forest has His San Cristobalsa Day!

The Quest of One Man and to share His Dream with The World This is San Cristobalsa.

Ladies and Gentlemen,

When you are right you are right. =20

Escape artist hit AOL tonight and we got 200 prospective buyers in the = first hour. If you read the article 5000 = prospective...targeted...inquisitive buyers are joining EA each month = wanting to buy international real estate. This equates to 50 buyers = per month at an average of $50K per buyer (1% purchase from our DB). = That is $2.5M per month in real estate sales. $30M per year with a 20% = net. We can buy EA for $1.5M TODAY. It is worth $20MM dollars right = now with the right managment team. It ranks in the top 1% of the world = on the internet in web traffic. People are looking for a change of life = (worldwide). Terrorism, taxes and a rethinking of quality of life has = people motivated to make a change. Distrust of the equity markets, the = fear of losing it again and one billion people between the ages of 50 = and 70 will drive Caribbean property prices through the roof!

Add an infomercial for Living, Working, Retiring and Investing = Internationally and the numbers double or triple!

35 people emailed me this article tonight already.

Timing is perfect. Does anyone want to turn $1.5M into $5M?..or x's 10. = I know how and I have the contract to buy the site.

First person who comes up with $3MM owns 50% of EA, SCI, PC and BL. It = is a $30-$50MM company in 24 months. Here is the vision of the largest = internet based international real estate sales company in the world... = http://www.sancristobalsa.net/summaries/bl/index.html

Sorry to be unorthodox but opportunity is knocking...

When you get featured on AOL the game becomes real (6MM people a day see = you). CNN will be right behind this article (8MM people per day). The = #1 and #2 websites in the WORLD will have EA's link. This is the first = time it has ever happened. EA is the #1 site in the world for = relocation and international real estate. Timing is everything!

Here is a funny example: Type into your search browser - International = Real Estate in Iraq

Who is number 1...Escape Artist. Afghanistan as well...Panama, = Argentina, Belize, Costa Rica, Hondouras, Croatia, Russia, Europe, UK as = well.....

Search engine placement is (almost) everything!

Regards,

Tom

The real estate boom knows no borders. It's not just the rich and = eccentric who are buying abroad.

BEND, Ore. (CNN/Money) =E2=80=93 Eyebrows went up when Dale = Anderson and his wife, Kim, told their friends they were buying a second = house in Paraiso del Mar, a new housing development in La Paz, Mexico.=20

"They thought it was outrageous," said Anderson, 63, a small = business owner in Canton, Ohio. "Then they started looking into it = themselves."=20

Like a growing number of Americans, the Anderson's friends soon = realized that buying property outside the country isn't such a = far-fetched idea. Seaside condominiums and golf course homes in Paraiso = del Mar, for example, range from $180,000 to $375,000. That's a bargain = considering what similar property would cost in California, Florida or = South Carolina.=20

"This will be a major life change," said Phillip Allen, 55, a = business development consultant in Denver who plans to relocate to = Paraiso del Mar with his fianc=C3=A9e, Trish Rudeen, as soon as = construction on their two-bedroom home is completed next year. In the = mean time, they've bought a share in a sailboat and a copy of "Spanish = for Dummies."=20

"I had never been to Mexico until this past May," said Rudeen, 53. = "I was pleasantly surprised."=20

It's a small world after all
Real estate agents in Mexico, the Caribbean and Central America = say they've seen an influx of American buyers over the past couple of = years. "We have definitely noticed a trend of more buying abroad," said =

Jeff Hornberger, manager of international business development for the = National Association of Realtors.=20

Although it's tough to track overseas real estate transactions, = traffic on EscapeArtist.com and its affiliated sites reflects a growing = interest in living and buying real estate abroad. The site has 1.5 = million unique visitors of a month, according to founder Roger Gallo, = and 700,000 people subscribe to the site's online newsletters, which = include the "Offshore Real Estate Quarterly."=20

"We are adding between 4,000 and 5,000 subscribers a month," said =
Gallo, speaking from his office in Panama.=20

La Paz, Mexico is an emerging second-home market for = Americans. Money Magazine named it a "Best Place to Retire" in 2003.=20
Good weather, inexpensive real estate and, in some countries, low = taxes are part of the appeal. At the same time, rising home values = stateside have made it easier to pay for second properties. The = Internet, meanwhile, makes it easier to shop the world market for real = estate, and in the case of some overseas buyers, live outside the = country full time.=20

"Prior to 9/11 it was a lot of retirees looking for somewhere warm = and cheap," said Les Nunez, a Canadian who moved to Costa Rica nine = years ago to open a RE/MAX franchise. "Now I'm seeing a lot of younger = American buyers particularly people with portable skills, like graphic = artists and software designers."=20

According to Nunez, a 2,500-square foot condo in Costa Rica's = capital, Santa Jose, ranges from $150,000 to $200,000. Property taxes = for that same condo run about $200 a year, he said, and capital gains = taxes are "nonexistent."=20

Gallo's countries of choice for real estate investments include = Argentina, Brazil, Ecuador, Uruguay and, of course, Panama. "You can = build here for about $35 a square foot," he said, adding that this is = one country south of the border where financing and title insurance are = widely available.=20

Americans are also heading north. According to Scott Brown, senior = vice president for Playground Destination Properties in Vancouver, = British Columbia, Canada =E2=80=93 and Whistler in particular =E2=80=93 =

has long been a popular market for buyers from nearby Washington. "But = about year and half ago we started seeing the Texas buyer," he said. = "People want to come here to ski in the winter and escape the heat in = the summer."=20

Still an emerging market
Taking your home search to different parts of the globe requires = even more scrutiny of the fine print.=20

In Mexico, for example, foreigners are technically not allowed to = own land within 50 kilometers of the coast. They can buy such land via a = fideocomiso or trust deed that makes them beneficiaries of the land for = 50 years, after which point it can be renewed. Still, many Americans may = not be comfortable with such an arrangement. "I love Mexico, but I = wouldn't buy there," said Gallo.=20

According to John Glaab, vice president with The Settlement = Company in Los Cabos, a number of reputable companies, including Stewart = Title and First American Title, offer title insurance in Mexico, thereby = protecting buyers if they lose their property because of a dispute in = ownership.=20

Another consideration for Americans buying abroad is financing. In = most countries mortgages are not widely available, but that seems to be = changing in Mexico and elsewhere.=20

"You're starting to see 20 or 30 year mortgages that are similar = to what you'd get in the U.S.," said John Fair, the developer of Paraiso = del Mar, adding that the rates are about two percentage points higher, = while down payments of 20 percent to 30 percent are typically required.=20

Property taxes, though they depend on where you buy, are generally = quite low. "In La Paz, they're about 0.2 percent a year," said Fair. = That's about $600 a year for a $300,000 house.=20

Sellers don't get the same capital gains break they get in the = United States. The capital gains tax equivalent in Mexico is 33 percent = this year and will go down to 32 percent next year, said Fair, though = sellers can deduct what they owe in Mexico from their capital gains = liability in the United States.=20

"I know capital gains [tax treatment] is not as good as it is in = the United States, but that's not a factor for us," said Phillip Allen. = "We don't plan to sell." =20

HAPPY 4TH OF JULY
Have you ever wondered what happened to the 56 men who signed the Declaration of Independence?

Five signers were captured by the British as traitors, and tortured before they died.

Twelve had their homes ransacked and burned. Two lost their sons serving in the Revolutionary Army; another had two sons captured.

Nine of the 56 fought and died from wounds or hardships of the Revolutionary War.

They signed and they pledged their lives, their fortunes, and their sacred honor.

What kind of men were they?

Twenty-four were lawyers and jurists. Eleven were merchants, nine were farmers and large plantation owners; men of means, well educated, but they signed the Declaration of Independence knowing full well that the penalty would be death if they were captured.

Carter Braxton of Virginia, a wealthy planter and trader, saw his Ships swept from the seas by the British Navy. He sold his home and properties to pay his debts, and died in rags.

Thomas McKeam was so hounded by the British that he was forced to move his family almost constantly. He served in the Congress without pay, and his family was kept in hiding. His possessions were taken from him, and poverty was his reward.

Vandals or soldiers looted the properties of Dillery, Hall, Clymer, Walton, Gwinnett, Heyward, Ruttledge, and Middleton.

At the battle of Yorktown, Thomas Nelson, Jr., noted that the British General Cornwallis had taken over the Nelson home for his headquarters.

He quietly urged General George Washington to open fire. The home was destroyed, and Nelson died bankrupt.

Francis Lewis had his home and properties destroyed. The enemy jailed his wife, and she died within a few months.

John Hart was driven from his wife's bedside as she was dying. Their 13 children fled for their lives. His fields and his gristmill were laid to waste. For more than a year he lived in forests and caves, returning home to find his wife dead and his children vanished. Some of us take these liberties so much for granted, but we shouldn't.

So, take a few minutes while enjoying your 4th of July holiday and silently thank these patriots. It's not much to ask for the price they paid.

Remember: Freedom is never free!

I hope you will show your support by sending this to as many people as you can, please. It's time we get the word out that patriotism is NOT a sin, and the Fourth of July has more to it than beer, picnics, and baseball games.

Yesterday is history. Tomorrow is a mystery. Today is a gift! That's why

Attn: Sir,
My name is Mr FRED JOE , chairman of contract award and monitoring committee of the ministry of industry and international trade development ,my duty as empowered by the Mauritius government is to provide the basic amenities, social recreational activities in urban and rural areas This program includes assistance to deprived local communities and to co-ordinate projects and development at the national level.
Furthermore,from this projects were able to realize some reasonable amount of u.s.$18.8(eighteen million eight hundred thousand US. dollars only)as commission from various contractors resulting from over invoicing of payment receipts/vouchers hence all the necessary approvals has been completed.
These approved funds were packaged and dispatched through a security company for onward delivery to its Destination in Europe.
The money was first deposited into a security vault before we arrange for its movement to Europe through diplomatic channel using decoy purporting that the fund belongs to an expatriate/company.
 As we are government officials, the oath of office does are not allowed us to operate foreign bank account.Hence we need you to stand as the beneficiary and claim the fund on our behalf from the security company.

Presently I am now in Europe to search for a reliable person/company of high integrity /dignity and one with conscience who will claim this on our behalf as the beneficiary , and we have agreed to give you 25% the total sum as commission for your Assistance/effort and 5% will be used to settle every expenses incurred, we will use 70%to invest under your recommendation and guide and go into joint venture business with you . I would greatly appreciate your assistance .
I look forward to your response as soon as possible.
Best regards,
Mr FRED JOE.

To All:

I really, really despise chain letters; whether via the postal service or cyberspace they're all the same to me. I received the following verbage listed below from a relative of mine, and contains the standard rhetoric of sending this out to so many people and you'll receive good luck, etc...etc...etc...; this kind of message very much upsets me. It's the kind of message I expect to hear from a used car salesperson, one who hath no conscience when selling you a used car which turns out to be the one he actually stole from you.

However, the message of life and good will in this one somehow touched my emotions. It reminds me of the lyrics that Paul McCartney wrote in 1968:

And in the end, the love you take is equal to the love you make.

Yes, it takes two to tango with that line, but it takes only 1 to screw up the dance steps. If and when that person finally realizes his/her steps are all wrong, it is often too late. Then that very same person wades through the waters of life and wonders what the tango could have been ...

I send this out to those who have suffered through the relationship blues where one stepped on the other's dance shoes. It gives new meaning to that dance called breaking ... oh, is that why my back hurts?

Read and reflect, but I don't believe you need to send this out to anyone if you don't want to.

Ed

Subject: I want this back... you'll see why

Hopefully this will bring a smile to your face. Take Hold of Every Moment.

A friend of mine opened his wife's underwear drawer and picked up a silk >>paper wrapped package: "This, - he said - isn't any ordinary >>package." He unwrapped the box and stared at both the silk paper >>and the box. "She got this the first time we went to New York, 8 or >>9 years ago. She has never put it on; was saving it for a special >>occasion. Well, I guess this is it. He got near the bed and placed >>the gift box next to the other clothing he was taking to the >>funeral house, his wife had just died. He turned to me and said:

>>"Never save something for a special occasion. Every day in your >>life is a special occasion". I still think those words changed my >>life. Now I read more and clean less. I sit on the porch without >>worrying about anything. I spend more time with my family, and less >>at work. I understood that life should be a source of experience to >>be lived up to, not survived through. I no longer keep anything. I >>use crystal glasses every day. I'll wear new clothes to go to the >>supermarket, if I feel like it. I don't save my special perfume for >>special occasions, I use it whenever I want to. The words

>>"Someday..." and "One Day..." are fading away from my dictionary.
>>If it's worth seeing, listening or doing, I want to see, listen or >>do it now. I don't know what my friend's wife would have done if >>she knew she wouldn't be there the next morning, this nobody can >>tell. I think she might have called her relatives and closest >>friends. She might call old friends to make peace over past >>quarrels. I'd like to think she would go out for Chinese, her >>favorite food. It's these small things that I would regret not >>doing, if I knew my time had come. I would regret it, because I >>would no longer see the friends I would meet, letters... letters >>that I wanted to write "One of these days". I would regret and feel >>sad, because I didn't say to my brothers and sons, daughters and >>sisters, not times enough at least, how much I love them. Now, I >>try not to delay, postpone or keep anything that could bring >>laughter and joy into our lives.. And, on each morning, I say to >>myself that this could be a special day.. Each day, each hour, each >>minute, is special. If you got this, it's because someone cares for >>you and because, probably, there's someone you care about. If >>you're too busy to send this out to other people and you say to >>yourself that you will send it, "One of these days" - remember that >>"one day" is far away... or might never come... This TANTRA came >>from India. No matter if you're superstitious or not, spend some >>time reading it. It holds useful messages for the soul. Don't keep >>this message. This Tantra must leave your hands within 96 hours.

>>Send copies and watch what goes on in the next four days. You'll >>have a pleasant surprise.. This is true, even if you're not >>superstitious. Now, here's the fun of it: send this message to at >>least 5 people and you're life improves. 0-4 people: your life >>improves slightly. 5-9 people: your life improves according to your >>expectations!

Dear Doc

At least someone I know has the guts to take on the 419 mobsters

You deserve a reward

I wish that there were more people with guts like you around the place now

Everyone else is all just full of hot air

Paper Tigers

 Rovers might get further lifeline **
Negotiations are underway to further extend the missions of the US space agency's Mars rovers.

Dear Doc

It is not quite 25 years yet thank goodness
I spent some time here from 1978 untill 1983 then moved back in 1996 after spending 1994 in the hospital here after the terrorism thing in London

Kind Regards
Yours Sincerely

Subject: RE:

Dear Michael : Hello, I will take Your Friendship and my Mentoring You over TV any time. I was quite smitten with this story The Beautiful Girl with Bad Teeth. That happens in Britain alot because of The Diet. Can You get her to a Dentist that will will do Bonding work. It's Like Tatooing for teeth. It's Very Fast and lasts for at least two decades then needs some touch ups.My Mother had it done. Because She eats so much Grapefruit. That takes a tool on the enamel. I can not talk here, but with Ed Yee at Warner Bros I will be doing something. I also have more time to create. Yesterday, I helped get Gregg Atwill a Fulltime Job as a Limo Dispathcher. His Boss is an Italian Who Really Likes Me.Iam going to open my subconscience for Job Opportunities. PS: Just a Lovely Story, So sweet and Touching. Did You get a Good Phone Number for MS. Dear Michael : Hello, I will take Your Friendship and my Mentoring You over TV any time. I was quite smitten with this story The Beautiful Girl with Bad Teeth. That happens in Britain alot because of The Diet. Can You get her to a Dentist that will will do Bonding work. It's Like Tatooing for teeth. It's Very Fast and lasts for at least two decades then needs some touch ups.My Mother had it done. Because She eats so much Grapefruit. That takes a tool on the enamel.

I can not talk here, but with Ed Yee at Warner Bros I will be doing something. I also have more time to create. Yesterday, I helped get Gregg Atwill a Fulltime Job as a Limo Dispathcher. His Boss is an Italian Who Really Likes Me.Iam going to open my subconscience for Job Opportunities.

So they really do actually take away your TV ?

How completely horrible

When I was ejected from the pub at closing time tonight I found the meaning of life

An absolutely gorgeous girl behind the bar but she had rotten teeth so she never smiled at all even though enough cash at the dentist and she would be smiling and laughing all day long

When I lost everything I tried writing to my old employers looking for work

They did not give me a job but wrote back saying that they did not have enough work which put me on the road to getting THEM work

Have you thought of asking Warners for your old job back ?

Thanks

In the meantime at long last we have a real product to sell

Hand grown fruit and vegitables grown by the mental health community here
I think it may even qualify as organic but I am not sure about that yet
Anyway it is all hand grown because we have not got a tractor
Mainly potatoes cabbage cauliflower and strawberries

Very ethical anyway
Ethical hand grown and possibly organic

Thanks for all the inside info
The brand name is Tyme Garden
And I am waiting for word on the organic question within 24 hours
It is nice to feel at the leading edge again
Especially as this is a long term thing
And I am glad that you are feeling happy and optimistic again now that you know lots of successfull people go bankrupt a few times before the big money rolls in

Dear Doc

Thanks

In the meantime at long last we have a real product to sell

Hand grown fruit and vegitables grown by the mental health community here

I think it may even qualify as organic but I am not sure about that yet
Anyway it is all hand grown because we have not got a tractor
Mainly potatoes cabbage cauliflower and strawberries

Very ethical anyway

Dear Michael: So I read Your Letter . How You tried To get Your Former Employer more Work. I spoke to ED Yee about Warner Bros. Here's the Deal either Corporate or The CPA/Accounting Firm Of Deloitte Touche in London, UK can give You a consulting Job. Actually in confidence They have a Major IT Software Problem. The Mexico Office can not talk to London to give over night numbers of Box Office and Coordinate with The Burbank Offices and there are Other Foreign Offices The Same thing. They have a Licensed Oracle Product and Microsoft Office 2003. A custom program has to be written and installed. I think You'd make a Wonderful consultant. Warner Bros has a Large office in London, UK. Use Me and My Uncle Arthur Kananack, Who ran The London Office for 18 Years. I may have misspelled the First Word off one Letter Maybe In Deloitte Touche , it's a Big Eight Ac counting Firm that has Consulting Capacity With Warner Bros. Worldwide, OK. Good L uck. Dear Michael: Oh, that's a Nice Name Tyme Garden Like The Herb Tyme. Something also came to mind. I checked You can get Kosher Certification even before You get Certified as Organic. This has more to do with Cleanliness and it's good for you like a good house keeping seal. You want The Art Of The Labels to Look Retro Like Old apple crate , Oranges and Pears from California and France. Most of them you just cut and paste. Some of it is over 100 hundred years old most all no longer have a Copyright. About 5 years ago. I met this older hip guy in a color High Speed Printing Press. He had a whole hugh brief Case filled with Them. He bought them from some Indians that collected them. He Pays about $8oo for the Collection Files New Visual Copyrights and Puts the Retro Art on T shirts. The First Years were great/ He had someone to buy His company For $3.5 Mil Usd. I think he was an Engineer too. If You are Organic. You may look at other Organic Farms creating a CO OP Corporation.
Like Ocean Spray in The USA. I know there so successful that each Farmer is now worth at least $500Mil Usd. In also think You can can or Freeze Dry in a pooch Organic Stew and Vegetable soups. You can Add Organic Barley, Rice and Spinach & Tomatoes, Onions and Spices & Herbs. Use Lemon Juice. So On the Label Good For Low Sodium Diets and No Sugar or Dyes added. Anatomy of a scam, part two
US pleads with RP over mad cow restrictions

Tom McMurrain and San Cristobal Land Development...

Anatomy of a scam

part two of a four-part series
by Eric Jackson

In the last issue, we reviewed the usual hallmarks of a fraudulent scheme and noted the people to whom San Cristobal Land Development directs its sales efforts and how the company appeals to potential buyers' sense of greed.

Now THAT isn't so...

As noted above, there is a "forward-looking statement" exception in the Common Law definition of fraud, and Panama's Civil Code jurisprudence has similar provisions. Thus it can and would be argued that wildly unrealistic predictions of profitability can not be the basis of fraud. (Such a defense isn't necessarily airtight, however, if what appears to be a forward-looking statement is in reality a misrepresentation of the maker's present intentions or expectations.)

Conjuring up a road

One apparently forward-looking statement that probably wouldn't qualify for the exception to fraud --- which was pulled from the Internet within a short time of this reporter identifying it in a face-to-face meeting with McMurrain at the Hotel Bristol --- was the claim that now is the time to buy at San Cristobal's Palmira development on the coast of Colon, because the road to Kuna Yala will soon be paved. There is no road from Colon to Kuna Yala. The coastal road stops at the Cuango River, many miles short of Palmira. There is no current plan to extend the road. Any attempt to extend the road all the way to Kuna Yala would provoke fierce indigenous opposition because such a road would bring land invaders to the comarca. While the part about a road soon being paved may arguably be forward-looking, the implication that THERE IS such a road is a fraudulent misrepresentation of present fact.

McMurrain made another version of the road to Kuna Yala claim in EscapeArtist.com, at http://www.escapeartist.com/OREQ5/Beachfront.html, which has also been taken down from the web --- but not before being recorded for publication, posterity, and presentation before any court in which McMurrain or San Cristobal complains of being unfairly maligned for fraud:

"Currently the paved road ends two miles before Palmira. (The road is in the process of being extended all the way to the San Blas islands --- the home of the Kuna Indians as well as some of the best coral reef snorkeling and diving in the world). My guess is that when the road is complete the price will immediately increase substantially."

Still on the San Cristobal website at http://www.sancristobalsa.net/corp/main.php?sid=1&cat=40&subcat=106, one finds the following claim:

"What are the distances to the plantations from Panama City?

"... To Palmira: 40 minutes by helicopter, 3 hours by car (to Colon 50 miles, then another 50 miles to Palmira).

"... Palmira currently has a dirt road that is under construction.

"What is the distance to the closest community?

"In ... Palmira, a one-hour drive to the historic town of Portobello."

But of course, the road doesn't go from Panama City, Colon or Portobelo to Palmira, because it stops just short of the Cuango River, which is well short of Palmira.

What title do purchasers get, is the Isla San Cristobal project really reforestation, and what immigration benefits do investors get?

In the three-page Roger Gallo classic at http://e-caribbeanrealestate.info/html/article_on_san_cristobal.html, a misrepresentation is slickly posed as a question: "How about an investment that will yield 20-25% per annum from exotic fruits, hardwoods and the time tested appreciation and security of fee simple real estate?" Ah, but it goes on to answer the question: "Yes? Yes." Actually, fee simple is a Common Law form of land ownership that does not exist in Panama or other Civil Code legal jurisdictions.

Might a defense attorney object that the "fee simple" terminology was a necessarily inexact but close enough and good faith translation of similar concepts in different legal systems? That argument could wash in certain circumstances, if by "fee simple" one means "titulado."

However, to equate any Panamanian real estate short of title with the Anglo-American fee simple is fraudulent. Couple that with representations about the legal and tax benefits that supposedly accrue to buyers in San Cristobal developments --- who get far less that title --- and it adds up to a really flagrant fraud.

"Everyone who invests in this project gets residency in Panama," the Roger Gallo article proclaims about McMurrain's development on Isla San Cristobal, going on to "explain" that a residency visa comes via Law 24, Panama's reforestation incentive legislation.

However, to legally get a reforestation visa, a foreigner must have title to the land that she or he is reforesting. Possessory rights (derecho posesorio) or an interest in a land contract will not suffice, and of course a vendor can not convey better title than he, she or it possesses.

And what does San Cristobal's lawyer, Barry Miller admit about the nature of the real estate interest that the company has to convey?

In a letter to The Panama News, Miller wrote that:

"SCLD is the purchaser under several contracts that have not yet culminated in transfers of land or possessory rights. Some of these contracts relate to titled land; others to possessory rights land.

"We prefer titled land, but it is not always available in Bocas del Toro. In addition, the process of assembling a salable tract will often require that we purchase possessory rights land. All of our contracts with our customers require that we ultimately deliver titled land. We have been working diligently to obtain deeds to possessory rights property through a local attorney.

"We have also used a so-called "contrato de promeso" as a means of obtaining rights to property that is then sold to customers.... Underlying this contract, which is recorded, is an unrecorded private agreement which provides that, as SCLD pays for the lots into which the property is subdivided, the owner will deed these lots directly to our customers.

"In all, SCLD owns, or has possessory or contractual rights in, approximately 390 hectares of land."

In other words, San Cristobal DOES NOT have the title to convey that would allow every purchaser in the project to qualify for a reforestation visa. In fact several purchasers, one of whom actually still believes in McMurrain, have told The Panama News that they have paid their money for McMurrain's teak and noni farms on Isla San Cristobal and have not received title. Thus "Everyone who invests in this project gets residency in Panama" is a fraudulent misrepresentation of present fact based on the title issue alone.

But it's a fraudulent misrepresentation on account of more than just the matter of land titles.

To legally get a reforestation visa, one must actually be reforesting land. However, much of McMurrain's project on Isla San Cristobal would not properly qualify as "reforestation" under Law 24. What McMurrain is doing is not actually planting trees on land without trees.

What he's actually doing is cutting down a prior generation's failed bid to get rich on a tropical commodity --- cacao trees --- to gamble on new commodities --- teak and noni. But cutting down one kind of tree to plant another does not qualify as "reforestation" under Panamanian law.

Yes, there have been examples in which public officials have improperly granted reforestation benefits to people who have cut down the jungle and replaced it with teak. However, this is highly illegal and, given the overwhelming probability that the Mireyistas are going to be badly defeated in the upcoming elections, the odds are great that any reforestation certificates improperly granted by the Moscoso administration will be revoked by the next government.

For a lot of American retirees, the residency hook is no big issue because merely having an US Social Security pension is in most cases sufficient to become a legal resident of Panama. But Tom McMurrain is not content to leave his residency fib as cited above. On the San Cristobal website, at http://www.sancristobalsa.net/corp/main.php?sid=3&cat=27, he sells shares in a Bocas development called Riverwest Plantation, and makes the following claim:

"Investors purchase units in a plantation located on the Caribbean side of Panama. Each unit is equal to a 1% interest in the whole plantation. The plantation is planted with medicinal plants and reforested with tropical hardwoods, so that each hectare has hundreds of cash-flow-producing medicinal plants and wealth-generating reforested tropical hardwoods. The underlying value of the land and the opportunity for appreciation of Caribbean real estate are also attractive elements.

"Each unit holder is entitled to receive an dual citizenship under Panama's Reforestation Law 24. This Investor's Visa includes eligibility for Panamanian residency and dual citizenship."

DUAL CITIZENSHIP? Yes, that is available to those born in Panama to foreign parents, or abroad to Panamanian parents. However, Article 10 of Panama's Constitution requires that those who would acquire Panamanian citizenship by naturalization must, in addition to learning Spanish and the basics of Panamanian history, geography and governance, renounce such other citizenship that they hold. A person can't constituionally get dual citizenship by investing in one of Tom McMurrain's schemes.

A not so universally appealing pitch

Then there is the fallacious "jump on the bandwagon" appeal, Tom McMurrain's unqualified statement that "Everyone who has seen the project has purchased, and not only that, half of those who've purchased so far did so sight unseen." This is found at http://e-caribbeanrealestate.info/html/article_on_san_cristobal.html.

However, The Panama News has received emails from people who tell us that they took the tour and did not buy. The following, which we received in April of last year, is an example:

"I was one of those Americanos who went down last New Years to take a look at what was on the internet, a very nice spread and sales pitch. I wanted to spend some time in a warmer place so why not look San Cristobal over. I was duly wined and dined and really treated nicely by McMurrain and company. I'm no spring chicken and when on the last night in Panama City I was subjected to intense pressure to buy immediately before the "opportunity slips away" by Ian Calvert, it was deja vu (all over again like in a used car lot) and I smelled a rat. In short, I told him that there was no way I was going to buy anything that night and had a lot of homework to do before I bought anything. I immediately contacted a Panamanian attorney to check them out. It was discovered that they had no property registered anywhere and certainly none that was fee simple as promoted. I considered my legal fees well spent...."

If the people who wrote to us are to be believed, then the claim that everybody who has seen McMurrain's project has bought is also a fraudulent misrepresentation.

Ambiguous statements designed to mislead

What return on investment?

By the way, specifically what does "yields a 50-75% cash return" that Roger Gallo touts on behalf of San Cristobal mean? Annual return on investment? Net income --- or gross receipts --- over 50 years?

The extravagant-sounding figure that appears to say more than it really does is a Tom McMurrain specialty.

In one of the latest spins, San Cristobal claims that in "Palmira, owners... generate $30,000K+ per year in cash flow from their exotic fruits...."

Of course, if the owners spend 30 grand on their fruit crop and it's a total loss, that would amount to a $30,000 cash flow --- outwards.

It's not nice to misrepresent Mother Nature!

Maybe the most misleading claims short of outright lies in San Cristobal's archive of hype are about the elemental forces at play in Bocas del Toro province. At http://www.sancristobalsa.net/corp/main.php?sid=1&cat=3, the assertion goes:

"The climate is perfect as well. Average annual rainfall and temperature are approximately 4000 mm (no monsoon season) and 30°C (86°F) respectively, due to the presence of cooling, tropical breezes. The calm, warm, Caribbean water has an average temperature 29°C (85°F). Panama is also located out of the hurricane and major earthquake belts."

Of course, "monsoon" is the word used only for southern Asia's cyclical rainy seasons, some of which are amazingly wet by anybody's standards, and some of which are comparable to the rainy season in Bocas del Toro. Different parts of that province get differing amounts of annual rainfall --- 4000 millimeters of precipitation would in an ordinary year be the rainfall in one of the province's dryer parts, but in terms more readily understood by Americans that amounts to 157.58 inches of rain per year. That means that during the Atlantic side's nine-month or so rainy season they get an average of more than a half-inch of rain per day --- maybe a "perfect" climate for a Colon native like this reporter, but a bit rainier than most Americans --- or Panamanians --- would prefer.

There is less ambiguity about the weather when Roger Gallo plays shill for San Cristobal at http://e-caribbeanrealestate.info/html/article_on_san_cristobal.html: "No... inclement weather," in Bocas, goes the claim on the second of that Internet ad's three pages. So what is "inclement?"

Look to the National Geographic for a more objective statement about the weather in Bocas, at http://www.nationalgeographic.com/wildworld/profiles/terrestrial/nt/nt1407.html: "The Bocas del Toro-(Spanish for "mouths of the bull") San Bastimentos Island-San Blas mangroves weave along Panama's Caribbean coast in a tangled braid of roots, branches, and dark green leaves that covers about 23 square miles (59 sq. km). These abundant mangrove forests are drenched with the highest rainfall in the country--as much as 236 inches (6,000 mm) per year."

Go through the archives of Panama's Spanish-language dailies, or the websites of disaster relief agencies (e.g., http://www.reliefweb.int/w/rwb.nsf/0/df5147b833df94ddc1256bb90057aa6d?OpenDocument) or Dartmouth University's flood archives (e.g., http://www.dartmouth.edu/~floods/Archives/1993sum.htm) for stories about the consequences of heavy rainfall in Bocas del Toro.

More to the point of Tom McMurrain's whole teak and noni business proposition, note what another company in the Bocas del Toro commercial forestry business has to say about the weather in the province:

"The Archipelago of Bocas del Toro has two seasons: wet and wetter. Although rainfall varies from a low of 8 inches during the months of February and September to a high of nearly 16 inches most of the other months, the islands do not know a dry season. Indeed, at any time of the year, showers lasting five days or more are fairly common. As a result, great care must be taken with regard to the species of tropical hardwood trees that should be planted on the islands or the quality of the wood produced won't meet international standards. Among the hardwoods that require a dry season lasting no less than four months each year are teak, cocobolo and African mahogany. Due to the demand for these hardwoods on the international market, Bocas-area "forestry experts" seeking investment capital often boast about the (specious) benefits of growing these species on properties they own or manage." (At http://www.panamahardwoods.com/pages/955719/.)

And is Bocas del Toro in a "major" earthquake belt? They do get plenty of earthquakes in that province, but because it's sparsely populated and most people live in single-story wooden houses, a quake that registers more than six points on the Richter scale --- of which Bocas has had several in recent years --- isn't nearly as deadly as a temblor of similar magnitude in a place like Turkey or Iran. But if McMurrain leaves readers of his website with the impression that destructive earthquakes are not a problem in Bocas del Toro, he has misled them.

How far off the mark is the notion that Bocas del Toro isn't in an earthquake zone?

See the map below, on which the US Geological Survey charts earthquakes --- represented by dots --- over the past decade or so.

Statements that would have most Panamanians rolling on the floor laughing

. At http://www.free-press-release.com/news/200402/1077737912.html San Cristobal says that:

"The Bocas del Toro Archipelago... has little or no crime...."

Yet in a letter to The Panama News, San Cristobal's lawyer notes of the local people McMurrain hires: "As is common there, many of them had had brushes with the law."

. At http://www.prweb.com/releases/2003/7/prweb72067.htm, San Cristobal's pitch goes:

"The Pacific side is attractive to investors and travelers, but it also has temperamental weather patterns, a 15 to 20 foot tide change and the beaches simply can't compare to those on the Caribbean side."

But most Panamanians, and most foreign residents, prefer the Pacific side because it gets less rain and because they perceive Pacific beaches to be much nicer than those on the Atlantic side.

. At http://www.prweb.com/releases/2002/12/prweb51595.htm, prospective buyers are told:

"In terms of marketing, SCLD has conducted a high-profile, Internet marketing campaign in which prospective buyers can see photos and videos of their land, along with satellite images that allow them to zoom in on their property in real time. Numerous high-profile international real estate, and other related, experts have recognized the attractiveness of SCLD's concept and are actively recommending it to their networks. Finally, SCLD's high-commission broker program gives the company a local presence in over 20 countries."

They'll show you a PICTURE of your land? They claim to be in 20 countries, and they have by their own account sold about 50 of their farms? In New York they tell jokes about selling the Brooklyn Bridge, and this sort of claim is more or less a Panamanian equivalent.

. At Pressbox.co.uk, February 25, 2004, McMurrain claims:

"We are in Bocas in order to develop what could be the next Key West."

Right. Tom McMurrain is going to make Bocas the next gay Mecca like Key West --- especially by throwing around homophobic epithets like "That is why you and Okke are butt buddies I guess," as he did in his recent extortion note demanding that this reporter sell The Panama News to him or else face dire consequences.

Next issue: the basic fallacy of Tom McMurrain's teak and noni profit projections

Tom McMurrain and San Cristobal Land Development...
Anatomy of a scam

part two of a four-part series
by Eric Jackson

In the last issue , we reviewed the usual hallmarks of a fraudulent scheme and noted the people to whom San Cristobal Land Development directs its sales efforts and how the company appeals to potential buyers' sense of greed.

Now THAT isn't so...

As noted above, there is a "forward-looking statement" exception in the Common Law definition of fraud, and Panama's Civil Code jurisprudence has similar provisions. Thus it can and would be argued that wildly unrealistic predictions of profitability can not be the basis of fraud. (Such a defense isn't necessarily airtight, however, if what appears to be a forward-looking statement is in reality a misrepresentation of the maker's present intentions or expectations.)

Conjuring up a road

One apparently forward-looking statement that probably wouldn't qualify for the exception to fraud --- which was pulled from the Internet within a short time of this reporter identifying it in a face-to-face meeting with McMurrain at the Hotel Bristol --- was the claim that now is the time to buy at San Cristobal's Palmira development on the coast of Colon, because the road to Kuna Yala will soon be paved. There is no road from Colon to Kuna Yala. The coastal road stops at the Cuango River, many miles short of Palmira. There is no current plan to extend the road. Any attempt to extend the road all the way to Kuna Yala would provoke fierce indigenous opposition because such a road would bring land invaders to the comarca. While the part about a road soon being paved may arguably be forward-looking, the implication that THERE IS such a road is a fraudulent misrepresentation of present fact.

McMurrain made another version of the road to Kuna Yala claim in EscapeArtist.com, at http://www.escapeartist.com/OREQ5/Beachfront.html , which has also been taken down from the web --- but not before being recorded for publication, posterity, and presentation before any court in which McMurrain or San Cristobal complains of being unfairly maligned for fraud:

"Currently the paved road ends two miles before Palmira. (The road is in the process of being extended all the way to the San Blas islands --- the home of the Kuna Indians as well as some of the best coral reef snorkeling and diving in the world). My guess is that when the road is complete the price will immediately increase substantially."

Still on the San Cristobal website at http://www.sancristobalsa.net/corp/main.php?sid=1&cat=40&subcat=106 , one finds the following claim:

"What are the distances to the plantations from Panama City?

"... To Palmira: 40 minutes by helicopter, 3 hours by car (to Colon 50 miles, then another 50 miles to Palmira).

"... Palmira currently has a dirt road that is under construction.

"What is the distance to the closest community?

"In ... Palmira, a one-hour drive to the historic town of Portobello."

But of course, the road doesn't go from Panama City, Colon or Portobelo to Palmira, because it stops just short of the Cuango River, which is well short of Palmira.

What title do purchasers get, is the Isla San Cristobal project really reforestation, and what immigration benefits do investors get?

In the three-page Roger Gallo classic at http://e-caribbeanrealestate.info/html/article_on_san_cristobal.html , a misrepresentation is slickly posed as a question: "How about an investment that will yield 20-25% per annum from exotic fruits, hardwoods and the time tested appreciation and security of fee simple real estate?" Ah, but it goes on to answer the question: "Yes? Yes." Actually, fee simple is a Common Law form of land ownership that does not exist in Panama or other Civil Code legal jurisdictions.

Might a defense attorney object that the "fee simple" terminology was a necessarily inexact but close enough and good faith translation of similar concepts in different legal systems? That argument could wash in certain circumstances, if by "fee simple" one means "titulado."

However, to equate any Panamanian real estate short of title with the Anglo-American fee simple is fraudulent. Couple that with representations about the legal and tax benefits that supposedly accrue to buyers in San Cristobal developments --- who get far less that title --- and it adds up to a really flagrant fraud.

"Everyone who invests in this project gets residency in Panama," the Roger Gallo article proclaims about McMurrain's development on Isla San Cristobal, going on to "explain" that a residency visa comes via Law 24, Panama's reforestation incentive legislation.

However, to legally get a reforestation visa, a foreigner must have title to the land that she or he is reforesting. Possessory rights (derecho posesorio) or an interest in a land contract will not suffice, and of course a vendor can not convey better title than he, she or it possesses.

And what does San Cristobal's lawyer, Barry Miller admit about the nature of the real estate interest that the company has to convey?

In a letter to The Panama News, Miller wrote that:

"SCLD is the purchaser under several contracts that have not yet culminated in transfers of land or possessory rights. Some of these contracts relate to titled land; others to possessory rights land.

"We prefer titled land, but it is not always available in Bocas del Toro. In addition, the process of assembling a salable tract will often require that we purchase possessory rights land. All of our contracts with our customers require that we ultimately deliver titled land. We have been working diligently to obtain deeds to possessory rights property through a local attorney.

“We have also used a so-called "contrato de promeso" as a means of obtaining rights to property that is then sold to customers.... Underlying this contract, which is recorded, is an unrecorded private agreement which provides that, as SCLD pays for the lots into which the property is subdivided, the owner will deed these lots directly to our customers.

“In all, SCLD owns, or has possessory or contractual rights in, approximately 390 hectares of land.”

In other words, San Cristobal DOES NOT have the title to convey that would allow every purchaser in the project to qualify for a reforestation visa. In fact several purchasers, one of whom actually still believes in McMurrain, have told The Panama News that they have paid their money for McMurrain’s teak and noni farms on Isla San Cristobal and have not received title. Thus “Everyone who invests in this project gets residency in Panama” is a fraudulent misrepresentation of present fact based on the title issue alone.

But it’s a fraudulent misrepresentation on account of more than just the matter of land titles.

To legally get a reforestation visa, one must actually be reforesting land. However, much of McMurrain’s project on Isla San Cristobal would not properly qualify as “reforestation” under Law 24. What McMurrain is doing is not actually planting trees on land without trees.

What he’s actually doing is cutting down a prior generation’s failed bid to get rich on a tropical commodity --- cacao trees --- to gamble on new commodities --- teak and noni. But cutting down one kind of tree to plant another does not qualify as “reforestation” under Panamanian law.

Yes, there have been examples in which public officials have improperly granted reforestation benefits to people who have cut down the jungle and replaced it with teak. However, this is highly illegal and, given the overwhelming probability that the Mireyistas are going to be badly defeated in the upcoming elections, the odds are great that any reforestation certificates improperly granted by the Moscoso administration will be revoked by the next government.

For a lot of American retirees, the residency hook is no big issue because merely having an US Social Security pension is in most cases sufficient to become a legal resident of Panama. But Tom McMurrain is not content to leave his residency fib as cited above. On the San Cristobal website, at http://www.sancristobalsa.net/corp/main.php?sid=3&cat=27 , he sells shares in a Bocas development called Riverwest Plantation, and makes the following claim:

“Investors purchase units in a plantation located on the Caribbean side of Panama. Each unit is equal to a 1% interest in the whole plantation. The plantation is planted with medicinal plants and reforested with tropical hardwoods, so that each hectare has hundreds of cash-flow-producing medicinal plants and wealth-generating reforested tropical hardwoods. The underlying value of the land and the opportunity for appreciation of Caribbean real estate are also attractive elements.

“Each unit holder is entitled to receive an dual citizenship under Panama's Reforestation Law 24. This Investor's Visa includes eligibility for Panamanian residency and dual citizenship.”

DUAL CITIZENSHIP? Yes, that is available to those born in Panama to foreign parents, or abroad to Panamanian parents. However, Article 10 of Panama’s Constitution requires that those who would acquire Panamanian citizenship by naturalization must, in addition to learning Spanish and the basics of Panamanian history, geography and governance, renounce such other citizenship that they hold. A person can't constituionally get dual citizenship by investing in one of Tom McMurrain's schemes.

A not so universally appealing pitch

Then there is the fallacious "jump on the bandwagon" appeal, Tom McMurrain's unqualified statement that "Everyone who has seen the project has purchased, and not only that, half of those who've purchased so far did so sight unseen." This is found at http://e-caribbeanrealestate.info/html/article_on_san_cristobal.html .

However, The Panama News has received emails from people who tell us that they took the tour and did not buy. The following, which we received in April of last year, is an example:

"I was one of those Americanos who went down last New Years to take a look at what was on the internet, a very nice spread and sales pitch. I wanted to spend some time in a warmer place so why not look San Cristobal over. I was duly wined and dined and really treated nicely by McMurrain and company. I'm no spring chicken and when on the last night in Panama City I was subjected to intense pressure to buy immediately before the "opportunity slips away" by Ian Calvert, it was deja vu (all over again like in a used car lot) and I smelled a rat. In short, I told him that there was no way I was going to buy anything that night and had a lot of homework to do before I bought anything. I immediately contacted a Panamanian attorney to check them out. It was discovered that they had no property registered anywhere and certainly none that was fee simple as promoted. I considered my legal fees well spent...."

If the people who wrote to us are to be believed, then the claim that everybody who has seen McMurrain's project has bought is also a fraudulent misrepresentation.

Ambiguous statements designed to mislead

What return on investment?

By the way, specifically what does "yields a 50-75% cash return" that Roger Gallo touts on behalf of San Cristobal mean? Annual return on investment? Net income --- or gross receipts --- over 50 years?

The extravagant-sounding figure that appears to say more than it really does is a Tom McMurrain specialty.

In one of the latest spins, San Cristobal claims that in "Palmira, owners... generate $30,000K+ per year in cash flow from their exotic fruits...."

Of course, if the owners spend 30 grand on their fruit crop and it's a total loss, that would amount to a $30,000 cash flow --- outwards.

It's not nice to misrepresent Mother Nature!

Maybe the most misleading claims short of outright lies in San Cristobal's archive of hype are about the elemental forces at play in Bocas del Toro province. At http://www.sancristobalsa.net/corp/main.php?sid=1&cat=3 , the assertion goes:

"The climate is perfect as well. Average annual rainfall and temperature are approximately 4000 mm (no monsoon season) and 30°C (86°F) respectively, due to the presence of cooling, tropical breezes. The calm, warm, Caribbean water has an average temperature 29°C (85°F). Panama is also located out of the hurricane and major earthquake belts."

Of course, "monsoon" is the word used only for southern Asia's cyclical rainy seasons, some of which are amazingly wet by anybody's standards, and some of which are comparable to the rainy season in Bocas del Toro. Different parts of that province get differing amounts of annual rainfall --- 4000 millimeters of precipitation would in an ordinary year be the rainfall in one of the province's dryer parts, but in terms more readily understood by Americans that amounts to 157.58 inches of rain per year. That means that during the Atlantic side's nine-month or so rainy season they get an average of more than a half-inch of rain per day --- maybe a "perfect" climate for a Colon native like this reporter, but a bit rainier than most Americans --- or Panamanians --- would prefer.

There is less ambiguity about the weather when Roger Gallo plays shill for San Cristobal at http://e-caribbeanrealestate.info/html/article_on_san_cristobal.html : "No... inclement weather," in Bocas, goes the claim on the second of that Internet ad's three pages. So what is "inclement?"

Look to the National Geographic for a more objective statement about the weather in Bocas, at http://www.nationalgeographic.com/wildworld/profiles/terrestrial/nt/nt1407.html : "The Bocas del Toro-(Spanish for "mouths of the bull") San Bastimentos Island-San Blas mangroves weave along Panama's Caribbean coast in a tangled braid of roots, branches, and dark green leaves that covers about 23 square miles (59 sq. km). These abundant mangrove forests are drenched with the highest rainfall in the country--as much as 236 inches (6,000 mm) per year."

Go through the archives of Panama's Spanish-language dailies, or the websites of disaster relief agencies (e.g., http://www.reliefweb.int/w/rwb.nsf/0/df5147b833df94ddc1256bb90057aa6d?OpenDocument) or Dartmouth University's flood archives (e.g., http://www.dartmouth.edu/~floods/Archives/1993sum.htm) for stories about the consequences of heavy rainfall in Bocas del Toro.

More to the point of Tom McMurrain's whole teak and noni business proposition, note what another company in the Bocas del Toro commercial forestry business has to say about the weather in the province:

"The Archipelago of Bocas del Toro has two seasons: wet and wetter. Although rainfall varies from a low of 8 inches during the months of February and September to a high of nearly 16 inches most of the other months, the islands do not know a dry season. Indeed, at any time of the year, showers lasting five days or more are fairly common. As a result, great care must be taken with regard to the species of tropical hardwood trees that should be planted on the islands or the quality of the wood produced won't meet international standards. Among the hardwoods that require a dry season lasting no less than four months each year are teak, cocobolo and African mahogany. Due to the demand for these hardwoods on the international market, Bocas-area "forestry experts" seeking investment capital often boast about the (specious) benefits of growing these species on properties they own or manage." (At http://www.panamahardwoods.com/pages/955719/ .)

And is Bocas del Toro in a "major" earthquake belt? They do get plenty of earthquakes in that province, but because it's sparsely populated and most people live in single-story wooden houses, a quake that registers more than six points on the Richter scale --- of which Bocas has had several in recent years --- isn't nearly as deadly as a temblor of similar magnitude in a place like Turkey or Iran. But if McMurrain leaves readers of his website with the impression that destructive earthquakes are not a problem in Bocas del Toro, he has misled them.

How far off the mark is the notion that Bocas del Toro isn't in an earthquake zone?

See the map below, on which the US Geological Survey charts earthquakes --- represented by dots --- over the past decade or so.

Statements that would have most Panamanians rolling on the floor laughing

• At http://www.free-press-release.com/news/200402/1077737912.html San Cristobal says that:

“The Bocas del Toro Archipelago... has little or no crime....”

Yet in a letter to The Panama News, San Cristobal’s lawyer notes of the local people McMurrain hires: “As is common there, many of them had had brushes with the law.”

• At http://www.prweb.com/releases/2003/7/prweb72067.htm , San Cristobal’s pitch goes:

“The Pacific side is attractive to investors and travelers, but it also has temperamental weather patterns, a 15 to 20 foot tide change and the beaches simply can't compare to those on the Caribbean side.”

But most Panamanians, and most foreign residents, prefer the Pacific side because it gets less rain and because they perceive Pacific beaches to be much nicer than those on the Atlantic side.

• At http://www.prweb.com/releases/2002/12/prweb51595.htm , prospective buyers are told:

“In terms of marketing, SCLD has conducted a high-profile, Internet marketing campaign in which prospective buyers can see photos and videos of their land, along with satellite images that allow them to zoom in on their property in real time. Numerous high-profile international real estate, and other related, experts have recognized the attractiveness of SCLD's concept and are actively recommending it to their networks. Finally, SCLD's high-commission broker program gives the company a local presence in over 20 countries.”

They’ll show you a PICTURE of your land? They claim to be in 20 countries, and they have by their own account sold about 50 of their farms? In New York they tell jokes about selling the Brooklyn Bridge, and this sort of claim is more or less a Panamanian equivalent.

• At Pressbox.co.uk, February 25, 2004, McMurrain claims:

"We are in Bocas in order to develop what could be the next Key West.”

Right. Tom McMurrain is going to make Bocas the next gay Mecca like Key West --- especially by throwing around homophobic epithets like “That is why you and Okke are butt buddies I guess,” as he did in his recent extortion note demanding that this reporter sell The Panama News to him or else face dire consequences.

Next issue: the basic fallacy of Tom McMurrain’s teak and noni profit projections

Dear Mike: Saved our butt's again. Thanks, I told ED You read it. He said. When Your Hometown Paper Dawg,s You. You must be Sleeping with Flees. If You don't Own The Land, You Technically can't sell it. He's A Flim Flam Man When He's done In Panama He'll Go to Another country. I already Know that . In the few conversations that I had and emails. He's Got Track Shows.
PS: That Bizarre Weather It Happened today in Chicago. Twisters, Winds, Electrical Storms, Hail The Size of BaseBalls, Lots Of Rain. No Warning. Are You Organic To be Certified and remember You can Be Certified Kosher. I'd Make Vegitarian Stew With A Meatless Soy And Grains Product with Veggies and Broath. You'll be a Big Hit. I think Mad Cow is Out of Hand Again down Here. Everyone eats Veggie Burgers, Fish or Chicken. The Media Lies too much.

Dear Doc

Some bad press about the Panama thing
I cannot make decisions like this for you
But you might like to read this link published May 2004 in The Panama News

Dear Gregg: You have corrected vision. Are You Legally Blind? What proof did Vince have that You are Blind as a Bat. You never took your glasses off for any reason. There's something going on which I don't understand. Why would Vince's behavior change like this and then he uses Your vision against you to fire you. I just don.t understand this at all.

Sincerely,
Joseph Sinda

This is a CC: Copy E-mail to my attorney.
The only reason you are being apprised of this matter is because;
1. You were nice enough to give me a personal recommendation
2 You are my attorney and I have been fired on the basis of my vision. American with Disabilities Act. My work habits were excellent, attendance was perfect and of course I was willing to be trained.

I was interviewed by Vince on Thursday night and he agreed to train me on Tuesday, Wedsday and Thurdsday and will begin my paid working schedule on Friday through Sunday.

First day of training went exceptionally well with Lee on Tuesday and on Wedsday returned to work again where I was suppose to be trained by Mike. Well, Mike never lifted finger to train me, but I was able to complete my assigned tasks perfectly. Before leaving, I check my work three times and everything was done exactly as directed and correct.

On Tuesday evening, Vince called and began insulting my handicap and called me blind as a bat. He continued, by asking me when the last time I had my eyes checked and I replied that my work was check three times by mike and myself. Vince did not want to hear this and fired me on the sole basis of my Vision which is against the law. Vince never offered any accomadation for my impairment and wilfully and wantonly fired me on a baseless reason. No explainations, just a check that will be ready tonight. July 14, 2004.

Vince said that if I wanted to dicuss the matter I can talk to him between 8:30 and 9:00pm. I took Mary to the office with me as a witness and when arriving, his greeting was very rude.
" I am interviewing someone for the job! When Vince saw Mary he did not want to talk to us, because he knew I had brought a witness. I was handed my check and we were ordered to leave.

Now if I recall correctly, this is in direct Violation of the American's with Disabilities Act and my attendence, work ethic or willingness to be trained is absolutely not an issue.

know what advice you have.

Dear Gregg: How could You possible Get Fired as a Dispatcher for Your Eye Sight. You have Corrective Lenses. Is one of Your eyes a Glass eye. Your covered under The Disability ACT. Something is very wrong with this picture. You were over qualified for that Job. I don't buy into this Loser Crap Line.
Have You talked to a Career Counselor.

Dr. Joseph Sinda,
Allow me to introduce myself. My name is Dave Cox from Cedar City, Utah. I am one of the Top Marketing Affiliates with Body Extreme. I work with Claudia Montcalvo Beltran from Houston, Texas. She forwarded me your email correspondence with her, so that I could help her answer your questions.

It looks like you are a very experienced and successful Network marketing entrepreuneur and phyisician. I congratulate you on all of your success. I really enjoy getting to know new people like yourself that truly understand this industry and what it takes to make a Network marketing opportunity a viable one.

In answer to your questions and concerns....

You can go to Claudia's product and business management website..

www.bodyextreme.com/1822

At that website you can get all of the product information, ingredients,etc.

Also go to this website if you haven't, this is our brand new prospecting system... the first online informercial. This system is just exploding our company!

www.yourbodyextreme.com/1822

As you know timing is everything in Network marketing. Our company just is 6 years old. I got involved in november of 2002. I have been involved full time in Network marketing for 15 years. I have been successful in most of the companies that I have been involved with.

I was first involved with Nuskin . I started out part-time in 1989, and reached the Blue Diamond status by feb. of 1991. I had over 20,000 distributors in my organization. I left Nuskin in 1995, I felt that the opportunity here in United States for a new distributor to do what I had done was gone. That compensation plan was to difficult for the average person, to long to make money, so people would quit.

I have been involved both a distributor and part owner and president/CEO of a major mlm company in Asia. The one thing that I think I have learned the most is "What Key Factors that need to be in place to make a Company and Opportunity a Viable one"

All of these "Key Factors"are in place here with Body Extreme.

We are just launching our New "One of Kind" juice product in the next couple of weeks. NinziJuice. This will be the most beneficial and impactful juice product to ever hit the marketplace!

here is the link to our Ninzi website www.bodyextreme.com/ninzi

We are having a special call by invitation only for the key leaders (or potential leaders) with Dr. Larry Stowe (who helped us with the formulation of this product} and who also works with Body Extreme. He also runs a cancer reseach center out of Texas.

I would like to invite you to be on this call as my quest. Also I would like to set up a call with Dr. Stowe , and several of the Corporate people in Boise, Idaho. That way we could address all of your concerns and questions.

I would like to visit with you on the phone also. If you have any questions, feel free to call or email me.

Prosperous Regards,
Dave Cox

I sent you a copy. telling her to write a Book and today She releases a Statement She's Writing a Book. Unbelievable, I guess She knows Good Advice. That has got to go in "I Write Stuff".I wonder who will publish the Book. Perhaps Her Company.
Since she has time for Her federal Appeal She'll write and finish it now.love Doc.

Dear Doc

Good news
It looks like Tim from the local pub is interested in buying up all the fruit and veg from Tyme Garden
He has just opened a fruit and veg shop on the other side of town
I will be going around there to the shop to talk things over tomorrow
Thanks for all your help

Kind Regards
Yours Sincerely
Mike Poole

OK, what I invented there is not one like it on either Market for Human or Pet. It's an Energy Bar Called "Berry Delicous Energy Bars" You may pressed Stamped Berry and Fruit in a Stamped Roll with Lemon Juice succrous. Thats Step One You roll that in to a hallo cigar Shape leaveing The Center Open . Step to You make an Organic Cookie doe filled withorganic ingredients raisind, sesame deeds, sunflowers seeds,flax seeds lecithin, maple syrup. molasses, chocolate chips, bee pollen, , Soy Protein, fig paste, apple fiber, Oat ffber, Rolled Oats, clorella, Lemon juice and Pectin.
You Back this on a cookie dish Low Heat. The same as you would make Dinner Rolls or Cookies. You backage them individually. They can be sold individually and in a Box of 24

Now , get this energy wise it as almost 20 Grams of Protein, Dietary Fiber 5 Grams Total fat 2g Sat. Fat about 180 Calores Sugars 12g sodium Sodium 70mg Cholesteral o%.
Pefect For anyone especially diebetics and people who have a weight problem.

Also I tried it out on Dogs and cats as a Treat. They Love it.
It's kind of like a new age Organic struudle.
I had two of these Bars and worked 6 Hours in the Hot sun with Just water and I wasn't Hungry. Most of the Ingredients can come from The Tyme Farm. If Frozen You dip Them in Cold Yogurt or Sorbet. Which You take Fruit and juice and with Ice make a Italian Gellato. Man, it's Fantastic. In Mass. The Product itself could cost You more for the Packaging than the Ingredients.
You can sell to Human Market and seperate Pet Market. Amazing but True.
Please try it out. First start Till You get Both step One and step Two Perfected then combine. You may have to spin like a cigar at both ends North nand South. Thats OK.

By changing The Out side Flavor of the Fruit Roll and also inside ingredients You can come up with mabe 28 Different Varieties. Wow. This is really something Special.

Part 1: Self Improvement 101: The 62 Essential Truths about Improving Your Life - by David Riklan
==========

SPECIAL F*REE E-COURSE FOR: J

Welcome to Part 1 of a 6-Part series.

Part 1: The Seven Critical Keys to Goal Setting - by David Riklan

This 6-Part series will directly assist you with your primary task: TO IMPROVE YOUR LIFE!

1. WHO WROTE THIS 6-PART SERIES?

My name is David Riklan, and I am the President and Co-Founder of SelfGrowth.com —the Internet Self Improvement Portal—and the author of the new Self Improvement Encyclopedia, "Self Improvement: The Top 101 Experts That Help Improve Our Lives."

2. WHY DID I WRITE THIS SERIES?

Everybody that I speak to wants to improve their life, but many of them are faced with the same questions:

A. What is the best way to start improving my life?
B. What are the best resources for me?
C. Which book should I read first?
D. Which seminar should I go to?
E. Should I listen to an audio program from my car?
F. What is the best website to go to?

This FREE 6-Part series is designed to help you answer these questions.

3. SO, WHAT DO WE DO NOW?

Napoleon Hill said that "Desire Is the Starting Point of All Achievement." Do you have the desire? If you are reading this, you hopefully have at least some "Desire" to change. Hopefully, lots of desire!

4. You need to start by asking yourself: "What is it that I want? What exactly do I want?" Or for some people: "What don't I want?"

This is a crucial question and the perfect starting point for finding the resources that you need.

5. WAIT A MINUTE: Maybe, you don't know what you want. Maybe, you have no idea what you want.

If you think that you fit into this category, I want to tell you that you are ABSOLUTELY wrong.

What you want might not be very specific yet, but I'm sure there is something there.

YOU MIGHT WANT TO SIMPLY CHANGE.
YOU MIGHT WANT TO FIND OUT WHAT YOU REALLY WANT.
YOU MIGHT WANT TO BE HAPPY.
YOU MIGHT JUST WANT A BETTER LIFE.
YOU MIGHT WANT TO FIND OUT YOUR LIFE'S PURPOSE.

No matter how general or how specific this is, you need to start somewhere.

YOU HAVE TO START TO ANSWER THAT QUESTION: WHAT DO YOU WANT?

STEP #1: Figuring Out What You Want

Suggestions for Step 1:

1. Become clear on what it is you want for your life. Ask yourself three questions:

A. What do I have that I want? This helps you appreciate your current life. (i.e.—good education, close friends, health, home)
B. What do I have or tolerate that I don't want? These things detract from your happiness. (i.e.—large debts, abusive friends, dead end job)
C. What don't I have that I want? This will greatly improve the quality of your life. (i.e.—more confidence, closer friends, more money in the bank)

2. Ask your friends and co-workers what they want. This might help you generate some ideas.

3. Write down a complete list of possible things that you want. You can call it brainstorming or idea generation. Nothing is too silly. Nothing is too ridiculous. Just write it down. Save your criticism and evaluation for later. Write whatever comes to your mind.

4. When answering these questions, think in terms of your home life, your family life, your career, your health, your social life, your physique, your hobbies, your community, your world, and just about anything else that comes to mind.

5. Go BIG! What are your life dreams? Do you know what your ideal life would be like?

6. Make sure to write it all down and try to be as specific as possible.

7. Review and prioritize. The next step is to review all of your goals and prioritize them. Decide what is really important to you and what you really want to achieve.

After you have completed Step 1, you will receive a second email with Part 2: Self Improvement 101: The 62 Essential Truths about Improving Your LifeFINAL NOTE

For those of you who want to jump right into the resources, we have written a comprehensive book, entitled:

"Self Improvement: The Top 101 Experts That Help Us Improve Our Lives"

This book is a groundbreaking 460-page comprehensive resource with detailed information on the top 101 experts, their insights, their messages and their products.

You can learn the secrets of Tony Robbins, Dr. Phil, Zig Ziglar, Deepak Chopra, Stephen Covey, Wayne Dyer, Dale Carnegie, plus 94 more in this epic 460-page book on Self Improvement.

Part 2: Self Improvement 101: The 62 Essential Truths about Improving Your Life - by David Riklan
==========

SPECIAL F*REE E-COURSE FOR: J

In Part 1 of our E-class, we focused on answering the question, “What exactly is it that you want?” In Part 2 of our E-Class, we will focus on the next question, “Where can we go for help?”

Part 2: The 31 Absolutely Best Resources for Self Improvement - by David Riklan

Today's section is designed to help explore all of the people, places and things available to help us improve our lives.

There is some very good news. There are literally dozens of places to go and people to talk to when it comes to helping us improve our lives. Part 2 of this e-course is designed as a brainstorming session to help you think about and understand all of the different resources available.

Here I provide you with a complete list of 31 resources, and for each section, I include the pros and cons of using that particular resource. Basically, I want you to use this for two reasons:

--- To get you thinking about all of the different resources available to you.
--- To get you thinking about the advantages and disadvantages for each of the resources.

After you've had additional time to digest these, we will get back to helping you identify the best resources to improve your life.

I have divided the resources into five different areas to get you thinking, and in some cases I have provided very specific examples.

How many of these resources have you used to improve your life?

YOUR IMMEDIATE CIRCLE OF CONTACTS

As a general rule, the people in this group are more likely to give you personal attention, and they are more likely to sincerely care about your needs. There are two things to look out for. These people are not necessarily experts in the areas where you need to improve, and they might have their own agenda, but they are generally easily accessible and can be great resources to help you improve your life.

1. Your Friends
2. Your Family
3. Co-workers
4. Your Employer (boss or manager)

INFORMATION RESOURCES (5-12)

There is an unbelievable wealth of information out there to improve your life. On the Internet alone, there are over five million websites with the exact phrases of “Self Help” or “Self Improvement.” On Amazon.com, there are over 190,000 books with references to Self Help and Self Improvement. Almost all of the information you are looking for can be found here, but it could take hundreds of lifetimes to find the right information for you. Which of these resources do you currently use to help improve your life?

5. Internet Websites
6. Books (Library, Bookstore)
7. Seminars, Retreats
8. High School, College or Continuing Education Courses.
9. Audio Programs
10. Television and Video Programs
11. Radio
12. Other Media, Magazines, Movies, Music

TRAINED PROFESSIONALS (13-22)

A trained professional can help you survive and to thrive in many areas of your life. Many have worked with people in your exact circumstances and helped them find the answers they were looking for. As a general rule, professionals can provide you with more objectivity than you would get from a friend or a family member.

One of the challenges of working with trained professionals is finding the right one for you. It is important to find the right type of trained professional (i.e.—therapist or personal coach) and then the best person based on your background, needs and personality. Trained professionals can also be very expensive to work with and in some instances have a stigma attached to them. In many cases, the benefits of working with a trained professional far outweigh the costs and the risk, but this is something that you need to evaluate.

13. Therapists (Professional Counselors, Psychologists)
14. Personal Coaches, Life Coaches
15. Clergy (i.e.—Priest, Minister, Rabbi)

16. Accountant, Attorney, Stockbroker, Financial Planner
17. Self Improvement Experts (Tony Robbins, Dr. Phil)
18. Librarians
19. Personal Trainer
20. Doctors and Other Health Care Professionals
21. Employment Experts (Job Placement Experts)
22. Psychics, Spiritualist, Yogis

ORGANIZATIONS (23-25)

I am using the term "organizations" in a very broad sense. These can include non-profit and for-profit organizations and both professional and social organizations. The biggest benefit that many of these organizations provide is the ability to work with, network with, and share experiences with people in the same boat, on the same mission, or with the same problem. These organizations frequently have "trained professionals," frequently have people who are our friends and family, and use "Known Information Resources" to help each of us grow. These types of organizations are not for everybody, and the benefits that you get back are tied directly into what you are contributing. The wrong group could be a waste of time, but the right group could change your life forever.

23. Non-Profit Support Groups (i.e.—AA, Child Support Groups)
24. Social and Professional Organizations (i.e.—Toastmasters, MENSA)
25. SPAs, Health Clubs
26. Personal Support Network (Master Mind Groups)

OTHERS POTENTIAL AREAS (27-31)

The above areas covered countless resources to improve your life. I have included a few other areas that others have found helpful in the past. As you can see, there is a tremendous amount of overlap between the different resources.

27. Free Government Resources (Hotlines, Brochures, Help Centers)
28. Inner Guidance (Asking and Giving Yourself Help)
29. Pets for other wisdom (Great listeners)
30. Mentors
31. God

Each and every one of us has used at least one of the above resources to improve our lives. In Part 1, we reviewed and defined our main goals, and in this section, we reviewed the complete world of help available to us to achieve these goals.

Your assignment today is to evaluate each of the areas above and try to determine which of these has helped you the most in the past.

In Part 3, we will start evaluating which type of resources will work best for us individually.

FINAL NOTE

For those of you who want to jump right into the resources, we have written a comprehensive book, entitled:

"Self Improvement: The Top 101 Experts That Help Us Improve Our Lives"

This book is a groundbreaking 460-page comprehensive resource with detailed information on the top 101 experts, their insights, their messages and their products.

SPECIAL F*REE E-COURSE FOR : J

Part 3: How to Immediately Determine Which of the Top 3 Learning Styles Will Work Best for You - by David Riklan

In Part 1 of our E-class, we focused on answering the question, "What exactly is it that you want?" In Part 2 of our E-Class, we asked, "Where can we go for help?"

Today's section (Part 3) focuses on the different ways in which we learn. By figuring out your most appropriate LEARNING STYLE(s), you will be able to determine which type of self-help you're best suited for.

The three major learning styles defined by psychologists include:

Visual Learning
Auditory Learning
Kinesthetic Learning

You'll certainly be able to learn more effectively by understanding which learning style works for you. But don't believe that you're limited to just one! In fact, mostly all of us use a combination of styles. It is important, however, for you to be part of an environment that makes the most of your learning ability.

VISUAL LEARNERS (approximately 65 percent of the population)
This type of learner is best at collecting information with their eyes. This includes looking at visual images or reading text. Visual learners usually prefer graphics, illustrations and charts. They are able to remember details and ideas in picture form, typically what they've seen before.

AUDITORY LEARNERS (approximately 30 percent of the population)
This type of learner is best at collecting information with their ears. This includes listening and talking. Although easily distracted, auditory learners learn by memorizing sound. For instance, they learn instructions by repeating them over and over again, even in silent form. They often like background music to block out interrupting noises.

KINESTHETIC LEARNERS (approximately 5 percent of the population)
This type of learner is best at collecting meaning through touch and movement. Kinesthetic learners learn through physical interaction; most are young children. In essence, touching is a way of seeing.

So, which of these three styles is most effective for you? If you're not sure, here is an exercise to help. Read through the following examples and note down how many apply to you personally. By counting how many check marks you have in each category, you can determine the type of learning that is right for you.

A VISUAL LEARNER…
--- Reads or watches TV to relax.
--- Tends to remember people's faces but not their names.
--- Gets distracted by untidiness when concentrating.
--- Learns about a new idea by reading the book.
--- Attempts to spell a difficult word by writing to see how it looks.
--- Solves problems most easily by writing out possible solutions.

AN AUDITORY LEARNER…
--- Listens to music or the radio to relax.
--- Tends to remember people's names but not their faces.
--- Gets distracted by noise when concentrating.
--- Learns about a new idea by purchasing the audio tapes.
--- Attempts to spell a difficult word by sounding it out.
--- Solves problems most easily by talking through possible solutions.

A KINESTHETIC LEARNER…

--- Does a physical activity or plays a sport to relax.
--- Tends to remember people by recalling things he/she did with them.
--- Gets distracted by moving people when concentrating.
--- Learns about a new idea by going to the seminar.
--- Attempts to spell a difficult word by writing to see how it feels.
--- Solves problems most easily through hands-on experience.

If you have a high score for visual learners, then I recommend you utilize visual presentations like illustrations, slides and videos.

If you see that you are more of an audio learner, then audio sources like tapes or lectures will suit you best.

If you happen to fit under the kinesthetic category, then a kinesthetic or hands-on approach to learning will help.

Certainly it is possible to score evenly across all three. This shows that you are able to learn well using either the visual, audio or kinesthetic learning styles. Congratulations!

After determining your most appropriate style(s), you can then choose the type of material, expert or environment that will help you learn best and in effect, improve your life.

In Part 4, we will start evaluating the value of mentors and modeling.

SPECIAL F*REE E-COURSE FOR : J

Today's section (Part 4) :

The Untold Truth About Mentors, and Why You DON'T Need “ONE”.

I think there is a misconception about what a mentor truly is. A mentor is someone who guides you, someone wise, someone you trust. A mentor can be your confidant, advisor, coach, or even your role model. Many people swear by their mentors and frequently credit them with much of their success.

Yet you do not have to choose just one! The mentor-protégé bond is certainly a special one, but this does not mean you are limited to the knowledge of only a single source. In the early years of my adult life, I was hoping to find just one person to guide me and direct me, but I never did find that person.

Over time, a few things became clear to me:

1. There is no single person who can provide us with every answer. So why abide by one mentor who you know cannot meet every requirement? I discovered that I could learn more, not by following the advice of a single person, but by observing a multitude of people.

2. There is no perfect role model. I used to believe there was such a person and that I would simply model myself after him. All I would have to do is watch and do the things he or she did. Unfortunately, I haven't met that person yet.

3. There is no perfect person. Very few people possess all of the qualities that I think define success and happiness: great friends, career, health, family life, finances, social life, leisure, spiritual life, community involvement, etc. Most of the very successful people I've met had one or some of these, but hardly any had all of them. So why compare myself to the perfect person who doesn't exist?

4. I didn't have all of the answers and I never will. I knew that I was going to make mistakes, but what I discovered was that it was much easier to learn from other people's mistakes than to make all of the mistakes myself.

To me, my mentor had to:

--- Take a personal interest in my development and support me in the avenues I take.
--- Help me strive toward the highest of aspirations, not only in career but in the satisfaction of life.
--- Want to share his knowledge and experiences, in hope that I reach a high level of achievement.
--- Show me the need to fulfill all responsibilities, both at home and away from it.
--- Care about the well-being of himself and his family.
--- Be a great overall example.

Needless to say, I still haven't found that one mentor yet.

Since I couldn't find that one special person to guide me, I needed to create a mentor. Now, how does one go about doing something like that? Well, it's not as hard as it seems. You first have to determine what you want. That is most important, not only because it's part of the mentor process but because it directly concerns what will make you happy in life.

Once you figure out what you want, find the people that have it or know how to get it and make sure they are willing to teach you how to get it. You don't even have to know them personally. As your mentors, they can teach you through a variety of ways: books, audio tapes, lectures, seminars, etc. A mentor then can have millions of protégés.

Here is some additional advice in finding mentors:

1. You can learn from practically anybody. In essence, anybody can be your mentor. Not only can you learn what to do or how to behave, you can also learn to avoid the wrong paths that others have followed.

2. Identify the key people in your life. Mentors can be close family members like parents or siblings, and they can also be public figures. Again, don't believe that you have to have a close relationship with your mentors. Public figures can be key people in your life because they can have a profound effect on how you live it.

3. Find people with specialized knowledge. If certain people have written an insightful book on a particular subject or have inspirational life experiences to share, then they might be possible mentors who can help in motivating you. Plus, if they are famous, they are easy to watch via television or the Internet, and their material is not difficult to find.

4. Try to ask as much as possible. Ask people for advice, ask them how they got where they are, ask them how you can get the same things. Also ask yourself what certain people would say or how they would act in specific situations. The more prepared you are, the less likely you'll make a mistake in the future.

5. Mentors can simply be people who are happy in life! Salary and position don't matter as long as there is contentment and commitment. Mentors can range from athletes and politicians to religious figures and stay-at-home mothers.

I have hundreds of mentors. So how many do you have?

In Part 5, we will cover the "The Top 10 Commandments of Self Improvement."

Today's section (Part 5): The "Ten Commandments" of Self Improvement.

This section focuses on the basics of Self Improvement. What does it really take to change your life? Let me begin by giving you a little background. Here are some guidelines, what I like to call the pre-commandments of Self Improvement:

--- There is no single book, tape, seminar, expert or system that will work equally well for everybody.
--- There is no master plan for everybody. We are all unique.
--- There is no panacea (a remedy for all diseases, evils or difficulties; a cure-all).
--- There are many people with products and information that can help you.
--- There are a lot of books, tapes, and programs out there that will provide you with very little benefit.

Now let me share with you some ideas that I believe will stick with you throughout your time as a Self Improvement seeker.

The following are ten steps or "Commandments" you can use as you scan the aisles, check the Web sites and read the books trying to improve your life. For each of these "Ten Commandments", I have included quotes that support that belief from a variety of experts in the field of Self Improvement and beyond.

You are probably familiar with many of these "Commandments". If you are, please look at these as a refresher course to remind you of the basics. The Ten Commandments of Self Improvement Are as Follows:

#1: Thou Shalt Take Responsibility for Your Life

Dr. Phil: "Life Law:-You Create Your Own Experience. Acknowledge and Accept Responsibility for your life"

Stephen Covey: "Taking initiative does not mean being pushy, obnoxious, or aggressive. It does mean recognizing our responsibility to make things happen."

Les Brown: "Accept responsibility for your life. Know that it is you who will get you where you want to go, no one else."

Denis Waitley: "There are two primary choices in life: to accept conditions as they exist, or accept the responsibility for changing them."

#2: Thou Shall Take Action

Dr. Phil McGraw: “Life Rewards Action. Make Careful Decisions”

Tony Robbins: “Take Massive Action”

Dale Carnegie: The man who goes farthest is generally the one who is willing to do and dare. The sure-thing boat never gets far from shore

Jack Canfield “Everything you want is out there waiting for you to ask. Everything you want also wants you. But you have to take action to get it.”

#3: Thou Shall Have desire.

Napoleon Hill: Desire is the starting point of all achievement.

Muhammad Ali: “Champions aren't made in the gyms. Champions are made from something they have deep inside them—a desire, a dream, a vision.”

Mario Andretti: “Desire is the key to motivation, but it's the determination and commitment to an unrelenting pursuit of your goal -- a commitment to excellence -- that will enable you to attain the success you seek.”

Earl Nightingale: “The key that unlocks energy is 'Desire.' It's also the key to a long and interesting life. If we expect to create any drive, any real force within ourselves, we have to get excited.”

#4: Thou Shall Set Goals.

Tony Robbins: Setting goals is the first step in turning the invisible into the visible.

Aristotle: First, have a definite, clear practical ideal; a goal, an objective. Second, have the necessary means to achieve your ends; wisdom, money, materials, and methods. Third, adjust all your means to that end.

Maxwell Maltz: People who say that life is not worthwhile are really saying that they themselves have no personal goals which are worthwhile. Get yourself a goal worth working for. Better still, get yourself a project. Always have something ahead of you to ''look forward to'' -- to work for and hope for.

Brian Tracy: “Every single life only becomes great when the individual sets upon a goal or goals which they really believe in, which they can really commit themselves to, which they can put their whole heart and soul into.”

Zig Ziglar “A goal properly set is halfway reached.”

#5: Thou Shalt Create a Plan

Unknown: If You Fail to Plan, You Plan to Fail.

Napoleon Hill: When defeat comes, accept it as a signal that your plans are not sound, rebuild those plans, and set sail once more toward your coveted goal.

Mark Victor Hansen: The majority of people meet with failure because they lack the persistence to create new plans to take the place of failed plans.

#6: Thou Shalt Pay the Price

Vince Lombardi: “The price of success is hard work, dedication to the job at hand, and the determination that whether we win or lose, we have applied the best of ourselves to the task at hand.

Orison Swett Marden: Success is the child of drudgery and perseverance. It cannot be coaxed or bribed; pay the price and it is yours.

#7: Thou Shalt Have Persistence

Calvin Coolidge: “Nothing in the world can take the place of persistence. Talent will not; nothing is more common than unsuccessful men with talent. Genius will not; unrewarded genius is almost a proverb. Education will not; the world is full of educated derelicts. Persistence and determination alone are omnipotent.”.

Orison Swett Marden: “There is genius in persistence. It conquers all opposers. It gives confidence. It annihilates obstacles. Everybody believes in a determined man. People know that when he undertakes a thing, the battle is half won, for his rule is to accomplish whatever he sets out to do.”

#8: Thou Shalt Believe

Denis Waitley: “If you believe you can, you probably can. If you believe you won't, you most assuredly won't. Belief is the ignition switch that gets you off the launching pad.”

Anthony Robbins: “If you develop the absolute sense of certainty that powerful beliefs provide, then you can get yourself to accomplish virtually anything.”

Maxwell Maltz: Realizing that our actions, feelings and behavior are the result of our own images and beliefs gives us the level that psychology has always needed for changing personality.

David J. Schwartz: “The size of your success is determined by the size of your belief. Think little goals and expect little achievements. Think big goals and win big success. Remember this, too! Big ideas and big plans are often easier—certainly no more difficult—than small ideas and small plans.”

9 Thou Shalt Learn From Thy Mistakes

Winston Churchill: All men make mistakes, but only wise men learn from their mistakes.

Oprah Winfrey: There are no failures, only lessons to be learned.

John Sculley: I have found that I always learn more from my mistakes than from my successes. If you aren't making some mistakes, you aren't taking enough chances.

10: Thou Shalt Create A Clear Picture of Your Future and Visualize It.

Earl Nightingale: Picture yourself in your minds eye as having already achieved this goal. See yourself doing the things you'll be doing when you've reached your goal.

Stephen Covey: Create a clear, mutual understanding of what needs to be accomplished, focusing on what, not how; results not methods. Spend time. Be patient. Visualize the desired result .

Robert L Schwartz: "The entrepreneur is essentially a visualizer and an actualizer. He can visualize something, and when visualizes it he sees exactly how to make it happen." --

These Ten Commandments of Success are designed to enable you to springboard yourself to success.

Are these the Only Commandments? Absolutely Not.

Can you improve your life without using these? Yes, but it's not easy.

Today's section (Part 6): The Top 10 Self Improvement Experts of all Time.

In order to succeed in life, you must take Action. You've all heard it before. You are probably tired of hearing it.

Some quick questions come to mind. What action should we take? When should we take it? Why should we take it?

Sometimes the answers to these questions don't come immediately. That is why I am a strong believer in testing, and in trying. We all know that there are very successful people out there, who are doing the things we want to do, who have the things we want to have and who are living the life that we want to live.

But we are not sure what to do next.

The only way to know for sure what will work for you is to try things, test different techniques, read different ideas and found out what you will respond best to.

Some ideas along the way:

1 Look at the world as an adventure.
2 Embrace trying different things.
3 Fail Your Way to Success. (The Thomas Edison Philosophy- Keep trying until you succeed)

Each of us in an individual

Maybe YOU can't "Think and Grow Rich"
Maybe YOU can't find your Erroneous Zone.
Maybe YOU didn't learn "EVERYTHING" That You Needed to Learn in Kindergarten.
Maybe YOU don't want to do "ZEN" while maintaining your MOTORCYCLE.
Maybe, YOU don't want to take "THE ROAD LESS TRAVELED".
Maybe YOU can't learn from a RICH DAD or a POOR DAD.

But you'll never know unless you try.

The information from this article is taken directly from the book, "Self Improvement, The Top 101 Experts That Help Us Improve Our Lives.

While writing the book, we analyzed over 1000 Self Improvement Experts, but only had room to include details from the Top 101 Experts in our book. 900 hundred people weren't going to make the cut.

We reviewed our options and identified several "systems" for determining the "Best of the Best." We eventually developed the theory that the more important an expert was, the more that expert would be searched for on the Internet. But with that came questions:

Q. Are the people most searched the most effective Self Improvement Experts for you?
A. Maybe not.

Q. Are the people most searched the wealthiest experts?
A. Maybe not.

Q Are the people most searched the most popular Self Improvement Experts?
A They might not be the most popular, but they are the most popular on the Internet, and the Internet provided us with the most objective venue that we can find.

OUR SYSTEM

The more frequently an expert's name would be typed into search engines on the Internet, like Yahoo and Google, the higher their ranking would be. We did our best to crunch the numbers for the whole universe of Self Improvement experts. The person with the most searches was our #1 expert.

So, who are the Top 10 Self Improvement Experts? They are:

Expert # 1- -Phil McGraw (Dr. Phil)

Dear Sales

Do you think that any of your electronic pest control units would work against New York cockroaches please ?
If so do you think you would be able to supply a USA 110volt system that could deal with the cockroach problem in New York please ?
If you could manufacture a USA 110volt compatible cockroach repeller unit would you be interested in a joint venture sales territory agreement for the USA please ?

I speak as an existing client of yours who purchased a Pest Clear 2000 from you 4 weeks ago

If you could supply a unit to deal with the New York " roach " problem that works as well as your Pest Clear 2000 unit in the UK then perhaps we could all work out a mutually agreeable marketing deal

Whatever you decide thank you for inventing such a valuable product

Dear Doc

Thank goodness you are safe and well
I was a bit lost without you
Getting through life alone can be difficult

Are you in a shared house ?
Have you got your own room ?
Is the other place gone now ?
Are you going to get a job ?

Are you sure you have written that address correctly ?
It says 4312 Manson 4312 Manson Avenue

I had nightmares of you just wandering the streets of Los Angeles carying the Four Sisters

Kind Regards
Yours Sincerely
Mike Poole

Dear Sales

Do you think that any of your electronic pest control units would work against New York cockroaches please ?
If so do you think you would be able to supply a USA 110volt system that could deal with the cockroach problem in New York please ?
If you could manufacture a USA 110volt compatible cockroach repeller unit would you be interested in a joint venture sales territory agreement for the USA please ?

I speak as an existing client of yours who purchased a Pest Clear 2000 from you 4 weeks ago

If you could supply a unit to deal with the New York " roach " problem that works as well as your Pest Clear 2000 unit in the UK then perhaps we could all work out a mutually agreeable marketing deal

Hello Michael,

I may have mentioned that I'm a member of NFO's online consumer research panel. They ask people like us for opinions about existing products and services and about products under development via online surveys. Then they give the feedback to businesses. I've enjoyed being a panel member and thought you might also be interested in checking it out.

In addition to having my opinions heard by America's businesses, NFO membership means automatic entry into their sweepstakes with a grand prize of $10,000. You also get reward points (which can be converted into cash) for joining, for taking surveys, and (you guessed it) for referring other people. NFO (National Family Opinion) has been a leader in the consumer research business for more than 50 years.

Please don't feel obligated to join. I am writing because I thought it might be something that you would enjoy as I have. If you'd like to find out more, go to

This is worth reading. Hopefully we won't need the information but it makes sense.
I can't verify this, but it sounds logical to me. My cousin suggests we should check with the fire dept to see if it's true.

EXTRACT FROM DOUG COPP'S ARTICLE ON THE "TRIANGLE OF LIFE", Edited by Larry Linn for MAA Safety Committee brief on 4/13/04.

My name is Doug Copp. I am the Rescue Chief and Disaster Manager of the American Rescue Team International (ARTI), the world's most experienced rescue team. The information in this article will save lives in an earthquake.

I have crawled inside 875 collapsed buildings, worked with rescue teams from 60 countries, founded rescue teams in several countries, and I am a member of many rescue teams from many countries. I was the United Nations expert in Disaster Mitigation (UNX051 -UNIENET) for two years. I have worked at every major disaster in the world since 1985, except for simultaneous disasters.

In 1996 we made a film which proved my survival methodology to be correct. The Turkish Federal Government, City of Istanbul, University of Istanbul, Case Productions and ARTI cooperated to film this practical, scientific test. We collapsed a school and a home with 20 mannequins inside. Ten mannequins did "duck and cover," and ten mannequins I used in my "triangle of life" survival method. After the simulated earthquake collapse we crawled through the rubble and entered the building to film and document the results. The film, in which I practiced my survival techniques under directly observable, scientific conditions, relevant to building collapse, showed there would have been zero percent survival for those doing duck and cover. There would likely have been 100percent survivability for people using my method of the”triangle of life." This film has been seen by millions of viewers on television in Turkey and the rest of Europe, and it was seen in the USA, Canada and Latin
America on the TV program Real TV.

The first building I ever crawled inside of was a school in Mexico City during the 1985 earthquake. Every child was under their desk. Every child was crushed to the thickness of their bones. They could have survived by lying down next to their desks in the aisles. It was obscene, unnecessary and I wondered why the children were not in the aisles. I didn't at the time know that the children were told to hide under something.

Simply stated, when buildings collapse, the weight of the ceilings falling upon the objects or furniture inside crushes these objects, leaving a space or void next to them. This space is what I call the "triangle of life". The larger the object, the stronger, the less it will compact. The less the object compacts, the larger the void, the greater the probability that the person who is using this void for safety will not be injured. The next time you watch collapsed buildings, on television, count the "triangles" you see formed. They are everywhere. It is the most common shape, you will see, in a collapsed building. They are everywhere. I trained the Fire Department of Trujillo (population 750,000) in how to survive, take care of their families, and to rescue others in earthquakes.

The chief of rescue in the Trujillo Fire Department is a professor at Trujillo University. He accompanied me everywhere. He gave personal testimony: "My name is Roberto Rosales. I am Chief of Rescue in Trujillo.

When I was 11 years old, I was trapped inside of a collapsed building. My entrapment occurred during the earthquake of 1972 that killed 70,000 people. I survived in the "triangle of life" that existed next to my brother's motorcycle. My friends who got under the bed and under desks were crushed to death [he gives more details, names, addresses etc.]...I am the living example of the "triangle of life". My dead friends are the example of "duck and cover"..

TIPS DOUG COPP PROVIDES:

1) Everyone who simply "ducks and covers" WHEN BUILDINGS COLLAPSE is crushed to death --Every time, without exception. People who get under objects, like desks or cars, are always crushed.

2) Cats, dogs and babies all naturally often curl up in the fetal position. You should too in an earthquake. It is a natural safety/survival instinct. You can survive in a smaller void. Get next to an object, next to a sofa, next to a large bulky object that will compress slightly but leave a void next to it.

3) Wooden buildings are the safest type of construction to be in during an earthquake. The reason is simple: the wood is flexible and moves with the force of the earthquake. If the wooden building does collapse, large survival voids are created. Also, the wooden building has less concentrated, crushing weight. Brick buildings will break into individual bricks. Bricks will cause many injuries but less squashed bodies than concrete slabs.

4) If you are in bed during the night and an earthquake occurs, simply roll off the bed. A safe void will exist around the bed. Hotels can achieve a much greater survival rate in earthquakes, simply by posting a sign on the back of the door of every room, telling occupants to lie down on the floor, next to the bottom of the bed during an earthquake.

5) If an earthquake happens while you are watching television and you cannot easily escape by getting out the door or window, then lie down and curl up in the fetal position next to a sofa, or large chair.

6) Everybody who gets under a doorway when buildings collapse is killed. How? If you stand under a doorway and the doorjamb falls forward or backward you will be crushed by the ceiling above. If the door jam falls sideways you will be cut in half by the doorway. In either case, you will be killed!

7) Never go to the stairs. The stairs have a different "moment of frequency" (they swing separately from the main part of the building).The stairs and remainder of the building continuously bump into each other until structural failure of the stairs takes place. The people who get on stairs before they fail are chopped up by the stair treads. They are horribly mutilated. Even if the building doesn’t collapse, stay away from the stairs. The stairs are a likely part of the building to be damaged. Even if the stairs are not collapsed by the earthquake, they may collapse later when overloaded by screaming, fleeing people. They should always be checked for safety, even when the rest of the building is not damaged.

8) Get Near the Outer Walls Of Buildings Or Outside Of Them If Possible - It is much better to be near the outside of the building rather than the interior. The farther inside you are from the outside perimeter of the building the greater the probability that your escape route will be blocked;

9) People inside of their vehicles are crushed when the road above falls in an earthquake and crushes their vehicles; which is exactly what happened with the slabs between the decks of the Nimitz Freeway. The victims of the San Francisco earthquake all stayed inside of their vehicles. They were all killed. They could have easily survived by getting out and sitting or lying next to their vehicles, says the author. Everyone killed would have survived if they had been able to get out of their cars and sit or lie next to them. All the crushed cars had voids 3 feet high next to them, except for the cars that had columns fall directly across them.

10) I discovered, while crawling inside of collapsed newspaper offices and other offices with a lot of paper, that paper does not compact. Large voids are found surrounding stacks of paper.

Getting Started Tracing Your Jewish Roots
A Five-minute Guide to Jewish Genealogical Research

Jewish genealogy. Two major events shaped Jewish life of the past two hundred years: migration and the Holocaust. Few Jews today live where their ancestors lived a century or two ago. As a result many Jews believe they cannot trace their family roots because:

a.. My family name was changed (at Ellis Island)
b.. No one in my family knows about the past

c.. No one is left alive to tell me about my family's past d.. All the records were destroyed in the Holocaust
e.. My town was wiped off the face of the map

These statements are myths. Jewish genealogy today is highly organized and therefore help is available to dispel these myths. There are many resources available to help you trace your Jewish family heritage.

a.. Databases exist on the Internet to get you started b.. There are more than 70 genealogical societies throughout the world where you can meet other persons tracing their roots c.. There are books on Jewish genealogy; Avotaynu is the leading supplier of these books
d.. There is a strong presence of Jewish genealogy on the Internet

Getting Started In Jewish Genealogy

Jewish Genealogy Databases on the Internet

JewishGen Family Finder. The most valuable database to get you started is the JewishGen Family Finder (JGFF). It is a list of surnames and towns being researched by more than 45,000 Jewish genealogists throughout the world. Go to the JGFF site and see if any other genealogists are researching your family name. In most cases, it will give you the person's e-mail address so you can contact the individual and jump start your research. If you know the town from which your family came, also use JGFF to see if others are researching your town. A word of caution before using JGFF. The same name can be spelled different ways in different countries, so when you use JGFF change the SEARCH TYPE from Standard to the Daitch-Mokotoff Soundex option.

Consolidated Jewish Surname Index. The next step is to locate reference material that contains information about your family name. Go to the Consolidated Jewish Surname Index and key in your family name. It will make you aware of up to 28 different sources of information that contain your family name. When the information is displayed by CJSI you will only see codes next to your name. Scroll the screen down to see what these codes represent and they will link to other places on the Web that will give you a more detailed description of the source and how to access the source (an Internet database, a reference book, etc). Be sure to research all spelling variants of your name that are shown.

Family Tree of the Jewish People. The final Internet database worth looking at is the Family Tree of the Jewish People. This is a database of family trees that have been submitted by Jewish genealogists. It contains nearly 1 million individuals. Members of your family may already be on other researcher's family tree and this database will link you up with the researcher.

Jewish Genealogical Societies

There are some 80 Jewish genealogical societies in the world. If there is one in your area, we strongly recommend that you join the society. At their meetings you will be able to discuss your research with experts that can point you in the right direction. A complete list of societies is available at http://www.jewishgen.org/ajgs

Books, Maps, Microfiche, Videos

The best beginner's guide to Jewish genealogy is Discovering Your Jewish Ancestors, which can be purchased through Avotaynu. Avotaynu is the leading supplier of works of interest to Jewish researchers. We have published books on names, towns, getting started, and a host of other topics. Browse our web site to see what we offer. We have made it simple to order our products with a shopping cart system. Start at the Avotaynu Home Page and browse our Book, Journal, Microfiche, Maps, Other books and CD-ROM Web pages. If you are unsure what to buy, click the Recommendations button to see what we recommend.

JewishGen

We saved the best for last. It is also the one area on the Web where you can spend hours looking at the wealth of information available. JewishGen supports the JewishGen Family Finder and Family Tree of the Jewish People previously mentioned. But there is much, much more. Subscribe to their Discussion Group and you can post a personal message that will be read within 24 hours by more than 5,000 Jewish genealogists throughout the world. Maybe one of them can answer your query. Go into the Discussion Group archives to see if any questions have been asked (it goes back to 1993) that may be of interest to you. The JewishGen environment is too huge to describe here. Just go to the JewishGen Home Page and browse, and browse and browse.

Good luck in your research!

IMPORTANT NOTE:
Please do not contact Avotaynu with questions about your personal research. We are not geared to handle inquiries of that nature. Instead, contact your local Jewish genealogical society or post a message on the JewishGen Discussion Group.

(Sarah Abravanel Eskenazi, Dec.)

ALITREYA CON MWEZ: (Spaghetti with walnuts). Salonika. This one is so easy it deserves a preface. It is a side dish. You can used left over spaghetti or thin noodles that has no sauce on it. Or of course, you can make spaghetti for this dish.

Spaghetti (in what ever amount you have on hand.
Oil
1/2 cup finely chopped walnuts (more if you like)
Sugar (to taste)

Put cold left over spaghetti in a bowl, moisten with oil. Add about 1 table spoon of sugar. Add nuts and mix. Serve cold or heated.

FASOUILA: (String beans) (From Turkey)

1 LB. fresh string beans
3 peeled tomatoes (or #2 canned tomatoes)
1 tsp. salt
2tbsp. vegetable oil
1/2 cup water

Remove tips of string beans and peel strings along the sides. Cut and slice french style. Wash and place in sauce pan. Add tomatoes, salt, oil and water. Cook in covered sauce pan over medium heat for approximately 20 minutes or until tender. Serves 4 - 6

BERENJENAS AHOBADAS: (Egg plant stew) (From Turkey)

1 medium peeled eggplant
1/4 cups oil
2 chopped onions
1 LB. stewing beef or lamb
1 LB. fresh, peeled tomatoes (or #303 can stewed tomatoes)
1tsp. salt
1/2 tsp. pepper

Pre cook beef or lamb as in preparing a stew. Fry onions in oil until golden brown. Add diced tomatoes. Cut egg plant into 1 inch cubes and add to mixture. Cover and simmer for 15 minutes or until tender. Add the vegetable mixture to the meat and simmer together. (Serves 4-6)

ARROS CON PINONES: (Rice with Pine Nuts) (From Turkey)

1 cup rice
1 cup chopped onion
Oil
1 cup water
1 tsp. salt (to taste)
1/4 cup pine nuts

Soak rice for 20 minutes in salted water. Sauté onion and pine nuts in oil. Drain rice and add to onion mixture. Salt to taste. Cook until water is absorbed. Cover and lower flame for about 10 minutes. (Serves 4)

ARROS CON POLLO: (Rice with Chicken)

1 fryer, quartered or cut up even smaller
1 large chopped onion
1/2 green bell pepper cut into strips
salt and pepper
2 cloves of garlic or garlic powder
powdered oregano
powdered cumin
1/2 cup of oil
1 cup tomato sauce
1/2 cup stuffed green olives
1 cup wine
3 cups water
1/2 tsp. saffron
2 chicken bouillon cubes
1 1/2 cups long grain rice (rinsed)
1 cup canned each of green peas, asparagus spears, and pimento strips

Sauté chicken, onions, green pepper, salt, garlic and all powdered seasoning (except saffron) in oil. Add tomato sauce, olives and wine, simmer slowly. Add water and saffron. Let the mixture again come to a boil. Add bouillon cubes, and boil for 5 minutes. Stir in rice and bring the mixture to a boil again. Place in a pan and in a 400 degree oven for 40 minutes or until all water is absorbed. When ready to serve, add green peas and toss lightly. Place in serving dish and garnish with green asparagus spears and red pimento strips. Serves 6.

TRAVADOS (Pastry filled with almonds and honey and dipped in syrup). Ladino cookies submitted by Ms. Miriam Kurzwell from Israel. A Rosh Hashana recipe from her grandmother. For metric measures contact Ms. Kurzwell at miriamk@brorhail.org.il Also from my deceased mother in law, Sarah Abravanel Eskenazi) Measures here are American.

Dough:

200gr margarine (or1 cup oil)
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 cup water
1 egg
1/2 tsp baking soda
5 cups sifted flour (approximate)

Mix the ingredients to form a smooth medium dough. Roll the dough on a floured surface to 1/2 cm. thickness.

Filling:

1 1/2 cup ground almonds
! 1/2 cup ground walnuts
1/2 cup sugar

4 tbsp honey
1/2 cup water
1/2 tsp cinnamon
1/2 tsp cloves

Mix the filling ingredients together. For a sweeter filling, use 1 tsp cinnamon instead of cloves). Cut the dough into rounds (2 to 2 1/2 inches across) and place a small amount of filling on each round. Pinch edges together over the filling. Place on a cookie sheet lined with wax paper and bake about 30 minutes at 350F or until browned. Using this recipe you should have about 30 cookies.

Syrup:

1 cup sugar
3 tbsp. honey
1 1/2 cups water

Boil ingredients until sticky. Place Travados into syrup for about 1/2 minutes. Remove from syrup. You may wish to sprinkle Travados with toasted sesame seeds while sticky. Allow to cool. Store in closed box when cool. May be frozen.

CHICKEN PILAU: By Martha Matthews snoopy@cew.wwia.net
Chicken cut up in small cubes
1/2 cup rice
Chicken broth, 1 can
Raisins 1 oz
Grated carrots, 1 ounce
1 small chopped onion
1 tbsp flour
1 tsp salt
1tsp pepper Oil (corn or olive, preferably)

Roll chicken in small amount of flour. Heat oil in skillet and brown the chicken. In a pan, bring the chicken broth to a boil, then reduce heat and add rice, onions, carrots, raisins, salt and pepper. Turn off the skillet containing the chicken and add those chicken cubes to the chicken broth. Cover and heat the pilau over a medium flame until rice is done.

CHERRY CHICKEN PILAU: From Martha Matthews <snoppy@cew.wwia.net Martha says if you don't like this one, there is something wrong with you. What do I know? I am neither Sephardic nor the cook. I will let my wife cook it up.

The Chicken Part:
2 pds Cubed chicken
1/4 tsp turmeric
1/2 tsp salt
1/2 tsp pepper
2 tsp corn oil
1 cup water

The Cherry Pilau Part:
1 cup rice
2 1/4 cups water
1/4 tsp turmeric
3 tbsp corn oil
1 tsp corn oil
1 potato pealed and sliced

Preparing the rice: Boil two cups of water in a sauce pan, add rice. Reduce heat to medium until rice is tender. In a pan add the turmeric, 1/4 cup water, 3 tbsp oil. Pour the rice over the potato and cook over low heat. Cover the pan. If possible, let a crust form on the bottom of the rice. You may want to add a little oil to the top of the rice and potato as they cook on the low heat. Cook for about 20 minutes over low heat or until done.

Preparing the chicken: Place onion, oil, chicken, water, salt, pepper, turmeric in a medium to large saucepan. Cover and cook over low heat for about 20 minutes. Stir to prevent burning. Cook until chicken is done. Set aside temporarily.

Preparing theCherry pilau: Mix the cherry pilau ingredients together in a saucepan. Bring to a boil, then quickly reduce heat to simmer only. Simmer for 3 minutes.

You may serve the 3 parts separately. Martha mixes the parts together and serves.

PATATAS KAVAKADAS: (Beef Stuffed Potatoes): Los Turkos trace this recipe to 15th century Spain.

2 lb. medium potatoes (about 8), peeled.
1 lb. ground beef.
1 thick slice of white bread, softened in water, squeezed dry (3/4 cup)
1 tsp. salt
1/4 tsp. pepper.
Flour for dredging.
2 eggs, beaten.
1/4 cup corn or sunflower oil for pan-frying.
2 cups homemade chicken broth.

Cut the potatoes lengthwise into halves and scoop out the pulp, leaving a firm wall about 1/4 inch thick.

Perpare the stuffing by mixing the beef, bread, salt,and pepper together. Fill the potatoes shell with about 2 tablespoons of the mixture. Dredge them all over with flour and them dip them into the beaten eggs.

Heat the oil in a skillet and brown the potatoes over moderate heat for 3 minutes. Put the potatoes in a pan and pour the chicken broth over them. Bring to a boil, cover the pan, and simmer over low heat for 1/2 hour.

Serve warm with the sauce. Serves 8 with other dishes.

HAMENTASCHEN

4 cups sifted flour
1 lb prunes, chopped fine
1/2 cup granulated sugar
2 tsp baking powder
2 tbs apricot jam
1 tbs grated orange rind
1/2 cup granulated sugar
1/2 tsp salt
1 tsp cinnamon
4 eggs
1/2 cup salad oil
1/2 cup finely chopped nuts
1/4 cup orange juice

Sift flour with sugar, baking powder, orange rind and salt. Make a well in the center of the dry ingredients; break eggs into the well. Add oil and mix well. Gradually add orange juice, stirring until all the juice is absorbed. Knead dought until smooth and satiny. Shape into balls about 1 1/2 inches in diameter. Roll out on well floured surface to 1/8 inch thickness. Cut into small rounds. Mix ingredients for filling. Place small amount of filling on each round. Pinch edges together over filling. Place on greased baking sheet. Bake at 350 degrees for about 30 minutes or until nicely browned. Makes 5 to 6 dozen.

TEZPISHTI (A Passover nut cake in Syrup) (From Turkey)

Syrup:
2 cups sugar
2 cups water
2 tsp lemon juice

Cake:
5 eggs
1 cup sugar
1/4 cup corn or sunflower oil
Juice and grated rind of 1 orange
2 tsp ground cinnamon
1 1/4 cup Passover fine matzoh cake meal
1 1/4 cup finely chopped blanched almonds

The syrup: Mix the sugar and water together in a pan and bring to a boil. Add the lemon juice and simmer over low heat for ten minutes. Cool the syrup.

The cake: Beat the eggs until frothy. Add the sugar and continue to beat until golden in color and well mixed. Add all the other cake ingredients, one at a time and stur them into the batter. Pour into an oiled and floured cake pan 13 x 9 x 2 and bake at 350 degrees for 30 minutes. Remove the cake.

Remove the cake from the oven and pour the cooled syrup over it. Let stand for 2 hours allowing the syrup to be absorbed.

PASSOVER KUGEL.

3 cups farfel
1 tsp. Cinnamon
5 eggs, separated
4 tbs sugar
1 stick margarine (melted) (1/4 pound)
2 cups applesauce
1 tsp. salt
1 cup crushed pineapple

Pour hot water over farfel, soak and drain. Use fruit juice instead of water if desired. Beat egg yolks and seasoning. Add margarine to farfel. Fold in all ingredients, egg whites last. Sprinkle with cinnamon and sugar. Place into greased 9" x 13" pan. Bake at 350 degrees (F) for 45 minutes.

KINGS CAKE (Torta de los Reyes)

5 eggs
1 1/2 cups sugar
2 1/2 cups finely ground unblanched almonds

1/3 matso meal
1 tsp. ground cinnamon
1/4 ground cloves
2 tbs. grated orange rind.

Preheat oven to 350 degrees (F). Spray a 9 inch spring-form cake pan with nonstick vegetable spray. In a large bowl, whist the eggs and sugar. Fold in the ground almonds, matzo meal, cinnamon, cloves, and orange rind. Pour into prepared cake pan and bake in preheated oven for 50 minutes or until a toothpick inserted in the center comes out clean. Cool in pan. Loosen around the edges with a spatula and remove from pan. Cut into wedges and serve. Makes 12 to 15 servings.

BOREKAS DE POTLEJON

Use your favorite dough recipe. The filling is provided below:
2 tbs. oil
1 medium egg plant, peeled and cut into small cubes
2 medium onions with diced hot peppers to taste
1/2 cup parmesan cheese
1 large can of diced tomatoes or 8 - 9 Roma tomatoes.

Heat oil in large pan. Saute onions, eggplant, and hot peppers until soft. Add tomatoes. Simmer for 2 to 3 hours until all liquid has evaporated. Bake at 350 degrees (F) for 30 - 40 minutes.

PITA DE SPINACHE

Into a large bowl mix the following:
2 packages of thawed forzen chopped spinach (squeeze out the liquid)
24 oz. low fat cottage cheese
4 oz. grated sharp cheddar cheese
4 eggs

Spray a vegetable spray on the bottom of a 13'' x 9" pan. Line the bottom of the pan with wet matzo. Add filling. Cover the top with wet matzo and push down into the filling. Add 1 tbs of oil evenly over the top matzos. (Should you like, you may also add chopped walnuts over the top. Cover with foil and bake at 350 degrees (f) for 40 minutes. Remove foil and continue baking for another 35 minutes. (You may also add chopped scallions and dill to the filling.)

AVICAS (Sephardic White Bean and Beef Soup)

1 lb. (about 2 1/2 cups) dried navy or other white beans, or 2 cups dried Garbanzos (chick peas)
1/4 cup olive or vegetable oil
2 large yellow onions or leeks, chopped (about 1 1/2 cups)
7 cups cold water
4 cups (2 lb.) peeled, seeded and chopped tomatoes
1 cup tomato sauce or 1/4 cup tomato paste
1 1/2 lb. beef chuck or short ribs, cut into 2 inch pieces
3 tbs. chopped fresh parsley
1 1/2 tsp. salt
ground black pepper to taste.

Cover the beans with water. Bring to a boil. Reduce the heat to low and simmer for 1 hour. Meanwhile, heat the oil in a large pot over medium heat. Add the onionss or leeks and saute until golden in color. Add the meat and the 7 cups of water. Bring to a boil, reduce heat to low and simmer, skimming occasionally for 45 minutes. Add the beans and tomatoes, tomato sauce or paste. Cover the pot and simmer until the meat and beans are very tender -- at least 3 hours. Stir in parsley, salt and pepper. Serve with pita or other flat bread and lemon wedges.

TURSHI (Middle East Pickeled Vegetables)

Vegetables
2 lb small cucumbers

2 lb halved or quartered green tomatoes
2 lb green peppers, seeded and sliced
2 lb carrots, sliced or cut into cubes
2 lb celery sliced
2 lb turnips quartered
2 lb blanched whole okra
1 cauliflower, cut into florets
1 head green cabbage, cut into chunks

Pickling liquid
4 to 5 garlic cloves, halved
1 tbs pickling spices (or sprinkle of red hot pepper flakes, optional)
4 cups water
1/2 cup distilled white or cider vinegar.
3 tbs kosher salt

Fill sterilized wide mouth jars with the vegetables and divide the pickling liquid between all the jars. Bring the water to a boil in a large nonreactive sauce pan over medium heat. (Do not use iron, copper or brass.) Add the vinegar and salt and stir with a wooden spoon until the salt desolves. Add the hot liquid to the jars. Let cool and discard the garlic. Close the jars tightly. For crisp vegetables , refrigerate immediately and let sit 24 hours. For softer vegetables, leave in a cool , dark place for 2 days, then refrigerate.

SAQU (Sephardic Eggplant and Meat Casserole)

2 medium eggplants (about 1 1/2 lb. each) peeled and cut crosswise into 1/2 inch thick.
About 2 tbs. Kosher salt.
Olive or vegetable oil for frying

Meat filling:
1 medium yellow onion, chopped (about 1/2 cup)
3 tbs. olive or vegetable oil
1 clove garlic, minced
1 lb. ground beef or lamb
2 large eggs, lightly beaten
1/2 cup chopped fresh parsley
About 1 tsp. salt
ground black pepper to taste

Place the eggplant in a colander. Sprinkle with the Kosher salt and let stand for 1 hour. Rinse the the eggplant slices with water and press between several layers of paper towels until it feels firm.

Preheat oven to 350 degrees F. Grease a 13" x 9" baking dish.

Heat a thin layer of oil in a large skillet over medium heat. In batches, lightly brown the eggplant sliceson both sides, 2 to 3 minutes per side. Set aside.

To make the meat filling, heat the3 tbs.of oil .Place the oil in a large skillet over medium heat. Add the onion and and garlic and saute until soft and translucent, 5 to 10 minutes. Add the meat and cook, stirring frequently until the meat loses its red color, about 5 minutes. Drain off the excess fat. Remove from the heat and stir in the eggs, parsely, salt and pepper.

Arrange alternate layers of the eggplant and meat in the prepared dish., beginning and ending with the eggplant.

Bake until golden brown and heated through about 45 minutes. Let the casserole stand for10 minutes before slicing.

(Sarah Abravanel Eskenazi, Dec.)

ALITREYA CON MWEZ : (Spaghetti with walnuts). Salonika. This one is so easy it deserves a preface. It is a side dish. You can used left over spaghetti or thin noodles that has no sauce on it. Or of course, you can make spaghetti for this dish.

Spaghetti (in what ever amount you have on hand.
Oil
1/2 cup finely chopped walnuts (more if you like)
Sugar (to taste)

Put cold left over spaghetti in a bowl, moisten with oil. Add about

1 table spoon of sugar. Add nuts and mix. Serve cold or heated.

FASOUILA: (String beans) (From Turkey)

1 LB. fresh string beans
3 peeled tomatoes (or #2 canned tomatoes)
1 tsp. salt
2tbsp. vegetable oil
1/2 cup water

Remove tips of string beans and peel strings along the sides. Cut and slice french style. Wash and place in sauce pan. Add tomatoes, salt, oil and water. Cook in covered sauce pan over medium heat for approximately 20 minutes or until tender. Serves 4 - 6

1 medium peeled eggplant
1/4 cups oil
2 chopped onions
1 LB. stewing beef or lamb
1 LB. fresh, peeled tomatoes (or #303 can stewed tomatoes)
1tsp. salt
1/2 tsp. pepper

Pre cook beef or lamb as in preparing a stew. Fry onions in oil until golden brown. Add diced tomatoes. Cut egg plant into 1 inch cubes and add to mixture. Cover and simmer for 15 minutes or until tender. Add the vegetable mixture to the meat and simmer together. (Serves 4-6)

ARROS CON PINONES : (Rice with Pine Nuts) (From Turkey)

1 cup rice
1 cup chopped onion
Oil
1 cup water
1 tsp. salt (to taste)
1/4 cup pine nuts

1/2 cup stuffed green olives
1 cup wine
3 cups water
1/2 tsp. saffron
2 chicken bouillon cubes
1 1/2 cups long grain rice (rinsed)
1 cup canned each of green peas, asparagus spears, and pimento strips

Sauté chicken, onions, green pepper, salt, garlic and all powdered seasoning (except saffron) in oil. Add tomato sauce, olives and wine, simmer slowly. Add water and saffron. Let the mixture again come to a boil. Add bouillon cubes, and boil for 5 minutes. Stir in rice and bring the mixture to a boil again. Place in a pan and in a 400 degree oven for 40 minutes or until all water is absorbed. When ready to serve, add green peas and toss lightly. Place in serving dish and garnish with green asparagus spears and red pimento strips. Serves 6.

TRAVADOS (Pastry filled with almonds and honey and dipped in syrup). Ladino cookies submitted by Ms. Miriam Kurzwell from Israel. A Rosh Hashana recipe from her grandmother. For metric measures contact Ms. Kurzwell at miriamk@brorhail.org.il Also from my deceased mother in law, Sarah Abravanel Eskenazi) Measures here are American.

Dough:

200gr margarine (or1 cup oil)
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 cup water
1 egg
1/2 tsp baking soda
5 cups sifted flour (approximate)

Mix the ingredients to form a smooth medium dough. Roll the dough on a floured surface to 1/2 cm. thickness.

Filling:

1 1/2 cup ground almonds
! 1/2 cup ground walnuts
1/2 cup sugar
4 tbsp honey
1/2 cup water
1/2 tsp cinnamon
1/2 tsp cloves

Mix the filling ingredients together. For a sweeter filling, use 1 tsp cinnamon instead of cloves). Cut the dough into rounds (2 to 2 1/2 inches across) and place a small amount of filling on each round. Pinch edges together over the filling. Place on a cookie sheet lined with wax paper and bake about 30 minutes at 350F or until browned. Using this recipe you should have about 30 cookies.

Syrup:

1 cup sugar
3 tbsp. honey
1 1/2 cups water

Boil ingredients until sticky. Place Travados into syrup for about 1/2 minutes. Remove from syrup. You may wish to sprinkle Travados with toasted sesame seeds while sticky. Allow to cool. Store in closed box when cool. May be frozen.

CHICKEN PILAU : By Martha Matthews snoopy@cew.wwia.net
Chicken cut up in small cubes
1/2 cup rice
Chicken broth, 1 can
Raisins 1 oz
Grated carrots, 1 ounce
1 small chopped onion
1 tbsp flour
1 tsp salt
1tsp pepper Oil (corn or olive, preferably)

Roll chicken in small amount of flour. Heat oil in skillet and brown the chicken. In a pan, bring the chicken broth to a boil, then reduce heat and add rice, onions, carrots, raisins, salt and pepper. Turn off the skillet containing the chicken and add those chicken cubes to the chicken broth. Cover and heat the pilau over a medium flame until rice is done.

CHERRY CHICKEN PILAU: From Martha Matthews <snoppy@cew.wwia.net
Martha says if you don't like this one, there is something wrong with you. What do I know? I am neither Sephardic nor the cook. I will let my wife cook it up.

The Chicken Part:
2 pds Cubed chicken
1/4 tsp turmeric
1/2 tsp salt
1/2 tsp pepper
2 tsp corn oil
1 cup water

The Cherry Pilau Part:
1 cup rice
2 1/4 cups water
1/4 tsp turmeric
3 tbsp corn oil
1 tsp corn oil
1 potato pealed and sliced

Preparing the rice: Boil two cups of water in a sauce pan, add rice. Reduce heat to medium until rice is tender. In a pan add the turmeric, 1/4 cup water, 3 tbsp oil. Pour the rice over the potato and cook over low heat. Cover the pan. If possible, let a crust form on the bottom of the rice. You may want to add a little oil to the top of the rice and potato as they cook on the low heat. Cook for about 20 minutes over low heat or until done.

Preparing the chicken: Place onion, oil, chicken, water, salt, pepper, turmeric in a medium to large saucepan. Cover and cook over low heat for about 20 minutes. Stir to prevent burning. Cook until chicken is done. Set aside temporarily.

Preparing theCherry pilau: Mix the cherry pilau ingredients together in a saucepan. Bring to a boil, then quickly reduce heat to simmer only.

Simmer for 3 minutes.

You may serve the 3 parts separately. Martha mixes the parts together and serves.

PATATAS KAVAKADAS: (Beef Stuffed Potatoes): Los Turkos trace this recipe to 15th century Spain.

2 lb. medium potatoes (about 8), peeled.
1 lb. ground beef.
1 thick slice of white bread, softened in water, squeezed dry (3/4 cup)
1 tsp. salt
1/4 tsp. pepper.
Flour for dredging.
2 eggs, beaten.
1/4 cup corn or sunflower oil for pan-frying.
2 cups homemade chicken broth.

Cut the potatoes lengthwise into halves and scoop out the pulp, leaving a firm wall about 1/4 inch thick.

Perpare the stuffing by mixing the beef, bread, salt,and pepper together. Fill the potatoes shell with about 2 tablespoons of the mixture. Dredge them all over with flour and them dip them into the beaten eggs.

Heat the oil in a skillet and brown the potatoes over moderate heat for 3 minutes. Put the potatoes in a pan and pour the chicken broth over them. Bring to a boil, cover the pan, and simmer over low heat for 1/2 hour.

Serve warm with the sauce. Serves 8 with other dishes.

HAMENTASCHEN

4 cups sifted flour
1 lb prunes, chopped fine
1/2 cup granulated sugar
2 tsp baking powder
2 tbs apricot jam
1 tbs grated orange rind
1/2 cup granulated sugar
1/2 tsp salt
1 tsp cinnamon
4 eggs
1/2 cup salad oil
1/2 cup finely chopped nuts
1/4 cup orange juice

Sift flour with sugar, baking powder, orange rind and salt. Make a well in the center of the dry ingredients; break eggs into the well. Add oil and mix well. Gradually add orange juice, stirring until all the juice is absorbed. Knead dought until smooth and satiny. Shape into balls about 1 1/2 inches in diameter. Roll out on well floured surface to 1/8 inch thickness. Cut into small rounds. Mix ingredients for filling. Place small amount of filling on each round. Pinch edges together over filling. Place on greased baking sheet. Bake at 350 degrees for about 30 minutes or until nicely browned. Makes 5 to 6 dozen.

Preheat oven to 350 degrees (F). Spray a 9 inch spring-form cake pan with nonstick vegetable spray. In a large bowl, whist the eggs and sugar. Fold in the ground almonds, matzo meal, cinnamon, cloves, and orange rind. Pour into prepared cake pan and bake in preheated oven for 50 minutes or until a toothpick inserted in the center comes out clean. Cool in pan. Loosen around the edges with a spatula and remove from pan. Cut into wedges and serve. Makes 12 to 15 servings.

BOREKAS DE POTLEJON

Use your favorite dough recipe. The filling is provided below:
2 tbs. oil
1 medium egg plant, peeled and cut into small cubes
2 medium onions with diced hot peppers to taste
1/2 cup parmesan cheese
1 large can of diced tomatoes or 8 - 9 Roma tomatoes.

Heat oil in large pan. Saute onions, eggplant, and hot peppers until soft. Add tomatoes. Simmer for 2 to 3 hours until all liquid has evaporated. Bake at 350 degrees (F) for 30 - 40 minutes.

PITA DE SPINACHE

Into a large bowl mix the following:
2 packages of thawed forzen chopped spinach (squeeze out the liquid)
24 oz. low fat cottage cheese
4 oz. grated sharp cheddar cheese
4 eggs

Spray a vegetable spray on the bottom of a 13'' x 9" pan. Line the bottom of the pan with wet matzo. Add filling. Cover the top with wet matzo and push down into the filling. Add 1 tbs of oil evenly over the top matzos. (Should you like, you may also add chopped walnuts over the top. Cover with foil and bake at 350 degrees (f) for 40 minutes. Remove foil and continue baking for another 35 minutes. (You may also add chopped scallions and dill to the filling.)

AVICAS (Sephardic White Bean and Beef Soup)

1 lb. (about 2 1/2 cups) dried navy or other white beans, or 2 cups dried Garbanzos (chick peas)
1/4 cup olive or vegetable oil
2 large yellow onions or leeks, chopped (about 1 1/2 cups)
7 cups cold water
4 cups (2 lb.) peeled, seeded and chopped tomatoes
1 cup tomato sauce or 1/4 cup tomato paste
1 1/2 lb. beef chuck or short ribs, cut into 2 inch pieces
3 tbs. chopped fresh parsley
1 1/2 tsp. salt
ground black pepper to taste.

Cover the beans with water. Bring to a boil. Reduce the heat to low and simmer for 1 hour. Meanwhile, heat the oil in a large pot over medium heat. Add the onionss or leeks and saute until golden in color. Add the meat and the 7 cups of water. Bring to a boil, reduce heat to low and simmer, skimming occasionally for 45 minutes. Add the beans and tomatoes, tomato sauce or paste. Cover the pot and simmer until the meat and beans are very tender -- at least 3 hours. Stir in parsley, salt and pepper. Serve with pita or other flat bread and lemon wedges.

TURSHI (Middle East Pickeled Vegetables)

Vegetables
2 lb small cucumbers
2 lb halved or quartered green tomatoes
2 lb green peppers, seeded and sliced
2 lb carrots, sliced or cut into cubes
2 lb celery sliced
2 lb turnips quartered
2 lb blanched whole okra
1 cauliflower, cut into florets
1 head green cabbage, cut into chunks

Pickling liquid
4 to 5 garlic cloves, halved
1 tbs pickling spices (or sprinkle of red hot pepper flakes, optional)
4 cups water
1/2 cup distilled white or cider vinegar.
3 tbs kosher salt

Fill sterilized wide mouth jars with the vegetables and divide the pickling liquid between all the jars. Bring the water to a boil in a large nonreactive sauce pan over medium heat. (Do not use iron, copper or brass.) Add the vinegar and salt and stir with a wooden spoon until the salt desolves. Add the hot liquid to the jars. Let cool and discard the garlic. Close the jars tightly. For crisp vegetables , refrigerate immediately and let sit 24 hours. For softer vegetables, leave in a cool , dark place for 2 days, then refrigerate.

SAQU (Sephardic Eggplant and Meat Casserole)

2 medium eggplants (about 1 1/2 lb. each) peeled and cut crosswise into 1/2 inch thick.
About 2 tbs. Kosher salt.

(Sarah Abravanel Eskenazi, Dec.)

ALITREYA CON MWEZ: (Spaghetti with walnuts). Salonika. This one is so easy it deserves a preface. It is a side dish. You can used left over spaghetti or thin noodles that has no sauce on it. Or of course, you can make spaghetti for this dish.

Spaghetti (in what ever amount you have on hand.
Oil
1/2 cup finely chopped walnuts (more if you like)
Sugar (to taste)

Put cold left over spaghetti in a bowl, moisten with oil. Add about 1 table spoon of sugar. Add nuts and mix. Serve cold or heated.

FASOUILA: (String beans) (From Turkey)

1 LB. fresh string beans
3 peeled tomatoes (or #2 canned tomatoes)
1 tsp. salt
2tbsp. vegetable oil
1/2 cup water

Remove tips of string beans and peel strings along the sides. Cut and slice french style. Wash and place in sauce pan. Add tomatoes, salt, oil and water. Cook in covered sauce pan over medium heat for approximately 20 minutes or until tender. Serves 4 - 6

1 medium peeled eggplant
1/4 cups oil
2 chopped onions
1 LB. stewing beef or lamb
1 LB. fresh, peeled tomatoes (or #303 can stewed tomatoes)
1tsp. salt
1/2 tsp. pepper

Pre cook beef or lamb as in preparing a stew. Fry onions in oil until golden brown. Add diced tomatoes. Cut egg plant into 1 inch cubes and add to mixture. Cover and simmer for 15 minutes or until tender. Add the vegetable mixture to the meat and simmer together. (Serves 4-6)

ARROS CON PINONES: (Rice with Pine Nuts) (From Turkey)

1 cup rice
1 cup chopped onion
Oil
1 cup water
1 tsp. salt (to taste)
1/4 cup pine nuts

Soak rice for 20 minutes in salted water. Sauté onion and pine nuts in oil. Drain rice and add to onion mixture. Salt to taste. Cook until water is absorbed. Cover and lower flame for about 10 minutes. (Serves 4)

ARROS CON POLLO: (Rice with Chicken)

1 fryer, quartered or cut up even smaller

1 large chopped onion
1/2 green bell pepper cut into strips
salt and pepper
2 cloves of garlic or garlic powder
powdered oregano
powdered cumin
1/2 cup of oil
1 cup tomato sauce
1/2 cup stuffed green olives
1 cup wine
3 cups water
1/2 tsp. saffron
2 chicken bouillon cubes
1 1/2 cups long grain rice (rinsed)
1 cup canned each of green peas, asparagus spears, and pimento strips

Sauté chicken, onions, green pepper, salt, garlic and all powdered seasoning (except saffron) in oil. Add tomato sauce, olives and wine, simmer slowly. Add water and saffron. Let the mixture again come to a boil. Add bouillon cubes, and boil for 5 minutes. Stir in rice and bring the mixture to a boil again. Place in a pan and in a 400 degree oven for 40 minutes or until all water is absorbed. When ready to serve, add green peas and toss lightly. Place in serving dish and garnish with green asparagus spears and red pimento strips. Serves 6.

TRAVADOS (Pastry filled with almonds and honey and dipped in syrup). Ladino cookies submitted by Ms. Miriam Kurzwell from Israel. A Rosh Hashana recipe from her grandmother. For metric measures contact Ms. Kurzwell at miriamk@brorhail.org.il Also from my deceased mother in law, Sarah Abravanel Eskenazi) Measures here are American.

Dough:

200gr margarine (or1 cup oil)
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 cup water
1 egg
1/2 tsp baking soda
5 cups sifted flour (approximate)

Mix the ingredients to form a smooth medium dough. Roll the dough on a floured surface to 1/2 cm. thickness.

Filling:

1 1/2 cup ground almonds
! 1/2 cup ground walnuts
1/2 cup sugar
4 tbsp honey
1/2 cup water
1/2 tsp cinnamon
1/2 tsp cloves

Mix the filling ingredients together. For a sweeter filling, use 1 tsp cinnamon instead of cloves). Cut the dough into rounds (2 to 2 1/2 inches across) and place a small amount of filling on each round. Pinch edges together over the filling. Place on a cookie sheet lined with wax paper and bake about 30 minutes at 350F or until browned. Using this recipe you should have about 30 cookies.

Syrup:

1 cup sugar
3 tbsp. honey
1 1/2 cups water

Boil ingredients until sticky. Place Travados into syrup for about 1/2 minutes. Remove from syrup. You may wish to sprinkle Travados with toasted sesame seeds while sticky. Allow to cool. Store in closed box when cool. May be frozen.

BINUELOS (MATZO BALLS) (These matzo balls are made from sheet matzos, not matzo meal.)

6 eggs
1 box of sheet matzo
cooking oil

Soak matzo in pan of water for 1/2 hour. Drain water from pan. Squeeze water from matzo mixture. Add the 6 eggs to the soaked matzo, mixing well. Heat 1 inch of oil in a fry pan. Form matzo balls by hand and place in hot oil. Keep rolling the balls of matzo to get uniformly brown. You will also have to keep adding oil. When the matzo ball in browned, remove from fry pan and drain on paper towel. When ready to eat, cover with honey to taste. Great for passover breakfast, and desert.

From Salonika

SPINACH FRITATA: (Fritata de Epinaca)
3 eggs
5 sheet matzos
1 box cottage cheese
1 cup sharp cheese
1 box of frozen spinach (chopped) or 2 cups fresh spinach
Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Wet matzos and crumble. Mix all of the ingredients together. Place in glass baking dish. Top with grated parmesan cheese. Bake at 350 for 45 minutes. Traditionally for breakfast but tastes great anytime.

CHICKEN PILAU: By Martha Matthews snoopy@cew.wwia.net
Chicken cut up in small cubes
1/2 cup rice
Chicken broth, 1 can
Raisins 1 oz
Grated carrots, 1 ounce
1 small chopped onion
1 tbsp flour
1 tsp salt
1tsp pepper Oil (corn or olive, preferably)

Roll chicken in small amount of flour. Heat oil in skillet and brown the chicken. In a pan, bring the chicken broth to a boil, then reduce heat and add rice, onions, carrots, raisins, salt and pepper. Turn off the skillet containing the chicken and add those chicken cubes to the chicken broth. Cover and heat the pilau over a medium flame until rice is done.

CHERRY CHICKEN PILAU: From Martha Matthews <snoppy@cew.wwia.net Martha says if you don't like this one, there is something wrong with you. What do I know? I am neither Sephardic nor the cook. I will let my wife cook it up.

The Chicken Part:
2 pds Cubed chicken
1/4 tsp turmeric
1/2 tsp salt
1/2 tsp pepper
2 tsp corn oil
1 cup water

The Cherry Pilau Part:
1 cup rice
2 1/4 cups water
1/4 tsp turmeric
3 tbsp corn oil
1 tsp corn oil
1 potato pealed and sliced

Preparing the rice: Boil two cups of water in a sauce pan, add rice.

Reduce heat to medium until rice is tender. In a pan add the turmeric, 1/4 cup water, 3 tbsp oil. Pour the rice over the potato and cook over low heat. Cover the pan. If possible, let a crust form on the bottom of the rice. You may want to add a little oil to the top of the rice and potato as they cook on the low heat. Cook for about 20 minutes over low heat or until done.

Preparing the chicken: Place onion, oil, chicken, water, salt, pepper, turmeric in a medium to large saucepan. Cover and cook over low heat for about 20 minutes. Stir to prevent burning. Cook until chicken is done. Set aside temporarily.

Preparing theCherry pilau: Mix the cherry pilau ingredients together in a saucepan. Bring to a boil, then quickly reduce heat to simmer only. Simmer for 3 minutes.

You may serve the 3 parts separately. Martha mixes the parts together and serves.

PATATAS KAVAKADAS: (Beef Stuffed Potatoes): Los Turkos trace this recipe to 15th century Spain.

2 lb. medium potatoes (about 8), peeled.
1 lb. ground beef.
1 thick slice of white bread, softened in water, squeezed dry (3/4 cup)
1 tsp. salt
1/4 tsp. pepper.
Flour for dredging.
2 eggs, beaten.
1/4 cup corn or sunflower oil for pan-frying.
2 cups homemade chicken broth.

Cut the potatoes lengthwise into halves and scoop out the pulp, leaving a firm wall about 1/4 inch thick.

Perpare the stuffing by mixing the beef, bread, salt,and pepper together. Fill the potatoes shell with about 2 tablespoons of the mixture. Dredge them all over with flour and them dip them into the beaten eggs.

Heat the oil in a skillet and brown the potatoes over moderate heat for 3 minutes. Put the potatoes in a pan and pour the chicken broth over them. Bring to a boil, cover the pan, and simmer over low heat for 1/2 hour.

Serve warm with the sauce. Serves 8 with other dishes.

HAMENTASCHEN

4 cups sifted flour
1 lb prunes, chopped fine
1/2 cup granulated sugar
2 tsp baking powder
2 tbs apricot jam
1 tbs grated orange rind
1/2 cup granulated sugar
1/2 tsp salt
1 tsp cinnamon
4 eggs
1/2 cup salad oil
1/2 cup finely chopped nuts
1/4 cup orange juice

Sift flour with sugar, baking powder, orange rind and salt. Make a well in the center of the dry ingredients; break eggs into the well. Add oil and mix well. Gradually add orange juice, stirring until all the juice is absorbed. Knead dought until smooth and satiny. Shape into balls about 1 1/2 inches in diameter. Roll out on well floured surface to 1/8 inch thickness. Cut into small rounds. Mix ingredients for filling. Place small amount of filling on each round. Pinch edges together over filling. Place on greased baking sheet. Bake at 350 degrees for about 30 minutes or until nicely browned. Makes 5 to 6 dozen.

TEZPISHTI (A Passover nut cake in Syrup) (From Turkey)

Syrup:
2 cups sugar
2 cups water
2 tsp lemon juice

Cake:
5 eggs
1 cup sugar
1/4 cup corn or sunflower oil
Juice and grated rind of 1 orange
2 tsp ground cinnamon
1 1/4 cup Passover fine matzoh cake meal
1 1/4 cup finely chopped blanched almonds

The syrup: Mix the sugar and water together in a pan and bring to a boil. Add the lemon juice and simmer over low heat for ten minutes. Cool the syrup.

The cake: Beat the eggs until frothy. Add the sugar and continue to beat until golden in color and well mixed. Add all the other cake ingredients, one at a time and stur them into the batter. Pour into an oiled and floured cake pan 13 x 9 x 2 and bake at 350 degrees for 30 minutes. Remove the cake.

Remove the cake from the oven and pour the cooled syrup over it. Let stand for 2 hours allowing the syrup to be absorbed.

PASSOVER KUGEL.

3 cups farfel
1 tsp. Cinnamon
5 eggs, separated
4 tbs sugar
1 stick margarine (melted) (1/4 pound)
2 cups applesauce
1 tsp. salt
1 cup crushed pineapple

Pour hot water over farfel, soak and drain. Use fruit juice instead of water if desired. Beat egg yolks and seasoning. Add margarine to farfel. Fold in all ingredients, egg whites last. Sprinkle with cinnamon and sugar. Place into greased 9" x 13" pan. Bake at 350 degrees (F) for 45 minutes.

KINGS CAKE (Torta de los Reyes)

5 eggs
1 1/2 cups sugar
2 1/2 cups finely ground unblanched almonds
1/3 matso meal

Preheat oven to 350 degrees (F). Spray a 9 inch spring-form cake pan with nonstick vegetable spray. In a large bowl, whist the eggs and sugar. Fold in the ground almonds, matzo meal, cinnamon, cloves, and orange rind. Pour into prepared cake pan and bake in preheated oven for 50 minutes or until a toothpick inserted in the center comes out clean. Cool in pan. Loosen around the edges with a spatula and remove from pan. Cut into wedges and serve. Makes 12 to 15 servings.

BOREKAS DE POTLEJON

Use your favorite dough recipe. The filling is provided below:
2 tbs. oil
1 medium egg plant, peeled and cut into small cubes
2 medium onions with diced hot peppers to taste

1/2 cup parmesan cheese
1 large can of diced tomatoes or 8 - 9 Roma tomatoes.

Heat oil in large pan. Saute onions, eggplant, and hot peppers until soft. Add tomatoes. Simmer for 2 to 3 hours until all liquid has evaporated. Bake at 350 degrees (F) for 30 - 40 minutes.

PITA DE SPINACHE

Into a large bowl mix the following:
2 packages of thawed forzen chopped spinach (squeeze out the liquid)
24 oz. low fat cottage cheese
4 oz. grated sharp cheddar cheese
4 eggs

Spray a vegetable spray on the bottom of a 13'' x 9" pan. Line the bottom of the pan with wet matzo. Add filling. Cover the top with wet matzo and push down into the filling. Add 1 tbs of oil evenly over the top matzos. (Should you like, you may also add chopped walnuts over the top. Cover with foil and bake at 350 degrees (f) for 40 minutes. Remove foil and continue baking for another 35 minutes. (You may also add chopped scallions and dill to the filling.)

AVICAS (Sephardic White Bean and Beef Soup)

1 lb. (about 2 1/2 cups) dried navy or other white beans, or 2 cups dried Garbanzos (chick peas)
1/4 cup olive or vegetable oil
2 large yellow onions or leeks, chopped (about 1 1/2 cups)
7 cups cold water
4 cups (2 lb.) peeled, seeded and chopped tomatoes
1 cup tomato sauce or 1/4 cup tomato paste
1 1/2 lb. beef chuck or short ribs, cut into 2 inch pieces
3 tbs. chopped fresh parsley
1 1/2 tsp. salt
ground black pepper to taste.

Cover the beans with water. Bring to a boil. Reduce the heat to low and simmer for 1 hour. Meanwhile, heat the oil in a large pot over medium heat. Add the onionss or leeks and saute until golden in color. Add the meat and the 7 cups of water. Bring to a boil, reduce heat to low and simmer, skimming occasionally for 45 minutes. Add the beans and tomatoes, tomato sauce or paste. Cover the pot and simmer until the meat and beans are very tender -- at least 3 hours. Stir in parsley, salt and pepper. Serve with pita or other flat bread and lemon wedges.

TURSHI (Middle East Pickeled Vegetables)

Vegetables
2 lb small cucumbers
2 lb halved or quartered green tomatoes
2 lb green peppers, seeded and sliced
2 lb carrots, sliced or cut into cubes
2 lb celery sliced
2 lb turnips quartered
2 lb blanched whole okra
1 cauliflower, cut into florets
1 head green cabbage, cut into chunks

Pickling liquid
4 to 5 garlic cloves, halved
1 tbs pickling spices (or sprinkle of red hot pepper flakes, optional)
4 cups water
1/2 cup distilled white or cider vinegar.
3 tbs kosher salt

Fill sterilized wide mouth jars with the vegetables and divide the pickling liquid between all the jars. Bring the water to a boil in a large nonreactive sauce pan over medium heat. (Do not use iron, copper or brass.)

Add the vinegar and salt and stir with a wooden spoon until the salt desolves. Add the hot liquid to the jars. Let cool and discard the garlic. Close the jars tightly. For crisp vegetables , refrigerate immediately and let sit 24 hours. For softer vegetables, leave in a cool , dark place for 2 days, then refrigerate.

SAQU (Sephardic Eggplant and Meat Casserole)

2 medium eggplants (about 1 1/2 lb. each) peeled and cut crosswise into 1/2 inch thick.
About 2 tbs. Kosher salt.
Olive or vegetable oil for frying

Meat filling:
1 medium yellow onion, chopped (about 1/2 cup)
3 tbs. olive or vegetable oil
1 clove garlic, minced
1 lb. ground beef or lamb
2 large eggs, lightly beaten
1/2 cup chopped fresh parsley
About 1 tsp. salt
ground black pepper to taste

Place the eggplant in a colander. Sprinkle with the Kosher salt and let stand for 1 hour. Rinse the the eggplant slices with water and press between several layers of paper towels until it feels firm.

Preheat oven to 350 degrees F. Grease a 13" x 9" baking dish.

Heat a thin layer of oil in a large skillet over medium heat. In batches, lightly brown the eggplant sliceson both sides, 2 to 3 minutes per side. Set aside.

To make the meat filling, heat the3 tbs.of oil .Place the oil in a large skillet over medium heat. Add the onion and and garlic and saute until soft and translucent, 5 to 10 minutes. Add the meat and cook, stirring frequently until the meat loses its red color, about 5 minutes. Drain off the excess fat. Remove from the heat and stir in the eggs, parsely, salt and pepper.

Arrange alternate layers of the eggplant and meat in the prepared dish., beginning and ending with the eggplant.

Bake until golden brown and heated through about 45 minutes. Let the casserole stand for10 minutes before slicing.

(Sarah Abravanel Eskenazi, Dec.)

ALITREYA CON MWEZ : (Spaghetti with walnuts). Salonika. This one is so easy it deserves a preface. It is a side dish. You can used left over spaghetti or thin noodles that has no sauce on it. Or of course, you can make spaghetti for this dish.

Spaghetti (in what ever amount you have on hand.
Oil
1/2 cup finely chopped walnuts (more if you like)
Sugar (to taste)

Put cold left over spaghetti in a bowl, moisten with oil. Add about 1 table spoon of sugar. Add nuts and mix. Serve cold or heated.

FASOUILA: (String beans) (From Turkey)

1 LB. fresh string beans
3 peeled tomatoes (or #2 canned tomatoes)
1 tsp. salt
2tbsp. vegetable oil
1/2 cup water

Remove tips of string beans and peel strings along the sides. Cut and slice french style. Wash and place in sauce pan. Add tomatoes, salt, oil and water. Cook in covered sauce pan over medium heat for approximately 20 minutes or until tender. Serves 4 - 6

1 medium peeled eggplant
1/4 cups oil
2 chopped onions
1 LB. stewing beef or lamb
1 LB. fresh, peeled tomatoes (or #303 can stewed tomatoes)
1tsp. salt
1/2 tsp. pepper

Pre cook beef or lamb as in preparing a stew. Fry onions in oil until golden brown. Add diced tomatoes. Cut egg plant into 1 inch cubes and add to mixture. Cover and simmer for 15 minutes or until tender. Add the vegetable mixture to the meat and simmer together. (Serves 4-6)

ARROS CON PINONES : (Rice with Pine Nuts) (From Turkey)

1 cup rice
1 cup chopped onion
Oil
1 cup water
1 tsp. salt (to taste)
1/4 cup pine nuts

1 cup wine
3 cups water
1/2 tsp. saffron
2 chicken bouillon cubes
1 1/2 cups long grain rice (rinsed)
1 cup canned each of green peas, asparagus spears, and pimento strips

Sauté chicken, onions, green pepper, salt, garlic and all powdered seasoning (except saffron) in oil. Add tomato sauce, olives and wine, simmer slowly. Add water and saffron. Let the mixture again come to a boil. Add bouillon cubes, and boil for 5 minutes. Stir in rice and bring the mixture to a boil again. Place in a pan and in a 400 degree oven for 40 minutes or until all water is absorbed. When ready to serve, add green peas and toss lightly. Place in serving dish and garnish with green asparagus spears and red pimento strips. Serves 6.

TRAVADOS (Pastry filled with almonds and honey and dipped in syrup). Ladino cookies submitted by Ms. Miriam Kurzwell from Israel. A Rosh Hashana recipe from her grandmother. For metric measures contact Ms. Kurzwell at miriamk@brorhail.org.il Also from my deceased mother in law, Sarah Abravanel Eskenazi) Measures here are American.

Dough:

200gr margarine (or1 cup oil)
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 cup water
1 egg
1/2 tsp baking soda
5 cups sifted flour (approximate)

Mix the ingredients to form a smooth medium dough. Roll the dough on a floured surface to 1/2 cm. thickness.

Filling:

1 1/2 cup ground almonds
! 1/2 cup ground walnuts
1/2 cup sugar
4 tbsp honey
1/2 cup water
1/2 tsp cinnamon
1/2 tsp cloves

Mix the filling ingredients together. For a sweeter filling, use 1 tsp cinnamon instead of cloves). Cut the dough into rounds (2 to 2 1/2 inches across) and place a small amount of filling on each round. Pinch edges together over the filling. Place on a cookie sheet lined with wax paper and bake about 30 minutes at 350F or until browned. Using this recipe you should have about 30 cookies.

Syrup:

1 cup sugar
3 tbsp. honey
1 1/2 cups water

Boil ingredients until sticky. Place Travados into syrup for about 1/2 minutes. Remove from syrup. You may wish to sprinkle Travados with toasted sesame seeds while sticky. Allow to cool. Store in closed box when cool. May be frozen.

CHICKEN PILAU : By Martha Matthews snoopy@cew.wwia.net
Chicken cut up in small cubes
1/2 cup rice
Chicken broth, 1 can

Raisins 1 oz
Grated carrots, 1 ounce
1 small chopped onion
1 tbsp flour
1 tsp salt
1tsp pepper Oil (corn or olive, preferably)

Roll chicken in small amount of flour. Heat oil in skillet and brown the chicken. In a pan, bring the chicken broth to a boil, then reduce heat and add rice, onions, carrots, raisins, salt and pepper. Turn off the skillet containing the chicken and add those chicken cubes to the chicken broth. Cover and heat the pilau over a medium flame until rice is done.

CHERRY CHICKEN PILAU: From Martha Matthews <snoppy@cew.wwia.net
Martha says if you don't like this one, there is something wrong with you. What do I know? I am neither Sephardic nor the cook. I will let my wife cook it up.

The Chicken Part:
2 pds Cubed chicken
1/4 tsp turmeric
1/2 tsp salt
1/2 tsp pepper
2 tsp corn oil
1 cup water

The Cherry Pilau Part:
1 cup rice
2 1/4 cups water
1/4 tsp turmeric
3 tbsp corn oil
1 tsp corn oil
1 potato pealed and sliced

Preparing the rice: Boil two cups of water in a sauce pan, add rice. Reduce heat to medium until rice is tender. In a pan add the turmeric, 1/4 cup water, 3 tbsp oil. Pour the rice over the potato and cook over low heat. Cover the pan. If possible, let a crust form on the bottom of the rice. You may want to add a little oil to the top of the rice and potato as they cook on the low heat. Cook for about 20 minutes over low heat or until done.

Preparing the chicken: Place onion, oil, chicken, water, salt, pepper, turmeric in a medium to large saucepan. Cover and cook over low heat for about 20 minutes. Stir to prevent burning. Cook until chicken is done. Set aside temporarily.

Preparing theCherry pilau: Mix the cherry pilau ingredients together in a saucepan. Bring to a boil, then quickly reduce heat to simmer only. Simmer for 3 minutes.

You may serve the 3 parts separately. Martha mixes the parts together and serves.

PATATAS KAVAKADAS: (Beef Stuffed Potatoes): Los Turkos trace this recipe to 15th century Spain.

2 lb. medium potatoes (about 8), peeled.
1 lb. ground beef.
1 thick slice of white bread, softened in water, squeezed dry (3/4 cup)
1 tsp. salt
1/4 tsp. pepper.
Flour for dredging.
2 eggs, beaten.
1/4 cup corn or sunflower oil for pan-frying.

2 cups homemade chicken broth.

Cut the potatoes lengthwise into halves and scoop out the pulp, leaving a firm wall about 1/4 inch thick.

Perpare the stuffing by mixing the beef, bread, salt,and pepper together. Fill the potatoes shell with about 2 tablespoons of the mixture. Dredge them all over with flour and them dip them into the beaten eggs.

Heat the oil in a skillet and brown the potatoes over moderate heat for 3 minutes. Put the potatoes in a pan and pour the chicken broth over them. Bring to a boil, cover the pan, and simmer over low heat for 1/2 hour.

Serve warm with the sauce. Serves 8 with other dishes.

HAMENTASCHEN

4 cups sifted flour
1 lb prunes, chopped fine
1/2 cup granulated sugar
2 tsp baking powder
2 tbs apricot jam
1 tbs grated orange rind
1/2 cup granulated sugar
1/2 tsp salt
1 tsp cinnamon
4 eggs
1/2 cup salad oil
1/2 cup finely chopped nuts
1/4 cup orange juice

Sift flour with sugar, baking powder, orange rind and salt. Make a well in the center of the dry ingredients; break eggs into the well. Add oil and mix well. Gradually add orange juice, stirring until all the juice is absorbed. Knead dought until smooth and satiny. Shape into balls about 1 1/2 inches in diameter. Roll out on well floured surface to 1/8 inch thickness. Cut into small rounds. Mix ingredients for filling. Place small amount of filling on each round. Pinch edges together over filling. Place on greased baking sheet. Bake at 350 degrees for about 30 minutes or until nicely browned. Makes 5 to 6 dozen.

Add salt and pepper. Mix cream cheese with milk, egg yokes, whole egg until smooth. Combine egg whites and onion mixture and mix well. Pour onion mixture onto matzo shell. Pour the cheese mixture over the onionss. Return to oven and make 30 minutes or until golden brown. Serve warm.

ALBONDIGAS (Sephardic Matzo Balls)

2 lb matzo meal
1 cup water
Salt and pepper to taste
6 eggs, beaten
1/4 quarter chopped (fine) walnuts.
8 cups strong chicken broth
6 cups water
3/4 cups chopped walnuts

Mix the first five ingredients and knead into soft dough. Let stand at room temperature for one hour. Shape albondigas into 1 inch balls. Bring chicken broth and water and chopped walnuts to a boil. Add salt to taste. Carefully drop albondigas into the boiling liquid a few at a time in uncovered pot.

TEZPISHTI (A Passover nut cake in Syrup) (From Turkey)

Syrup:
2 cups sugar
2 cups water
2 tsp lemon juice

Cake:
5 eggs
1 cup sugar
1/4 cup corn or sunflower oil
Juice and grated rind of 1 orange
2 tsp ground cinnamon
1 1/4 cup Passover fine matzoh cake meal
1 1/4 cup finely chopped blanched almonds

The syrup: Mix the sugar and water together in a pan and bring to a boil. Add the lemon juice and simmer over low heat for ten minutes. Cool the syrup.

The cake: Beat the eggs until frothy. Add the sugar and continue to beat until golden in color and well mixed. Add all the other cake ingredients, one at a time and stur them into the batter. Pour into an oiled and floured cake pan 13 x 9 x 2 and bake at 350 degrees for 30 minutes. Remove the cake.

Remove the cake from the oven and pour the cooled syrup over it. Let stand for 2 hours allowing the syrup to be absorbed.

PASSOVER KUGEL.

3 cups farfel
1 tsp. Cinnamon
5 eggs, separated
4 tbs sugar
1 stick margarine (melted) (1/4 pound)
2 cups applesauce
1 tsp. salt
1 cup crushed pineapple

Pour hot water over farfel, soak and drain. Use fruit juice instead of water if desired. Beat egg yolks and seasoning. Add margarine to farfel. Fold in all ingredients, egg whites last. Sprinkle with cinnamon and sugar. Place into greased 9" x 13" pan. Bake at 350 degrees (F) for 45 minutes.

KINGS CAKE (Torta de los Reyes)

5 eggs
1 1/2 cups sugar
2 1/2 cups finely ground unblanched almonds
1/3 matso meal
1 tsp. ground cinnamon
1/4 ground cloves
2 tbs. grated orange rind.

Preheat oven to 350 degrees (F). Spray a 9 inch spring-form cake pan with nonstick vegetable spray. In a large bowl, whist the eggs and sugar. Fold in the ground almonds, matzo meal, cinnamon, cloves, and orange rind. Pour into prepared cake pan and bake in preheated oven for 50 minutes or until a toothpick inserted in the center comes out clean. Cool in pan. Loosen around the edges with a spatula and remove from pan. Cut into wedges and serve. Makes 12 to 15 servings.

BOREKAS DE POTLEJON

Use your favorite dough recipe. The filling is provided below:
2 tbs. oil
1 medium egg plant, peeled and cut into small cubes
2 medium onions with diced hot peppers to taste
1/2 cup parmesan cheese
1 large can of diced tomatoes or 8 - 9 Roma tomatoes.

Heat oil in large pan. Saute onions, eggplant, and hot peppers until soft. Add tomatoes. Simmer for 2 to 3 hours until all liquid has evaporated. Bake at 350 degrees (F) for 30 - 40 minutes.

PITA DE SPINACHE

Into a large bowl mix the following:
2 packages of thawed forzen chopped spinach (squeeze out the liquid)
24 oz. low fat cottage cheese
4 oz. grated sharp cheddar cheese
4 eggs

Spray a vegetable spray on the bottom of a 13'' x 9" pan. Line the bottom of the pan with wet matzo. Add filling. Cover the top with wet matzo and push down into the filling. Add 1 tbs of oil evenly over the top matzos. (Should you like, you may also add chopped walnuts over the top. Cover with foil and bake at 350 degrees (f) for 40 minutes. Remove foil and continue baking for another 35 minutes. (You may also add chopped scallions and dill to the filling.)

AVICAS (Sephardic White Bean and Beef Soup)

1 lb. (about 2 1/2 cups) dried navy or other white beans, or 2 cups dried Garbanzos (chick peas)

1/4 cup olive or vegetable oil
2 large yellow onions or leeks, chopped (about 1 1/2 cups)
7 cups cold water
4 cups (2 lb.) peeled, seeded and chopped tomatoes
1 cup tomato sauce or 1/4 cup tomato paste
1 1/2 lb. beef chuck or short ribs, cut into 2 inch pieces
3 tbs. chopped fresh parsley
1 1/2 tsp. salt
ground black pepper to taste.

Cover the beans with water. Bring to a boil. Reduce the heat to low and simmer for 1 hour. Meanwhile, heat the oil in a large pot over medium heat. Add the onionss or leeks and saute until golden in color. Add the meat and the 7 cups of water. Bring to a boil, reduce heat to low and simmer, skimming occasionally for 45 minutes. Add the beans and tomatoes, tomato sauce or paste. Cover the pot and simmer until the meat and beans are very tender -- at least 3 hours. Stir in parsley, salt and pepper. Serve with pita or other flat bread and lemon wedges.

TURSHI (Middle East Pickeled Vegetables)

Vegetables
2 lb small cucumbers
2 lb halved or quartered green tomatoes
2 lb green peppers, seeded and sliced
2 lb carrots, sliced or cut into cubes
2 lb celery sliced
2 lb turnips quartered
2 lb blanched whole okra
1 cauliflower, cut into florets
1 head green cabbage, cut into chunks

Pickling liquid
4 to 5 garlic cloves, halved
1 tbs pickling spices (or sprinkle of red hot pepper flakes, optional)
4 cups water
1/2 cup distilled white or cider vinegar.
3 tbs kosher salt

Fill sterilized wide mouth jars with the vegetables and divide the pickling liquid between all the jars. Bring the water to a boil in a large nonreactive sauce pan over medium heat. (Do not use iron, copper or brass.) Add the vinegar and salt and stir with a wooden spoon until the salt desolves. Add the hot liquid to the jars. Let cool and discard the garlic. Close the jars tightly. For crisp vegetables , refrigerate immediately and let sit 24 hours. For softer vegetables, leave in a cool , dark place for 2 days, then refrigerate.

SAQU (Sephardic Eggplant and Meat Casserole)

2 medium eggplants (about 1 1/2 lb. each) peeled and cut crosswise into 1/2 inch thick.
About 2 tbs. Kosher salt.
Olive or vegetable oil for frying

Meat filling:
1 medium yellow onion, chopped (about 1/2 cup)
3 tbs. olive or vegetable oil
1 clove garlic, minced
1 lb. ground beef or lamb
2 large eggs, lightly beaten
1/2 cup chopped fresh parsley
About 1 tsp. salt
ground black pepper to taste

Place the eggplant in a colander. Sprinkle with the Kosher salt and let stand for 1 hour. Rinse the the eggplant slices with water and press between several layers of paper towels until it feels firm.

Preheat oven to 350 degrees F. Grease a 13" x 9" baking dish.
Heat a thin layer of oil in a large skillet over medium heat. In batches, lightly brown the eggplant sliceson both sides, 2 to 3 minutes per side. Set aside.
To make the meat filling, heat the3 tbs.of oil .Place the oil in a large skillet over medium heat. Add the onion and and garlic and saute until soft and translucent, 5 to 10 minutes. Add the meat and cook, stirring frequently until the meat loses its red color, about 5 minutes. Drain off the excess fat. Remove from the heat and stir in the eggs, parsely, salt and pepper.
Arrange alternate layers of the eggplant and meat in the prepared dish., beginning and ending with the eggplant.
Bake until golden brown and heated through about 45 minutes. Let the casserole stand for10 minutes before slicing.

Dear Doc

Glad to hear that you are still looking after your health
It is after all a difficult thing to buy back

I am still an out patient with a connection to the Tyme Farm Co-op here
But I am probably not going to move for the forseeable future

My Dad says I can use the flat as long as I want and I am now on long term benefits with what they have termed " protected rights "

Kind Regards

Dear Harris

Thank you for contacting me
It is good to hear Doc Sinda and you have got a business plan
My reaction to it though I think would depend on whether the theme of the site is fact or fiction or both
Also I would have thought that you are banking the whole project on a censorship loophole and the hope that the authorities are not just going to plug the loophole with some quick legislation
Furthermore what may be considered a lo ophole in one country might not be considered a loophole in another
Whatever happens though you are going to get complaints from somewhere around the world
This would seem to imply that for worldwide release the website is going to need an adult entry warning page which would seriously restrict your market and hence your ability to promote the website

But I think it would be safer and wiser to wait and see who wins the election
Only after the election will you know about whether you will be operating under a liberal or slightly more morally restrictive
legislature

Do send Doc Sinda my regards and good luck with the project

Kind Regards
Yours Sincerely

Dear Harris

Thank you for contacting me
It is good to hear Doc Sinda and you have got a business plan
My reaction to it though I think would depend on whether the theme of the site is fact or fiction or both
Also I would have thought that you are banking the whole project
on a censorship loophole and the hope that the authorities a re
not just going to plug the loophole with some quick legislation
Furthermore what may be considered a loophole in one country might not be considered a loophole in another
Whatever happens though you are going to get complaints from somewhere around the world
This would seem to imply that for worldwide r elease the website is going to need an adult entry warning page which would seriously restrict your market and hence your ability to promote the website
But I think it would be safer and wiser to wait and see who wins the election
Only after the election will you know about whether you will be operating under a liberal or slightly more morally restrictive
legislature

Do send Doc Sinda my regards and good luck with the project

Kind Regards
Yours Sincerely
Mike Poole

Dear Doc

Yes indeed
But unfortunately my religion precludes me from having anything more to do with it
It would count as following the way of the flesh which is something I have now rejected
I wish you both well with the project
But I have chosen to follow another path now

Kind Regards
Yours Sincerely

Michael: Well, Kerry called Bush and he conseeded. So we know it's 4 more years of the same. This is Not offensive or Pornografic Material. Well it maybe called Adult Alternative Material. Alot has to do with Traveling, Fantasies and Interviews. We want to have an Actress Established or Up and coming. Will tie in Links to her Up coming Next Movie with Trailers and Still Photos. Also there will be a VIP Membership with Pic ID could be a Debit Card too. Picture ID's are getting more important.Everyone needs a Good Debit Card.

OK, see what you think is possible. go to: http://www.powerweb.com/

They service and maintence for a low fee for the first two years until were established.

Love,

Joey/Doc.

Dear Harris

Thank you for contacting me
It is good to hear Doc Sinda and you have got a business plan
My reaction to it though I think would depend on whether the theme of the site is fact or fiction or both
Also I would have thought that you are banking the whole project
on a censorship loophole and the hope that the authorities a re
not just going to plug the loophole with some quick legislation
Furthermore what may be considered a loophole in one country might not be considered a loophole in another
Whatever happens though you are going to get complaints from

somewhere around the world
This would seem to imply that for worldwide r elease the website is going to need an adult entry warning page which would seriously restrict your market and hence your ability to promote the website
But I think it would be safer and wiser to wait and see who wins the election
Only after the election will you know about whether you will be operating under a liberal or slightly more morally restrictive
legislature

Do send Doc Sinda my regards and good luck with the project

Kind Regards
Yours Sincerely
Mike Poole

Dear Harris

Thank you for contacting me
It is good to hear Doc Sinda and you have got a business plan
My reaction to it though I think would depend on whether the theme of the site is fact or fiction or both
Also I would have thought that you are banking the whole project
on a censorship loophole and the hope that the authorities a re
not just going to plug the loophole with some quick legislation
Furthermore what may be considered a loophole in one country might not be considered a loophole in another
Whatever happens though you are going to get complaints from somewhere around the world
This would seem to imply that for worldwide r elease the website is going to need an adult entry warning page which would seriously restrict your market and hence your ability to promote the website
But I think it would be safer and wiser to wait and see who wins the election
Only after the election will you know about whether you will be operating under a liberal or slightly more morally restrictive
legislature

Do send Doc Sinda my regards and good luck with the project

Kind Regards

Yours Sincerely

Dear Harris

Thank you for contacting me
It is good to hear Doc Sinda and you have got a business plan
My reaction to it though I think would depend on whether the theme of the site is fact or fiction or both
Also I would have thought that you are banking the whole project
on a censorship loophole and the hope that the authorities a re
not just going to plug the loophole with some quick legislation
Furthermore what may be considered a loophole in one country might not be considered a loophole in another
Whatever happens though you are going to get complaints from somewhere around the world
This would seem to imply that for worldwide r elease the website is going to need an adult entry warning page which would seriously restrict your market and hence your ability to promote the website
But I think it would be safer and wiser to wait and see who wins the election
Only after the election will you know about whether you will be operating under a liberal or slightly more morally restrictive
legislature

Do send Doc Sinda my regards and good luck with the project

Kind Regards

Dear Doc

I am truely sorry to hear about your Mum
I owe you a great debt because it was only with your help that I quit smoking over a year ago
First your brother and now your Mum
But surely " benine " means harmless
Its when they say " malignant " that you have to worry
There are only two types of lump and " benine " means OK
So if it is benine why do they want to operate ?
They would only normally want to operate if it was malignant

Kind Regards
Yours Sincerely

Subject: Michael, Joseph Sinda has invited you to open a Google mail account

I've been using Gmail and thought you might like to try it out. Here's an invitation to create an account.Love & Happy Holiday's from Doc.

Joseph Sinda has invited you to open a free Gmail account. The invitation will expire in three weeks and can only be used to set up one account.

To accept this invitation and register for your account, visit http://gmail.google.com/gmail/a-bb396d89e5-d918edc051-64392a391f

Once you create your account, Joseph Sinda will be notified with your new @gmail.com address so you can stay in touch with Gmail!

If you haven't already heard about Gmail, it's a new search-based webmail service that offers:

- 1,000 megabytes (one gigabyte) of free storage
- Built-in Google search that instantly finds any message you want
- Automatic arrangement of messages and related replies into "conversations"
- Text ads and related pages that are relevant to the content of your messages

Gmail is still in an early stage of development. But If you set up an account, you'll be able to keep it even after we make Gmail more widely available. We might also ask for your comments and suggestions periodically and we appreciate your help in making Gmail even better.

Thanks,

The Gmail Team

Dear Doc

What would you say if at last I had a good idea about financing a film ?

About time I hear you say

Well here is the good idea and it is very simple

We get the actors to pay for the film

That way we get the film financed

The actors get more at the box office

And it is a patentable business plan that we can repeat as often as we want

Kind Regards
Yours Sincerely

Dear Harris: Hello, I have had a chance to meditate and review over our situation. Then I had an ephany. You are a Great Photo Journalist that has a Fine Eye for Fashion,Eros and the Unique. It is very difficuklt for you to juggle and do Marketing/Sales aswell. Times have changed and to give you a simple anolgy. If this was was pin the Tail on the Donkey, I've come up with a Digital Pin with a GPS and better bred of equin.

First of all, we go back to the Syndication Idea and to Regionals for Big City's. The Difference is We go through an established Infrostructure. AOL.com in Europe is going to have the same problem there having here in the States, retention. So they have to offer unique boutique News, Fashion, Eros items that maybe cutting edge. There based out of London. EasyCinemaDVD operated by Video Island a UK online established DVD rental operator is owned by a Greek Entrepeneur: Stelios Haji Ioannou. So, esentually you would have Sindarella, London Calling, Then Berlin, Milan, Rome,Madrid, Etc. We could have Stringers in certain areas that could supply stories & photos that we would approve. Just like the Up and coming "Bettina Rheims" with her new Book " More Trouble" by Schirmer/Mosel. We feature Teaser segments to we get paid By the Publisher for Target Marketing the Book and increasing sales. We can do this With Films, Records and Fashions. Karl Lagerfeld , with his new fist time Di

Fashion Chic Line selling thru a single store in Manhattan. Actually the store was stripped of Merchandise in 2 hours and thirty minutes. The average customer spent $670 Usd and some spent over $5K Usd. I think the store is F & H . That seems to be the trend in Fashion. Get a Famous name to endorse your Mass produced chic line. Then Target Market perhaps using Sindarella and the new Wiki Ad Techniques, which are lightening quick.
The reason I CC'd Michael A Poole is because his sister is Based in London and she is a photo Journalist. Who has distribution contacts. This is a very sound plan. I hope you appreciate it. Your Welcome.

Dear Michael: OK, will still need a contact for London. Is she just a mother and housewife. She probably works on the computer. Did You like my Game Plan. I'am highly motivated and reved up. Open to any and all suggestions. OK. Stay Warm, Dry and Kava Kava, Saint Johns Wart , Try a tincture of a Chiness Herb called Fo-Ti, that with Tuirmac main ingredient in curry with Timerelease C & E. Boy you will enjoy the amazing clarity. OK prospects such as aol.com, yahoo and offer adult news. I canput together the package then you or us can tyr to broker it. basically treat these news portals as if they were the new magazines. say we offer photo/text content edited to their acceptance level, non-fiction adult places around the world. we offer 20 yes experience published in playboy international and dozens of other magazines. photojournalist meets writing standards of associated press, former Boston Globe Paris correspondent, Tokyo correspondant for Women's Wear Daily.

it will be a big step forward if you can track down the exact person to contact to pitch this idea: netscape, yahoo, aol, microsoft europe (they have adult), geocities, adult friend finder, then we can go onto next step and pitch to them.

Dear Michael: Hello, Wow, You got the wrong website Address. This is real journalism that we would offer them. I just need Data info on Who. It could be in Italy, France, Germany, ireland. UK , OK. Spain. New York, Los Angeles or Dallas,TX. Real men do very little knitting Jersey Sweaters here to. Actually Turtleknecks are getting popular again for Winter. It's getting Cold here with windchill factors. Tonight again may go below Freezing again. Real strong winds coming down from Alaska and the Barring Straights. OK, even if You point me in the Right Direction that would help. God Save The Cows & The Sweaters this Holiday Season.
PS: You are a Hoot! a real Cheeky Monkey !
Thanks, Take Care,

Thanks for the offer of work on www.sindalella.com but it is not worth the risk here
They have all sorts of funny laws going back to the dark ages here
They say it is the oldest system of government in the world
They even still have a law which says it is illegal for men to knit jerseys here
Apparently years ago it was the only way to keep the men working on the fields

Dear Michael: Hi, no. Iam trying to find The Person Who handles and coordinates News for Microsoft in Europe and USA, Peoplesoft, Yahoo, and other major ISP's. You should go to Ted's website Directory and get a free listing for Your Most Popular Websites. Also put them on Google, AskJeeves,Metacrawler, and something called Motherknowsbest. There are free chat groups that specializing in what Your looking for perhaps try in Onion.com, or in GEOCITIES.com which is a division of Yahoo.com
OK, Mum goes into Surgery preps at 6:00AM I think it will be about 4.5 Hours. I think by 1:33PM she'll be out Friday Tommorow. It has caused me to rethink everything. If you know what I mean. All my best to You. Hope that I could help You now.
Love to All,

hi joseph,

sounds worth a shot. why not find out the contact in each of these prospects such as aol.com,
yahoo and offer adult news. I canput together the package then you or us can tyr to broker it.
basically treat these news portals as if they were the new magazines. say we offer photo/text content edited to their acceptance level, non-fiction adult places around the world. we offer 20 yes experience published in playboy international and dozens of other magazines. photojournalist
meets writing standards of associated press, former Boston Globe Paris correspondent, Tokyo

it will be a big step forward if you can track dow n the exact person to contact to pitch this idea:

Dear Doc

I still do not understand properly
But anyway my prayers will be with you and your Mum
I had to do a big rethink myself once
They said it was all about survival
Is your Dad still alive ?
My friend Doug at Church has just caught skin cancer on his face
They give him a cream to put on twice a day which has an acid in it that is strong enough to disolve gold
Maybe the bibles will help
Anyway my prayers are with you all
Let me know when she is out of danger

Kind Regards
Yours Sincerely
Mike

Dear Michael: She had her left breast removed this morning and reconstructive surgery. My Adopted Father and Sister came back about 5 hours later. She must be recouperating in the Hospital. Tel Your friend with skin cancer mail me a tube of that acid cream. Put on with surgical gloves and Q Tips, Swcotton swabs, OK. Take a herb Black cotash tincure, Extra Vitamin A, E, C, D & K. Also eat fresh Bee Pollen and take Milk thistle. Also take extra Fine Virgin Olive Oil. 4 Table spoons a Day and OMEGA 3,6,9 Aslmon fish grilled is great and calcium and Maganese supplements. Fresh Berries which are high in antioxidants and Pomegrant juice. After about 90 Days his skin will be clear and he'll feel so much better. OK

My address is: Doc Joseph P. Sinda

But anyway my prayers will be with you and your Mum
I had to do a big rethink myself once
They said it was all about survival
Is your Dad still alive ?
My friend Doug at Church has just caught skin cancer on his face
They give him a cream to put on twice a day which has an acid in it that is strong enough to disolve gold
Maybe the bibles will help
Anyway my prayers are with you all
Let me know when she is out of danger

Dear Michael: Hi, no. Iam trying to find The Person Who handles and coordinates News for Microsoft in Europe and USA, Peoplesoft, Yahoo, and other major ISP's. You should go to Ted's website Directory and get a free listing for Your Most Popular Websites. Also put them on Google, AskJeeves,Metacrawler, and something called Motherknowsbest. There are free chat groups that specializing in what Your looking for perhaps try in Onion.com, or in GEOCITIES.com which is a division of Yahoo.com
OK, Mum goes into Surgery preps at 6:00AM I think it will be about 4.5 Hours. I think by 1:33PM she'll be out Friday Tommorow. It has caused me to rethink everything. If you know what I mean. All my best to You. Hope that I could help You now.

But I am not really quite sure what you are asking me
Are you just trying to get traffic for www.sindarella.com ?
If so you are trying to get traffic for your website
So are quite a lot of other people
Its an intreeging and mind bending problem
If you find the answer let me know
Then I can get traffic for all of mine

Spain. New York, Los Angeles or Dallas,TX. Real men do very little knitting Jersey Sweaters here to. Actually Turtleknecks are getting popular again for Winter. It's getting Cold here with windchill factors. Tonight again may go below Freezing again. Real strong winds coming down from Alaska and the Barring Straights. OK, even if You point me in the Right Direction that would help. God Save The Cows & The Sweaters this Holiday Season.

hi joseph,

sounds worth a shot. why not find out the contact in each of these prospects such as aol.com, yahoo and offer adult news. I canput together the package then you or us can tyr to broker it.
basically treat these news portals as if they were the new magazines. say we offer photo/text
content edited to their acceptance level, non-fiction adult places around the world. we offer 20 yes
experience published in playboy international and dozens of other magazines. photojournalist
meets writing standards of associated press, former Boston Globe Paris correspondent, Tokyo
correspondant for Women's Wear Daily.

it will be a big step forward if you can track dow n the exact person to contact to pitch this idea:
netscape, yahoo, aol, microsoft europe (they have adult), geocities, adult friend finder, then we can go onto next step and pitch to them.

Dear Harris: Hello, I have had a chance to meditate and review over our situation. Then I had an ephany. You are a Great Photo Journalist that has a Fine Eye for Fashion,Eros and the Unique. It is very difficuklt for you to juggle and do Marketing/Sales aswell. Times have changed and to give you a simple anolgy. If this was was pin the Tail on the Donkey, I've come up with a Digital Pin with a GPS and better bred of equin.

First of all, we go back to the Syndication Idea and to Regionals for Big City's. The Difference is We go through an established Infrostructure. AOL.com in Europe is going to have the same problem there having here in the States, retention. So they have to offer unique boutique News, Fashion, Eros items that maybe cutting edge. There based out of London. EasyCinemaDVD operated by Video Island a UK online established DVD rental operator is owned by a Greek Entrepeneur: Stelios Haji Ioannou. So, esentually you would have Sindarella, London Calling, Then Berlin, Milan, Rome,Madrid, Etc. We could have Stringers in certain areas that could supply stories & photos that we would approve. Just like the Up and coming "Bettina Rheims" with her new Book " More Trouble" by Schirmer/Mosel. We feature Teaser segments to we get paid By the Publisher for Target Marketing the Book and increasing sales. We can do this With Films, Records an d Fashions. Karl Lagerfeld , with his new fist time Discount Fashion Chic Line selling thru a single store in Manhattan. Actually the store was stripped of Merchandise in 2 hours and thirty minutes. The average customer spent $670 Usd and some spent over $5K Usd. I think the store is F & H . That seems to be the trend in Fashion. Get a Famous name to endorse your Mass produced chic line. Then Target Market perhaps using Sindarella and the new Wiki Ad Techniques, which are lightening quick.
The reason I CC'd Michael A Poole is because his sister is Based in London and she is a photo Journalist. Who has distribution contacts. This is a very sound plan. I hope you appreciate it. Your Welcome.

Love to All,

Dear Self Improvement Subscriber,

This is David Riklan, editor of the Self Improvement Newsletter and founder of SelfGrowth.com.

I am writing to tell you about this new fr.ee CD (just released) that I thought you'd like to know about.

You'd better check it out fast...because my friend and #1 best-selling author Mike Litman is just days from charging what it's worth.

One of the many comments Mike has received came from a successful business owner. He said:

"As the CEO of a $4.5 million company I've been exposed to a lot, but NOTHING like 'Greatness Held Hostage.' Nothing. Listen to this for yourself, it will blow you away." - John Rogers, Chicago, Illinois

Cl.ick here:

http://www.1automationwiz.com/app/adtrack.asp?AdID=112764

The Fr.ee New CD uncovers:

11 Overlooked Success Strategies that will:

- Double Your In.come
- End Procrastination
- Destroy Fear
- Leap you towards Financial Free.dom
- And Have You Unleashing Your Greatness Within 14 Days. Guara.nteed!

It's really cool...

My goodness...I'm shocked Mike is also giving away over $617 worth of fr.ee gifts! This includes a fr.ee copy of his #1 best-selling book "Conversations with Millionaires" ($47, plus 9 hrs of audios) and his killer "hold nothing back" interview with Tony Robbins' mentor, Jim Rohn ($19 value).

"'Greatness Held Hostage' is the most incredible and passionate CD I've heard in years. It woke me up to another level of what's possible in my life." - Matt Bacak, Atlanta, Georgia

If you ask me...this is one site you need to see right now...

Check it out:

Your friend,

David Riklan
SelfGrowth.com

P.S. Hurry because I know this great offer is going to end real soon.

You get Mike's new breakthrough CD fr.ee plus a fr.ee copy of his #1 best-selling book “Conversations with Millionaires” ($47, plus 9 hrs of audios) and his killer "hold nothing back" interview with Tony Robbins' mentor, Jim Rohn ($19 value).

Hi Doc, Happy Holidays to you as well. I have had two very bad years for income as well. But there are a couple of real estate loans I'm trying to close, and I'm working diligently on business brokerage and a couple other things. If you have access to the Internet and can locate businesses for sale, we may have buyers. Buyers are in big supply, businesses are not. Let me know! Also now involved with another network marketing company (the 3rd in my lifetime) located at www.myvemma.com/jjp This company has attracted many big hitters from other companies and will do very well. I am trying to put about 20 people per month into my organization. The guy helping me in Chicago has made a lot of money in this industry and has actually developed systems for network marketing. Although I cannot pay a big commission (only $1,500), let me know if you can find a Mercedes Benz buyer looking for a late model car. We have a 2003 S430 4-door for sale at 15% off the appraised price.
Only 4,000 mi. Talk to you later. Sincerely,

Sounds bad but at least you still have the car to live in Keep cool
Keep sending me emails
If you are living in a shelter there will be lots of drug addicts
I am a bit worried their addiction will force them to rob you
They could very well get your car keys off you while you are sleeping and then they will clean you out of your entire car contents

On the basis that right now you are surrounded by addicts who need goods to rob to swoop with the dealers for a fix I would strongly advise you now is the right time to leave The Four Sisters in safe keeping with a Church or Temple

I have got the feeling you are about to get robbed of everything anyway no matter what you do so now is the time to lodge them somewhere safe in a Church or Temple in their best interests

You can always get them back once things get better which they definitely will

The way it works is the addicts swap what they rob with the dealers for gear
The vast majority of our emails are safe and secure

Do what you have to do to survive

Kind Regards etc

If you are living in a shelter there will be lots of drug addicts
I am a bit worried their addiction will force them to rob you
They could very well get your car keys off you while you are sleeping and then they will clean you out of your entire car contents

On the basis that right now you are surrounded by addicts who need goods to rob to swoop with the dealers for a fix I would strongly advise you now is the right time to leave The Four Sisters in safe keeping with a Church or Temple

I have got the feeling you are about to get robbed of everything anyway no matter what you do so now is the time to lodge them somewhere safe in a Church or Temple in their best interests

You can always get them back once things get better which they definitely will

Dear Doc

Just an idea
How about living in one of these instead of the shelter ?
You still have your driving license and a vehicle to trade in
Only trying to help
Maybe you can get better prices
I know that I would rather live in one of these than a shelter
I speak from experience
They are not cheap
But once you have bought one your safe

The trouble is I do not know the proper name for them in American English
Over here they call them Motor Homes or Camper Vans
But I know there is a different word for them in Los Angeles

If you shop around you might pick one up for $3k as a trade in for your car
Then you are off the streets and free aswell
Take a look just to get the idea

Dear Michal: hello, itsa Great Idea in theory. My cars not worth $3K on the Market right now. I could get a Ball and small light weight Pop Up trailer. Iam working on Getting a Room in The YMCA. Also trying to get a Job. This is through my cooking Volenteer work in The Armory. I put in long hours its hard work, get paid nothing but. I will not starve they promise me that. There Spiritual , Black Women who are very Obesse. They are first cousins and I worked hard to gain there trust.Now they watch out for me.

Listen very carefully: I have made a Major Nuitrion and Health Discovery. I formulated a synergistic formula that has amazing properties, Ok. It can help cure Diabetes, Hypoglycemia and helps urinary infections. What is very interesting you can grow most of this on Your organic Farm. Grow Lima Beans, Lentils, Wild Oregano, Garlic, Shallets, Collect Bee pollen add Shitake Mushrooms and Saw Palmento, Ground raw sun Flowers seeds and Extra Fine Virgin Olive Oil, Ok cooking everything in a Low Heat Large Pot. for two Hours with Water. Some of the Water will boil down. Add the Wild Oregano not too much, add saw Palmento, Bee Pollen, Olive Oil, fresh lemon juice and an herb called Gymnema it comes from India & Afrrica. ou can had a little Black Strap Molasis or Real Maple Syrup. You can Bottle it, it is a real Elixer. You may want to add some Protein Powder. It is an Organic, Wholelistic Formula that can be used by Vegeterians. Take 2 to 4 table spoons at least 3 to 4 times a Day.
You'll
see dramatic Results within 72 Hours. Also helps to loose weight and calm down the Nervous System. Add The Chiness Herb Fo-Ti and Turamic for Total Mental Clarity. It will release a growth hormone and cut your craving for all sugars . I call it "Doc Sinda's Revitilize" A Natural Remedy formulated to maintain Good Health and Stamina from Stress and excess sugar intake.
PS: It works an could help US to look and feel 15 Years Younger than our real age. Just try it, it can help the Organic Farm too. Remember Dont Cook Herbs add them after You have cooked the main ingedients. Also wait till the mixture cools down after cooking to add Herbs, Olive Oil, Black Strap Molasis, Fresh Lemon Juice or Maple Syrup. You should Puree everything after cooking. It will look like a Green Sauce. It is a Super Food Nuitritional Diet Food Tonic. Please try it. gotta Go. Love & Happier Holiday's,
Doc Sinda

How would you set about setting up a lobby for compulsory condom use in porn films ?

It would save life and set a good example

Do you think just one quick email to California Governor Arnold Swartznegger would set the ball rolling ?

I read that at the moment there is only one production company called Vivid that does not allow non condom use in Hollywood

Dear Michael: Unfortunatly The Governers plate is full. You need to contact our vFriend & colleage Harris from Paris . Who wrote the Book "HOLLYWOOD BLUE" behind the scenes of the Adult Industry. His email is : HFP@verizon.net There are two Nurses that run The Health Checkout Clinic for the Adult Industry. Without there approval You don't work in the Industry. They are trying for Mandatory Condem use, but it will take a Major Disastor for Change. Try changing The European Adult Industry. Just like the Music Industry with Napster and MP3 filing. It's just a matter of time The Adult Industry will get Pirated the same way. Must use clear see through condoms sponsered by a Huge Maker of Condoms. Let them underwrite some or all the Production. TROJANS largest manufacturer of Condems in USA could put pressure to make it happen. Must have Fines and possible incarceration for Producers, Director and Actors who are carriers of infectious sexually transmitted disease.

More Heavy rains, flashfloods a mess hear and in Russia too. There water tables are up over 7 feet of Normal reading. OK. Stay healthy, wealthy and Wise.
Love, Doc/Joey

I did some more work on our email book today
I sorted them all out into a folder
Then I very nearly managed to print off a copy but things went wrong 10% in to the book

I telephoned a local firm of book binders
I have also looked for a grant for the publishing and printing

But more importantly than any of that I have figured out a way around all the technical problems so far and that is to simply unplug the computer itself and carry the whole thing around to the book binders and let them figure it all out

Its got batteries and there is nothing else on it to worry about really

I am expecting the book binders to call back tomorrow
None of this is going to cost you a thing by the way

It has been a very hard day of work all in all

" Dear Dennis,

I really find your newsletters to be interesting and of great help -- keep up the good work! I want to set up an office and be able to email my secretary and have her reply to the email without having an Internet connection as I don't need the internet in the business.

Do you know of a program that would let me do this? I own a Dell PC and talked to a technician, but they didn't have a suggestion for me. Any help you can give would be greatly appreciated! "

Title: Move installed program to another hard drive letter (same system)?
Category: Windows
by Dennis Faas, infopackets editor
http://www.infopackets.com

Infopackets Gazette Reader John T. 'oldbiker' writes:

" Dear Dennis,

First of all I think your newsletter -- it's great. I recently partitioned [split] my hard drive into two drive letters (C and D drives), so that I could move my installed programs over to D drive and leave C for Windows only. This way, if Windows crashes on me, I can format C drive and not worry about losing any my improtant data (on D drive). [Side note: This is also a great strategy for keeping disk image backups small, and to reduce the time it takes to create an image file].

My question: is there a program that will transfer programs and shortcuts from one hard drive partition to another, and also change the system registry to reflect the move? "

My response:

Dear Doc

I have sent our email book to an editor for a quote on editing / formatting

If affordable it should eventually come back as a fully edited / formated PDF document

This can then be published at www.lulu.com simply by uploading the PDF document

The publisher take 20% but there is no minimum order and I have allready signed up

We can set our own price for the book

I was thinking of about $10

Would that be OK ?

Once again this is not going to cost you a thing but we should end up with our own website where we can sell the books

Kind Regards

Principle One: Take 100% Responsibility For Your Life

"You must take personal responsibility. You cannot change the circumstances, the seasons, or the wind, but you can change yourself." – Jim Rohn, America's foremost business philosopher

One of the most pervasive myths in the American culture today is that we are entitled to a great life -- that somehow, somewhere, someone (certainly not us) is responsible for filling our lives with continual happiness, exciting career options, nurturing family time, and blissful personal relationships simply because we exist.

But the real truth -- and the one lesson this whole book is based on -- is that there is only one person responsible for the quality of the life you live.

That person is you.

If you want to be successful, you have to take 100% responsibility for everything that you experience in your life. This includes the level of your achievements, the results you produce, the quality of your relationships, the state of your health and physical fitness, your income, your debts, your feelings -- everything!

This is not easy.

In fact, most of us have been conditioned to blame something outside of ourselves for the parts of our life we don't like. We blame our parents,our bosses, our friends, the media, our coworkers, our clients, our spouse, the weather, the economy, our astrological chart, our lack of money -- anyone or anything we can pin the blame on. We never want to look at where the real problem is -- ourselves.

There is a wonderful story told about a man who is out walking one night and comes upon another man down on his knees looking for something under a streetlamp. The passerby inquires as to what the other man is looking for. He answers that he is looking for his lost key. The passerby offers to help and gets down on his knees and helps him search for the key. After an hour of fruitless searching, he says, "We've looked everywhere for it and we haven't found it. Are you sure that you lost it here?"

The other man replies, "No, I lost it in my house, but there is more light out here under the streetlamp."

It is time to stop looking outside yourself for the answers to why you haven't created the life and results you want, for it is you who creates the quality of the life you lead and the results you produce.

You -- no one else!

To achieve major success in life -- to achieve those things that are most important to you -- you must assume 100% responsibility for your life. Nothing less will do.

One Hundred Percent Responsibility For Everything

As I mentioned in the introduction, back in 1969 -- only 1 year out of graduate school -- I had the good fortune to work for W. Clement Stone. He was a self-made multimillionaire worth $600 million at the time -- and that was long before all the dot-com millionaires came along in the '90s. Stone was also America's premier success guru. He was the publisher of Success Magazine, author of The Success System That Never Fails, and coauthor with Napoleon Hill of Success Through a Positive Mental Attitude.

When I was completing my first week's orientation, Mr. Stone asked me if I took 100% responsibility for my life.

"I think so," I responded.

"This is a yes or no question, young man. You either do or you don't."

"Well, I guess I'm not sure."

"Have you ever blamed anyone for any circumstance in your life? Have you ever complained about anything?"

"Uh ... yeah ... I guess I have."

"Don't guess. Think."

"Yes, I have."

"Okay, then. That means you don't take one hundred percent responsibility for your life. Taking one hundred percent responsibility means you acknowledge that you create everything that happens to you. It means you understand that you are the cause of all of your experience. If you want to be really successful, and I know you do, then you will have to give up blaming and complaining and take total responsibility for your life -- that means all your results, both your successes and your failures. That is the prerequisite for creating a life of success. It is only by acknowledging that you have created everything up until now that you can take charge of creating the future you want.

"You see, Jack, if you realize that you have created your current conditions, then you can uncreate them and re-create them at will. Do you understand that?"

"Yes, sir, I do."

"Are you willing to take one hundred percent responsibility for your life?"

"Yes, sir, I am!"

And I did.

 BOOK EXCERPT: The Modern Girl's Guide to Life - By Jane Buckingham ***

The Only Thing You Should Ever Fake ... Being a Domestic Goddess

I'll admit it: The words "domestic goddess" give me a panic attack. Maybe it's because I consider myself a twenty-first-century career chick who's better at making spreadsheets than folding bedsheets. Or maybe it's because the idea of spending eight gazillion hours of my (nonexistent) free time fashioning swan-shaped souffles and embroidered his-and-hers laundry bags just doesn't sound like a party to me.

The problem is I want to revive the traditions that made me feel at home as a little girl. I want my mother-in-law to know that her son isn't living one step up from a hostel, my children to realize that dinner doesn't have to come from a delivery boy, and my houseguests to enjoy staying with me, rather than balking, "No, really, Jane! We'll just stay at a hotel!" But the more I try to make my house the perfect example of domestic goddestry, the more befuddled I become.

Meanwhile, so many of my friends seem ridiculously "together" on the home front. Take my friend Brooke, for example. Every time I walk into her home, there are tuberose Diptyque candles burning, fresh flowers in clean glass vases in every room, and freshly folded towels in her bathroom ... rolled in a basket, just like the B&Bs do it. The second I sink into her (vacuumed) couch, she always offers me something freshly baked or freshly squeezed from her kitchen. Her pantry, medicine cabinets, and closets are perfectly organized (I snooped, sue me). And she doesn't just go into Martha mode when she knows company's coming over -- her abode has looked equally abundant when I've dropped by unexpectedly. On top of that, she holds down a demanding nine-to-seven job at a law firm. I admit, all of that je ne sais quoi she had for chic living started making me feel resentful... and increasingly horrified to invite her and her husband to my own messy digs. That is, until the night I got it out of her over cocktails: She has a housekeeper. Twice a week. Who cooks. Everything.

So there you have it. Not all domestic goddesses are quite as savvy as they seem. It's fairly reassuring, no? Sure, some women are more naturally adept at keeping house than others (surely Brooke surpasses me). But what I've recently learned is that being a modern (aka "mock") domestic goddess isn't about doing it all: it's about taking shortcuts to give the impression of having it all. And all you need to do is get a little more organized, learn some kitchen basics, and cut a few corners here and there. Not only will these tips and tricks streamline your life, you'll probably feel just a tad more in control of your day-to-day. Because while a girl's identity doesn't revolve around playing little miss homemaker anymore (thank God!), knowing that you can do a flawless load of laundry, whip up a fabulous dish fast, keep your palace in order, nip a vino stain in the bud, and play hostess like a pro will give you confidence that you've got your entire act together (and will impress everyone, especially you). Here's your crash course in domestic goddestry.

Welcome to the Scariest Room in a Modern Girl's House ... the Kitchen!

Let's face it: Our purses often contain more items than our fridges do. And when we do go to the kitchen to make a meal, our grub tends to fall within the four basic Modern Girl food groups: booze, baby carrots, microwave popcorn, and leftover takeout. Now, there's a legit reason for it all -- we're just too busy to cook up something elaborate. But if you know what to stock up on beforehand, and can get it all in one time -- saving trip to the market, you may find yourself more inspired to let your inner chef come out to play.

 BOOK REVIEW: 5-Factor Fitness: The Diet and Fitness Secret of Hollywood's A-List – By Harley Pasternak, M.Sc., with Ethan Boldt ***

Actors Halle Berry and Benjamin Bratt, pro basketball player Rick Fox and rapper Eve all work out 25 minutes a day, five days a week. They eat five meals a day, and each meal takes five minutes to prepare. And they look like a million bucks. Although this sounds too good to be true, Pasternak, who trains the above-mentioned stars and others, insists it isn’t. This easy-to-follow lifestyle guide explains Pasternak’s program. Intensity and variety are the keystones of the exercise portion, which simply requires dumbbells and a bench (the plan does include a suspiciously scant five minutes of cardiovascular activity, which readers can complete by power walking or jogging outside, or using a cardio machine at home or at the gym). The diet portion of the plan seems sensible enough; Pasternak urges readers to eat foods that include low-fat, quality protein; moderate carbs; fiber and healthy fat; and to drink sugar-free beverages (he allows one day a week to be a "cheat day"). "Real results" sidebars profile non-famous people who've benefited from Pasternak's approach, including a 74-year-old professor, a 45-year-old film producer and a 37-year-old real estate agent. Backed up with scientific research and including recipes, this book is a refreshingly simple addition to the current diet and health offerings.

Dear Michael & Harris: Hello, harris has a Camera. I think he's busy right now. What really pisses me off is that. The YMCA who rents the Armoury gets paid by the State and Government. They are cutting all kinds of corners and the Homeless are paying the price for it. Everyone is afraid to speak up and do something about it. The Food is being streached, you have no idea. There should be a health screening and free shots given for colds and flue. NEW STRAINS OF VIRUSES COME IN WITH NEW PEOPLE EVEY NIGHT. HOW CAN YOU BUILD UP YOUR IMMUNE SYSTEM.

iT IS LIKE DANT'S iNFERNO and it is worse in other places.I dread being here night after miserable night. I work in the itchen till about 11:00PM then get Up at 4:00AM and leave. Returning back at 5PM to work making sandwiches and cooking and washing an cleaning. All with know pay as a Volenteer. Oh, yes Iam humbled down to my very Soul. The Arminian's have taken over Glendale and it is a Police State now. Something like George Orwell's "1984". Big Brother is Everywhere. Goodbye and Good Luck.

Thanks. God Bless You All,

Dear Dr Joseph,

Thank you for your prompt response to my email message. I understand your concern and I consider it expedient to give you the details of this transaction.

This transaction is legitimate and in essence it will undergo normal procedures as stipulated in the financial and allied matters act and all legal documents will be issued in your name. I contacted you bec you have the same last name with Mr. Pafford Sinda (blessed memory)and so you can lay claims to this huge amount he left behind as his next of kin.
You will be entitled to 35% of the total fund at the conclusion of the transaction, 30% goes to charity because late Mr. Pafford Sinda was involved in some charity organisations and he intended to build a charity foundation before his death, so i intend to open a charity foundation in his name in order to immortalise his name, while 35% of the money willmine because i will provide all the information that will make the Bank release the money to you. Three days after you confirm the money in your account, i will come over to your country for disbursement/sharing of the fund according to the agreed percentage.

Late Mr. Pafford Sinda was born in 1944. he worked with Shell Petroleum Company as an engineer and later retired to private practice as a consultant and formed an oil servicing company .he operated an account with REGENT BANK of Africa until death. he had a wife named Mrs Linda and a daughter named Susan who died alongside with him in the auto accident on the 21 April, 2002.
You must understand that in the finance industry, chances or opportunities like this are common but not heard. People put their monies in Banks and some of these accounts are either coded or confidentially operated ,therefore, when such people die what do you think that happens to these monies when nobody comes for their claims? Well, this is one of the numerous avenuood "free" monies are made within and amongst the officials. I did not mastermind my client's death and I did not operate or manage his account but i was his personal attorney so was privy to his transaction with the Bank. I have in my possession certificate of deposit and death certificate which are the requirements for the claim .As soon as you indicate your interest to claim this fund, I will send to you the application of claim you will send to the Bank for the claim for an urgent approval. Please nthat this transaction requires utmost trust, sincerity and confidentiality for its conclusion.

I await your prompt reply.
Best regards.

If you are living in a shelter there will be lots of drug addicts
I am a bit worried their addiction will force them to rob you
They could very well get your car keys off you while you are sleeping and then they will clean you out of your entire car contents

On the basis that right now you are surrounded by addicts who need goods to rob to swoop with the dealers for a fix I would strongly advise you now is the right time to leave The Four Sisters in safe keeping with a Church or Temple

I have got the feeling you are about to get robbed of everything anyway no matter what you do so now is the time to lodge them somewhere safe in a Church or Temple in their best interests

You can always get them back once things get better which they definitely will

Dear Doc

Just an idea
How about living in one of these instead of the shelter ?
You still have your driving license and a vehicle to trade in
Only trying to help
Maybe you can get better prices
I know that I would rather live in one of these than a shelter
I speak from experience
They are not cheap
But once you have bought one your safe

The trouble is I do not know the proper name for them in American English
Over here they call them Motor Homes or Camper Vans
But I know there is a different word for them in Los Angeles

If you shop around you might pick one up for $3k as a trade in for your car
Then you are off the streets and free aswell
Take a look just to get the idea

Dear Michal: hello, itsa Great Idea in theory. My cars not worth $3K on the Market right now. I could get a Ball and small light weight Pop Up trailer. Iam working on Getting a Room in The YMCA. Also trying to get a Job. This is through my cooking Volenteer work in The Armory. I put in long hours its hard work, get paid nothing but. I will not starve they promise me that. There Spiritual , Black Women who are very Obesse. They are first cousins and I worked hard to gain there trust.Now they watch out for me.

Listen very carefully: I have made a Major Nuitrion and Health Discovery. I formulated a synergistic formula that has amazing properties, Ok. It can help cure Diabetes, Hypoglycemia and helps urinary infections. What is very interesting you can grow most of this on Your organic Farm. Grow Lima Beans, Lentils, Wild Oregano, Garlic, Shallets, Collect Bee pollen add Shitake Mushrooms and Saw Palmento, Ground raw sun Flowers seeds and Extra Fine Virgin Olive Oil, Ok cooking everything in a Low Heat Large Pot. for two Hours with Water. Some of the Water will boil down. Add the Wild Oregano not too much, add saw Palmento, Bee Pollen, Olive Oil, fresh lemon juice and an herb called Gymnema it comes from India & Afrrica. ou can had a little Black Strap Molasis or Real Maple Syrup. You can Bottle it, it is a real Elixer. You may want to add some Protein Powder. It is an Organic, Wholelistic Formula that can be used by Vegeterians. Take 2 to 4 table spoons at least 3 to 4 times a Day.
You'll
see dramatic Results within 72 Hours. Also helps to loose weight and calm down the Nervous System. Add The Chiness Herb Fo-Ti and Turamic for Total Mental Clarity. It will release a growth hormone and cut your craving for all sugars . I call it "Doc Sinda's Revitilize" A Natural Remedy formulated to maintain Good Health and Stamina from Stress and excess sugar intake.
PS: It works an could help US to look and feel 15 Years Younger than our real age. Just try it, it can help the Organic Farm too. Remember Dont Cook Herbs add them after You have cooked the main ingedients. Also wait till the mixture cools down after cooking to add Herbs, Olive Oil, Black Strap Molasis, Fresh Lemon Juice or Maple Syrup. You should Puree everything after cooking. It will look like a Green Sauce. It is a Super Food Nuitritional Diet Food Tonic. Please try it. gotta Go. Love & Happier Holiday's,

Dear Michael: Unfortunatly The Governers plate is full. You need to contact our vFriend & colleage Harris from Paris . Who wrote the Book "HOLLYWOOD BLUE" behind the scenes of the Adult Industry. His email is : HFP@verizon.net There are two Nurses that run The Health Checkout Clinic for the Adult Industry. Without there approval You don't work in the Industry. They are trying for Mandatory Condem use, but it will take a Major Disastor for Change. Try changing The European Adult Industry. Just like the Music Industry with Napster and MP3 filing. It's just a matter of time The Adult Industry will get Pirated the same way. Must use clear see through condoms sponsered by a Huge Maker of Condoms. Let them underwrite some or all the Production. TROJANS largest manufacturer of Condems in USA could put pressure to make it happen. Must have Fines and possible incarceration for Producers, Director and Actors who are carriers of infectious sexually transmitted disease.

More Heavy rains, flashfloods a mess hear and in Russia too. There water tables are up over 7 feet of Normal reading. OK. Stay healthy, wealthy and Wise.

I did some more work on our email book today
I sorted them all out into a folder
Then I very nearly managed to print off a copy but things went wrong 10% in to the book

I telephoned a local firm of book binders
I have also looked for a grant for the publishing and printing

But more importantly than any of that I have figured out a way around all the technical problems so far and that is to simply unplug the computer itself and carry the whole thing around to the book binders and let them figure it all out

Its got batteries and there is nothing else on it to worry about really

I am expecting the book binders to call back tomorrow
None of this is going to cost you a thing by the way

It has been a very hard day of work all in all

Kind Regards

Do you know of a program that would let me do this? I own a Dell PC and talked to a technician, but they didn't have a suggestion for me. Any help you can give would be greatly appreciated! "

Title: Move installed program to another hard drive letter (same system)?
Category: Windows
by Dennis Faas, infopackets editor
http://www.infopackets.com

Infopackets Gazette Reader John T. 'oldbiker' writes:

" Dear Dennis,

First of all I think your newsletter -- it's great. I recently partitioned [split] my hard drive into two drive letters (C and D drives), so that I could move my installed programs over to D drive and leave C for Windows only. This way, if Windows crashes on me, I can format C drive and not worry about losing any my improtant data (on D drive). [Side note: This is also a great strategy for keeping disk image backups small, and to reduce the time it takes to create an image file].

My question: is there a program that will transfer programs and shortcuts from one hard drive partition to another, and also change the system registry to reflect the move? "

My response:

I telephoned a local firm of book binders
I have also looked for a grant for the publishing and printing

But more importantly than any of that I have figured out a way around all the technical problems so far and that is to simply unplug the computer itself and carry the whole thing around to the book binders and let them figure it all out

Its got batteries and there is nothing else on it to worry about really

I am expecting the book binders to call back tomorrow
None of this is going to cost you a thing by the way

It has been a very hard day of work all in all

Kind Regards
Yours Sincerely
Mike Poole

Dear Michael: Hello, thanks for the info. Maybe that's one good reason there are so many people in to Adult and Alternative Fetishes on the Internet. Could be. Thanks are friends at WHO have screwed US over before,remember.Those bastards made millions of US.Your getting the info online, they won't even give you Air Faire and Room for the Conference. You'd have to be an Invited Speaker on " Your Family Jewels and other Intellectual Property".

Love to All,

Dear Doc

I have sent our email book to an editor for a quote on editing / formatting

If affordable it should eventually come back as a fully edited / formated PDF document

This can then be published at www.lulu.com simply by uploading the PDF document

The publisher take 20% but there is no minimum order and I have allready signed up

We can set our own price for the book

I was thinking of about $10

Would that be OK ?

Once again this is not going to cost you a thing but we should end up with our own website where we can sell the books

Kind Regards
Yours Sincerely

Principle One: Take 100% Responsibility For Your Life

"You must take personal responsibility. You cannot change the circumstances, the seasons, or the wind, but you can change yourself." – Jim Rohn, America's foremost business philosopher

One of the most pervasive myths in the American culture today is that we are entitled to a great life -- that somehow, somewhere, someone (certainly not us) is responsible for filling our lives with continual happiness, exciting career options, nurturing family time, and blissful personal relationships simply because we exist.

But the real truth -- and the one lesson this whole book is based on -- is that there is only one person responsible for the quality of the life you live.

That person is you.

If you want to be successful, you have to take 100% responsibility for everything that you experience in your life. This includes the level of your achievements, the results you produce, the quality of your relationships, the state of your health and physical fitness, your income, your debts, your feelings -- everything!

This is not easy.

In fact, most of us have been conditioned to blame something outside of ourselves for the parts of our life we don't like. We blame our parents,our bosses, our friends, the media, our coworkers, our clients, our spouse, the weather, the economy, our astrological chart, our lack of money -- anyone or anything we can pin the blame on. We never want to look at where the real problem is -- ourselves.

There is a wonderful story told about a man who is out walking one night and comes upon another man down on his knees looking for something under a streetlamp. The passerby inquires as to what the other man is looking for. He answers that he is looking for his lost key. The passerby offers to help and gets down on his knees and helps him search for the key. After an hour of fruitless searching, he says, "We've looked everywhere for it and we haven't found it. Are you sure that you lost it here?"

The other man replies, "No, I lost it in my house, but there is more light out here under the streetlamp."

It is time to stop looking outside yourself for the answers to why you haven't created the life and results you want, for it is you who creates the quality of the life you lead and the results you produce.

You -- no one else!

To achieve major success in life -- to achieve those things that are most important to you -- you must assume 100% responsibility for your life. Nothing less will do.

One Hundred Percent Responsibility For Everything

As I mentioned in the introduction, back in 1969 -- only 1 year out of graduate school -- I had the good fortune to work for W. Clement Stone. He was a self-made multimillionaire worth $600 million at the time -- and that was long before all the dot-com millionaires came along in the '90s. Stone was also America's premier success guru. He was the publisher of Success Magazine, author of The Success System That Never Fails, and coauthor with Napoleon Hill of Success Through a Positive Mental Attitude.

When I was completing my first week's orientation, Mr. Stone asked me if I took 100% responsibility for my life.

"I think so," I responded.

"This is a yes or no question, young man. You either do or you don't."

"Well, I guess I'm not sure."

"Have you ever blamed anyone for any circumstance in your life? Have you ever complained about anything?"

"Uh ... yeah ... I guess I have."

"Don't guess. Think."

"Yes, I have."

"Okay, then. That means you don't take one hundred percent responsibility for your life. Taking one hundred percent responsibility means you acknowledge that you create everything that happens to you. It means you understand that you are the cause of all of your experience. If you want to be really successful, and I know you do, then you will have to give up blaming and complaining and take total responsibility for your life -- that means all your results, both your successes and your failures. That is the prerequisite for creating a life of success. It is only by acknowledging that you have created everything up until now that you can take charge of creating the future you want.

"You see, Jack, if you realize that you have created your current conditions, then you can uncreate them and re-create them at will. Do you understand that?"

"Yes, sir, I do."

"Are you willing to take one hundred percent responsibility for your life?"

"Yes, sir, I am!"

And I did.

The Only Thing You Should Ever Fake ... Being a Domestic Goddess

I'll admit it: The words "domestic goddess" give me a panic attack. Maybe it's because I consider myself a twenty-first-century career chick who's better at making spreadsheets than folding bedsheets. Or maybe it's because the idea of spending eight gazillion hours of my (nonexistent) free time fashioning swan-shaped souffles and embroidered his-and-hers laundry bags just doesn't sound like a party to me.

The problem is I want to revive the traditions that made me feel at home as a little girl. I want my mother-in-law to know that her son isn't living one step up from a hostel, my children to realize that dinner doesn't have to come from a delivery boy, and my houseguests to enjoy staying with me, rather than balking, "No, really, Jane! We'll just stay at a hotel!" But the more I try to make my house the perfect example of domestic goddestry, the more befuddled I become.

Meanwhile, so many of my friends seem ridiculously "together" on the home front. Take my friend Brooke, for example. Every time I walk into her home, there are tuberose Diptyque candles burning, fresh flowers in clean glass vases in every room, and freshly folded towels in her bathroom ... rolled in a basket, just like the B&Bs do it. The second I sink into her (vacuumed) couch, she always offers me something freshly baked or freshly squeezed from her kitchen. Her pantry, medicine cabinets, and closets are perfectly organized (I snooped, sue me). And she doesn't just go into Martha mode when she knows company's coming over -- her abode has looked equally abundant when I've dropped by unexpectedly. On top of that, she holds down a demanding nine-to-seven job at a law firm. I admit, all of that je ne sais quoi she had for chic living started making me feel resentful... and increasingly horrified to invite her and her husband to my own messy digs. That is, until the night I got it out of her over cocktails: She has a housekeeper. Twice a week. Who cooks. Everything.

So there you have it. Not all domestic goddesses are quite as savvy as they seem. It's fairly reassuring, no? Sure, some women are more naturally adept at keeping house than others (surely Brooke surpasses me). But what I've recently learned is that being a modern (aka "mock") domestic goddess isn't about doing it all: it's about taking shortcuts to give the impression of having it all. And all you need to do is get a little more organized, learn some kitchen basics, and cut a few corners here and there. Not only will these tips and tricks streamline your life, you'll probably feel just a tad more in control of your day-to-day. Because while a girl's identity doesn't revolve around playing little miss homemaker anymore (thank God!), knowing that you can do a flawless load of laundry, whip up a fabulous dish fast, keep your palace in order, nip a vino stain in the bud, and play hostess like a pro will give you confidence that you've got your entire act together (and will impress everyone, especially you). Here's your crash course in domestic goddestry.

Welcome to the Scariest Room in a Modern Girl's House ... the Kitchen!

Let's face it: Our purses often contain more items than our fridges do. And when we do go to the kitchen to make a meal, our grub tends to fall within the four basic Modern Girl food groups: booze, baby carrots, microwave popcorn, and leftover takeout. Now, there's a legit reason for it all -- we're just too busy to cook up something elaborate. But if you know what to stock up on beforehand, and can get it all in one time -- saving trip to the market, you may find yourself more inspired to let your inner chef come out to play.

The list price for this book is $25.95. To purchase it from Amazon.com for $17.13, a 34% discount, go directly to http://www.amazon.com/exec/obidos/ISBN=0060734167/selfimprovemeonlA/

 BOOK REVIEW: 5-Factor Fitness: The Diet and Fitness Secret of Hollywood's A-List - By Harley Pasternak, M.Sc., with Ethan Boldt ***

Actors Halle Berry and Benjamin Bratt, pro basketball player Rick Fox and rapper Eve all work out 25 minutes a day, five days a week. They eat five meals a day, and each meal takes five minutes to prepare. And they look like a million bucks. Although this sounds too good to be true, Pasternak, who trains the above-mentioned stars and others, insists it isn’t. This easy-to-follow lifestyle guide explains Pasternak's program. Intensity and variety are the keystones of the exercise portion, which simply requires dumbbells and a bench (the plan does include a suspiciously scant five minutes of cardiovascular activity, which readers can complete by power walking or jogging outside, or using a cardio machine at home or at the gym). The diet portion of the plan seems sensible enough; Pasternak urges readers to eat foods that include low-fat, quality protein; moderate carbs; fiber and healthy fat; and to drink sugar-free beverages (he allows one day a week to be a "cheat day"). "Real results" sidebars profile non-famous people who've benefited from Pasternak's approach, including a 74-year-old professor, a 45-year-old film producer and a 37-year-old real estate agent. Backed up with scientific research and including recipes, this book is a refreshingly simple addition to the current diet and health offerings.

Dear Michael & Harris: Hello, harris has a Camera. I think he's busy right now. What really pisses me off is that. The YMCA who rents the Armoury gets paid by the State and Government. They are cutting all kinds of corners and the Homeless are paying the price for it. Everyone is afraid to speak up and do something about it. The Food is being streached, you have no idea. There should be a health screening and free shots given for colds and flue. NEW STRAINS OF VIRUSES COME IN WITH NEW PEOPLE EVEY NIGHT. HOW CAN YOU BUILD UP YOUR IMMUNE SYSTEM.

iT IS LIKE DANT'S iNFERNO and it is worse in other places.I dread being here night after miserable night. I work in the itchen till about 11:00PM then get Up at 4:00AM and leave. Returning back at 5PM to work making sandwiches and cooking and washing an cleaning. All with know pay as a Volenteer. Oh, yes Iam humbled down to my very Soul. The Arminian's have taken over Glendale and it is a Police State now. Something like George Orwell's "1984". Big Brother is Everywhere. Goodbye and Good Luck.

Thanks. God Bless You All,

Joseph / Doc.

Dear Doc

How would you feel about calling in a documentary film crew actually into the shelter to interview you personally about your experience there in the last few weeks ?

With the right connections I think we can probably do the whole documentary on credit and then bill the networks after it was made

Kind Regards
Yours Sincerely
Mike Poole

Michael: What Number to call Here/ Please resend The Tel# OK, I'll register.
Doc.

Michael Poole <michaelapolocaldial.com> wrote:Dear Doc

There is a special telephone number that you are meant to call in the CIA when this sort of thing happens
The thinking behind it is that if this is indeed a genuine legacy that you have nothing to lose

If it is genuine you stand to get twice as much if you use the CIA because it will cut out the bribe
And you are not going to get out of taxes no matter what you do offshore

Death and s are all you can be certain of in life

I know that you have given him my email address allready but please do not tell him my address or the country I live in

If you do not like the idea of calling the CIA just call your local Police Station

Remember if is genuine you have nothing to lose

Kind Regards
Yours Sincerely

Dear Michael: Please review. Is this part of the 419 . The Man who died was my cousin. Linda Sinda His wife was My Fathers Sister Daughter.I want to set up the Charity part, Because I've done that before. If real, I want everything to go through You into a Bank in Guersey. We will pay No Bank Fees.You will do what is Fair. AS Iam The Natural tive You can Negotiate Those Percentages.OK. Thank You
Sincerely Yours,
Doc.

Dear Dr Joseph,

Thank you for your prompt response to my email message. I understand your concern and I consider it expedient to give you the details of this transaction.

This transaction is legitimate and in essence it will undergo normal procedures as stipulated in the financial and allied matters act and all legal documents will be issued in your name. I contacted you bec you have the same last name with Mr. Pafford Sinda (blessed memory)and so you can lay claims to this huge amount he left behind as his next of kin.
You will be entitled to 35% of the total fund at the conclusion of the transaction, 30% goes to charity because late Mr. Pafford Sinda was involved in some charity organisations and he intended to build a charity foundation before his death, so i intend to open a charity foundation in his name in order to immortalise his name, while 35% of the money willmine because i will provide all the information that will make the Bank release the money to you. Three days after you confirm the money in your account, i will come over to your country for disbursement/sharing of the fund according to the agreed percentage.

Late Mr. Pafford Sinda was born in 1944. he worked with Shell Petroleum Company as an engineer and later retired to private practice as a consultant and formed an oil servicing company .he operated an account with REGENT BANK of Africa until death. he had a wife named Mrs Linda and a daughter named Susan who died alongside with him in the auto accident on the 21 April, 2002.
You must understand that in the finance industry, chances or opportunities like this are common but not heard. People put their monies in Banks and some of these accounts are either coded or confidentially operated ,therefore, when such people die what do you think that happens to these monies when nobody comes for their claims? Well, this is one of the numerous avenuood "free" monies are made within and amongst the officials. I did not mastermind my client's death and I did not operate or manage his account but i was his personal attorney so was privy to his transaction with the Bank. I have in my possession certificate of deposit and death certificate which are the requirements for the claim .As soon as you indicate your interest to claim this fund, I will send to you the application of claim you will send to the Bank for the claim for an urgent approval. Please nthat this transaction requires utmost trust, sincerity and confidentiality for its conclusion.

I await your prompt reply.
Best regards.
